COUNTY CONVENTION.

The members of the Union Republican Party of Mifflin county, are requested to meet at their usual places of holding delegate elections, on to elect delegates to a County Convention to be held at Lewistown, on Monday, the 13th of August, to elect Congressional and Representative Conferences, and to nominate candidates for Associate Judges, Sheriff, Commissioner, and Auditor.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 11, 1866,

By order of the Co. Com.

R. W. PATTON, Chairman.

The delegate elections are recommended to be held during the afternoon of said day, between the hours of 2 and 7 p. m., and to be kept open two hours from the time of opening. In Lewistown the usual hours have been from 2 to 4 p. m.

Union Meeting.

The Union men of Mifflin county, and all others who have been acting with them in their efforts to put down the rebellion, and who, in weal and woe, have rallied around the flag—all who desire to unite with them in sustaining Congress in its patriotic efforts to reconstruct the Union on a sound basis, are requested to assemble in County Meeting, at the Town Hall, Lewistown, on MONDAY EVENING, AUGUST 13th, for the purpose of opening the campaign in Mifflin county.

Able speakers will be in attendance.

Lewistown, Aug. 8, 1866.

The Gazette for the Campaign.

At the request of a number of Union men, we have concluded to furnish the Gazette to October 31st, at the following rates, payable when ordered:

1 copy $0 40
5 copies to one address 2 00
10 do do 3 50
25 do do 6 75
25 do do 8 00
33 do do 10 00

In Lewistown papers will be delivered by the carrier to whomsoever ordered, but when sent in packages through the county we cannot undertake to direct each paper.

Delegate Elections.

We hope our friends throughout the county will attend the delegate election on Saturday, and see that good men are selected. But few candidates have been announced, and as but little rivalry has thus far arisen, the delegates will be able to act with better judgement and more for the interests of the ticket than if having but one particular office in view.

Where fitness, location and standing are embodied in a soldier, we give that soldier the preference, and shall be glad to see the convention adopt the same rule; but be the nominees soldiers or civilians, let them by all means be of the right stamp. It has been suggested that difficulty may arise as to who has a right to vote for delegates. There can be none in this respect, as it is generally understood that whoever is willing to support the ticket to be nominated by the delegates is entitled to a vote.

Speaking of the adjournment of Congress, the last Johnstown Democrat says:

"Their last act of infamy, was to vote each member of Congress $8,000, under the cloak of martial music, by passing the bounty bill, WHICH WILL BLEED THE NATIONAL TREASURY OF THE $1,000,000! We are glad to see 'the cuss removed.'"

The above is some more democratic love for the private soldier. Here the Clymerites lately found fault with Congress for not passing a bounty bill, and now that one has been passed a democratic organ pronounces it "bleeding the treasury."

The Democrat and Facts.

The Democrat says the Judiciary Committee's report fails to give any evidence of complicity with the murder of President Lincoln, either against Jeff Davis or any other of the Southern leaders.

Any such evidence would of course be circumstantial, and in our opinion if it could be shown here on a trial that A entertained propositions from B and C to assassinate D, and D was afterwards assassinated by E and the secret cypher of A found on the assassin, as was the case with Booth, who had that of the rebel government, a Mifflin county jury would be very apt to convict A as an accessory to the crime.

The report which the Democrat says exonerates Jeff Davis, furnishes the following among many other facts:

On the 12th of September, 1864, a letter was written to Jeff Davis by J. S. Paramore, which was received, as appears by the endorsement, on the 20th of the same month. The following is a copy:

"SEPTEMBER 12, 1861.
'BOSTON P. O., Thomas Co. Ga.
'JEFFERSON DAVIS:
'SIR: Having a desire to be of benefit to the Confederate States is the only excuse I can offer for addressing you a letter; and believing the best plan would be to dispose of the leading characters of the North, for that reason I have tried and experimented in certain particulars that will do this without difficulty, although it is quite an unheralded manner of warfare; and not knowing whether it would meet with your approbation or not, prevents me from giving you a full account of the material used, although I believe any one of them would take the life of a Southerner in any manner they could. If you wish it, write to me and get the whole process. Hoping you good health and future victory.

"J. S. PARAMORE."

At the top of this paper, in the handwriting of Jeff Davis, is the following note:

"Secretary of War, J. D." Upon the back of this letter is this endorsement, under the name and residence of the writer: "Has discovered a mode of disposing of the leading characters at the North.—File."

On the 17th of August, 1863, one H. C. Durham writes to Jefferson Davis a letter, of which the following is a copy:

"NEAR SAVANNAH, Ga. Aug. 17, '63.
To President J. Davis:
Mr. President: After long meditation and much reflection on the subject of this communication, I have determined to intrude upon you, earnestly hoping my motive will constitute a full vindication for such presumption on the part of one so humble and obscure as myself, though I must say that the evidence of your Christian humility most fully assures me. I propose, with your permission, to assist in organizing a number of select men, say not less than three to five hundred, to go into the United States and assassinate the most prominent leaders of our enemies, for instance, Seward, Lincoln, Greeley, Prentice, etc.

Begging your respectful attention to this communication, I am your Excellency's most obedient servant,

H. C. DURHAM, 63d Ga. Vol.
To his Excellency President Davis, Richmond.

This letter was received Aug. 24, 1863, and is noticed as follows:

"Asks permission to take from three to five hundred men, and assassinate the leading men of the United States. Respectfully referred, by the direction of the President, to the Hon. Secretary of War, J. C. Ives, Col. and A. D. C. Aug. 24.—File."

In addition to the testimony thus presented upon this point, the committee refer to a letter of Lieut. R. Alston, which was produced at the trial of the conspirators of the assassination of President Lincoln, from which the following is an extract:

"I now offer you my services, and if you will favor me in my designs I will proceed, as soon as my health will permit, to rid my country of some of her deadliest enemies by striking at the very heart's blood of those who seek to enchain her in slavery. I consider nothing dishonorable having such a tendency. All I ask of you is to favor me by granting me the necessary papers, &c., by traveling on I am perfectly familiar with the North, and feel confident that I can execute anything I undertake. I was in the raid last June in Kentucky, under General John Hunt Morgan, was taken prisoner, escaped from them by disguising myself in the garb of a citizen. I went thro' to the Canadas, from whence, by the assistance of Col. J. P. Holcombe, I succeeded in working my way around and through the blockade. I should like to have a personal interview with you, in order to perfect the arrangements before starting."

The following are the endorsements upon the above communication:

"A. 1390. Abia 1390. Lt. W. Alston, Montgomery, Sulphur Springs, Va. No date. Is in General Duke's command; accompanied the raid into Kentucky, and was captured, but escaped into Canada, whence he found his way back. Been in bad health. Now offers his services to rid the country of some of its deadliest enemies. Asks for no papers to permit him to travel within the jurisdiction of the Government; would like to have an interview and explain." Respectfully referred, by direction of the President, to the Hon. Secretary of War."

"Signed, Burton W. Harrison." Received, Nov. 29, 1864. Recorded, book A. & G. O., Dec. 15, 1864. A. G. for attention. By order, signed, J. A. Campbell, A. S. W."

It is thus clearly established that this poor, innocent lamb, Jeff Davis, entertained such propositions, and instead of rejecting them as cowardly and dishonorable, referred them to his Secretary of War for consideration!

The Democrat attempts to justify the removal of officers for opinion's sake, by citing the fact that Congress struck out the appropriation to pay our Minister to Portugal because he wrote a private letter to Seward censuring Congress. That paper however forgets to state Mr. Seward made this private letter public by publishing it.

The Democrat is mistaken in saying that Cornelius Vanderbilt, A. T. Stewart, and Wm. B. Astor of New York have been elected delegates to the Johnson Convention, and rather unfortunate in alluding to them at all. Those parties, with others, have issued a call for a State Convention to be held to-morrow at Saratoga Springs to appoint delegates, and that call, over their signatures, concludes with the following significant paragraph:

"By the language and spirit of the CALL, it will be perceived that those who refused their support to the government in putting down rebellion, and those who approved of the action of Congress in keeping loyal representatives out of their seats and loyal States out of the Union, are excluded from the invitation, and are NOT expected to participate in the preliminary meetings, or to take seats in the convention."

According to this, while these rich men do not want to be admitted north, neither are they willing to admit northern copperheads or suffer them to participate in the delegate elections. It thus appears that about one-half of the democracy of this county would be excluded.

It is of course an easy matter for a correspondent of the New York Herald to get up an "announcement" that a deficiency of $50,000,000 has been discovered while Mr. Chase was Secretary of the Treasury, and equally easy for the Democrat to assume it as a fact, and then intimate that Harper's Weekly, Leslie's Illustrated, &c. were brought to be loyal.—The Harpers and Frank Leslie will hardly sleep soundly for the remainder of their lives after this discovery of the Democrat.

It appears to us the correspondent of the Baltimore Sun who, by his own account, spent one day in Fredericksburg and discovered that a contract buying party, put not less than three and as high as seven bodies into a box the size of a musket box, must have been more than double under the influence of tinfoot.

His happy conclusion that "if" the contractor gets paid for seven coffins instead of one, it is a good thing for him, is conclusive for the Democrat, and it swallows up as sound democratic gospel.

Nothing however can better illustrate the unfairness of the Democrat's position than merely admitting a single case of cruel inhumanity against the blacks south. Ever since Johnson's 22d February speech every daily paper has furnished abundant evidence that hundreds if not thousands of former slaves have been murdered in cold blood, and the murderers left unwhipped by justice. The terrible scenes at Memphis and last week at New Orleans, demonstrate that well-disposed people do not rule, and prove also that such a state of society is totally unfitted for regulating itself, much less making laws for us.

We last week corrected a statement in reference to Mr. McCord's Alabama school, and since then have received the following note from him in reference to the paragraph as originally published. After stating he was not notified not to return, and referring to what we did not say, he continues—

"Certain children of Alabama who examined my scholars on their way to and from school, told me that they never knew white children to learn so fast, and wanted to know if I thought darkies could learn faster than white children. I told them that I thought white children could learn faster. My own school demonstrated my position. Mulattos learn faster than full-blooded Africans. Those who have the most white blood in their veins learn faster. But the blackest among them can learn, and more rapidly too than many think they can. There is a great field for missionary enterprise today in the South. No other field promises so rich, so sure, so ready a harvest. Not only the black men, but the poor whites of the South need our aid and claim our sympathy.

If we would reap any benefit from the victory we have gained we must educate all classes, North and South.

R. H. McCORD.

News from the Old World.

LONDON, August 3.—Received in New York, August 5.—Martial law has been proclaimed in Lower Austria, and also in Venice.

The peace conference is to be held at Prague. The preliminaries thereto are agreed upon as follows: Austria is to withdraw from the German confederation, and is to lose Venetia and her part of Schleswig-Holstein. Austria is also to pay $10,000,000 to her adversaries as the expenses of the war. The German States north of the Main are to form a Union under the guidance of Prussia, and those south of the Main are to form an independent Union.

A Hod Fellows Union has been incorporated in Cincinnati.

A message by the Atlantic Telegraph to England costs $100 in gold.

Two years ago, the Rebels were besieging Washington; now they are strutting through its streets. Progress, that!

Among some persons arrested at Harrisburg for dealing in counterfeit money, is Dr. Lindsay, of blood searcher notoriety.

Howell Cobb, Buchanan's rebel Secretary of the Treasury, who swindled the people out of at least $50,000 by designing mismanagement, is on the stump for "my policy."

A shop in Baltimore was set on fire last week by the agency of a warped pane of glass in a window, which acted as convex lens, and concentrated the sun's rays upon a pile of combustible material, causing it to take fire.

On the leg and thigh of Mr. Jones, who was killed by lightning the other day, in Piqua, Ohio, and on the back of his little son, was daguerreotypied a perfect image of the tree under which they were standing at the time of the accident.

Whether the Republican Congress has done anything for white people during its recent session, will soon be discovered by the release of many taxes on farmers, mechanics, and workmen generally. The fact is there has not been such a much nigger in Congress as there is on the brains of Clymer's loafers.

Among the regiments which the Harrisburg Patriot and Union attempts to disparage is the 201st. The best of the joke is that the President of the Harrisburg Clymer Club was its Colonel and his brother second in command.

A soldier who lost both hands in the war was furnished with a hand organ, and, with his son, a young lad, has traveled a year or two in the vicinity of Boston, with remarkable success, having already accumulated $15,000, the generous contributions of the charitable.

We are glad to notice the appearance of the Central Courier, a new republican paper, at Selinsgrove, Snyder county, and we trust it will be liberally supported, and the other papers there being too busily engaged in carrying petty offices on their shoulders, to attend to anything else.

Ex-Alderman James T. Harner, a noted democratic rowdy, was shot to death on Wednesday evening, at the tavern of Mr. Peck, corner of Passyunk road and Federal street, Philadelphia, by Jas. Easton, in self-defense. Mr. Easton immediately proceeded to the Central station and surrendered himself to the authorities.

Recently two men drove up to a toll gate near Washington, Ohio, in a spring wagon. During a dispute which one of the men had with the gate keeper about a counterfeit bill, the other man, a Mr. Chas. Scott, turned around on his seat to get at his pocket book, when he lost his balance, and fell off the wagon backwards, striking on his head, and breaking his neck instantly.

A soldiers' convention, composed principally of greenback officers, was held at Harrisburg last Wednesday, which gravely resolved that they were the only honest men and patriots in the land, that all others were counterfeiters and disunionists, swore they were better than the nigger, and then adjourned to hear Clymer, Wallace, and other copperheads deliver discourses on every subject except their war record. The thing itself was a good deal of a fizzle.

A. H. Stephens of Georgia, in a recent letter says: "The public good is my only object. How best to subserve that consistently with truth, honor, and uprightiness, is the only question with me." This man took oath six times to support the Constitution of the U. S., then turned rebel and took the rebel oath, and is now willing to take the first again.—What would a jury think of the truth, honor and uprightiness of an accommodating witness of this kind?

BOOK NOTICES.

A Political Manual for 1866, including a classified summary of the important Executive, Legislative, and Political Military Facts of the period, from President Johnson's Accession, April 15th, '65, to July 4th, '66; and containing a full record of the Action of each branch of the Government on Reconstruction. By Edward McPherson, Clerk of the House of Representatives of the United States.

This is one of the most useful works to politicians of all shades and colors we have met with, as it contains everything relating to the present campaign men of that class can desire, while to all others it cannot be otherwise than interesting. The President's speeches, addresses, orders, &c., from his inauguration to the present time are peculiarly refreshing.

WORKS OF NATURE.
In a state of health the intestinal canal may be compared to a river whose waters flow over the adjoining land, through the channels nature or art has made, and improve their quality; so long as it runs smoothly the channels are kept pure and healthy; if the course of the river is stopped, then the water in the canals is no longer pure, but soon becomes stagnant. There is but one law of circulation in nature. When there is a superabundance of humoral fluid in the intestinal tubes, and costiveness takes place, it flows back into the blood vessels, and infiltrates itself into the circulation. To establish the free course of the river, we must remove the obstructions which stop its free course, and those of its tributary streams. With the body, follow the same natural principles—remove the obstructions from the bowels with BRANDRETH'S PILLS, which never injure, but are always efficient for the perfect cleansing of the system from foulness or disease. Remember, never suffer a drop of blood to be taken from you. Evacuate the humors as often and as long as they are deranged, or as long as you are sick. See that B. BRANDRETH is in white letters in the Government stamp. Sold by all Druggists. jyls.
