How Johnson receptions are got up, may be inferred from the fact that every hand in the Government Printing Office at Washington was paid two dollars for turning out to welcome back the electioneering hero who don't care for dignity! This is fully equal to the rottenness of the old Canal Democracy. At a meeting held in the Court House at Bedford, on Saturday evening, B. F. Meyers, the Democratic candidate for Senator, addressed the audience. During his remarks he said the name of Booth would live. He, like Winkelried, had laid down his life for his country, that Switzerland had her Winkelreid, Scotland her Bruce and America her Booth. and that the time would come when a monument would be erected to Booth higher than that erected to Lincoln.

ANDREW JOHNSON ON RECONSTRUCTION. "In calling a convention to restore the State, who shall restore and re-establish Shall the man who gave his influence and his means to destroy the Government Is he to participate in the great work of reorganization? Shall he who brought this misery upon the State be permitted to control its destinies? If this be so, then all this precious blood of our brave soldiers and officers so freely poured out will have been wantonly spilled, all the glorious victories won by our noble armies will go for naught, and all the bat-tle-fields which have been sown with dead heroes during the rebellion will have been made memorable in vain. Why all this carnage and devastation? It was treason might be put down and traitors punished. Therefore I say that traitors shall take a back seat in the work of restoration. ANDREW JOHNSON IN FAVOR OF DISFRANCE

CHISING TRAITORS.

"I say that the traitor has ceased to be a citizen, and in joining the rebellion has become a public enemy. He forfeited his right to vote with loyal men when he renounced his citizenship and sought to de-stroy our Government. We say to the most honest and industrious foreigner who comes from England and Germany to dwell among us, and to add to the wealth of the country, Before you can be a citizen you must stay here for five years.' If we are so cautious about foreigners, who voluntarily renounce their homes to live with us, what should we say to the traitor who, although born and reared among us, has raised a paricidal hand against the Government which always protected him? My judgment is that he should be subjected to a severe ordeal before he is restored to citizen-

ANDREW JOHNSON IN FAVOR OF EXECU-TING TRAITORS.

"Show me who has been engaged in these conspiracies, who has fired upon our flag, who has given instructions to take our forts, custom-houses, arsenals, and dock-yards, and I will show you a traitor. Were I President of the United States, I would do as Thomas Jefferson did in 1806 with Aaron Burr. I would have them arrested, and, if convicted, within the meaning and scope of the Constitution by the State of the Constitution by the stitution, by the Eternal God I would ex-ecute them!"

ANDREW JOHNSON FAVORS CONFISCA-TION.

"Treason must be made odious and traitors punished and impoverished .-Their great plantations must be seized and divided into small farms, and sold to honest industrious men.'

NEW PHYSIOGNOMY, or Signs of Character," as

One elegant volume, with nearly 800 pages, and 1,000 illustrations. By S. R. Wells, Editor Phrenological Journal. Price, post paid, $5. Address Fowler & Wells, No. 389 Broadway, New York.

"New Physiognony" is emmently practical, fally illustrated, and well suited to the wants of all. In the study of "the face" the reader soon learns to read each and every feature. Noses are classified as the Roman, Greek, Jewish, Snub and Celestial. The cyes speak all languages, whether black, blue, brown or hazel. In alike manner, cheeks, neck, ears, hands, feet, walk, voice, laugh, etc., are shown to be "signs of character."

In no other work is so much light thrown upon the character and destiny of mankind as in this, or the distinctive traits of nations and tribes so clearly pointed out. Portraits of distinguished persons of ancient and modern times, with biographical sketches and delineation of character, are given. Divines, Orators, Statesmen, Warriors, Artists, Poets, Philosophers, Inveniors, Surgeons, Discoverers, Actors, Musicians, etc., are included. It is an "Encyclopædia" of biography, acquanting the reader with the career and character of many great men and women of the past 1,000 years, and of the present—such, for instance, as Aristotle, Julius Cassar, Shakspeare, Washington, Napoleon, Franklin, Bancroft, Bryant, Longfellow, Irving, Rosa Bonheur, Theodosis Burr, Coden, Bright, Lawrence, Bolivar, Whately, Thackeray, Dow, Knox, Richeliue, Mouley, Mill. Spencer, Thompson, Guthrie, Alexander, and hundreds of others. Agams Washed. Book sent by return post or express, on receipt of Price.

To be voted in three tickets-cut at rules.
