From Peterson's Magazine, for October. Prince of Wales Pudding .- Chop four ounces of apple, the same quantity of bread-crumbs, suet, and currants, well washed and picked; two ounces of candied lemon, orange, and citron, chopped fine; five ounces pounded loaf-sugar; half a nutmeg, grated. Mix all together with four eggs. Butter well and flour a tin, put in the mixture, and place a buttered paper on the top, and a cloth over the paper. If you steam it the paper is sufficient. It will take two hours boiling. When you dish it, stick cut blanched almonds on it, and serve with wine sauce.

A Very Cheap Family Pudding -A pound of flour, a pound of suet, chopped fine, three-quarters of a pound of molasses or sugar, a pound each of carrots and potatoes, well boiled and mashed together; half a pound of raisins; three-quarters of a pound of soft bread-crumbs; spice flavoring and peel optional. Mix the whole well togeth er with a little water; it must not be too stiff, and certainly not too moist; rub a basin well with dripping, and boil for eight hours. This is sufficient for twelve persons

Rumbled Eggs.-This is very convenient for invalids, or a light dish for supper. Beat up three eggs with two ounces of fresh butter, or well washed salt butter; add a teaspoonful of cream or new milk. Put all in a saucepan and keep stirring it over the fire for nearly five minutes, until it rises up like souffle, when it should be immediately dished on buttered toast.

The arrangements for Telegraphing are far in advance of anything of the kind ever offered to the public. A regular Telegraph Line is connected with the Institution with twenty branch offices in various parts of the city, where public business is transacted, and in which the students of this Institution are permitted to practice. No regular office practice can be had in any other school of instruction in the country, without which no one can obtain a position as a practical operator. Young men are cautioned against the deceptive representations of those who, without any such facilities, pretend to teach Telegraphing.
