POETRY - MY NAME.
BY FLORENCE PERRY.
'After you have taken your new name among the Angels.'

In the land where I am going,
When my earthly life is o'er,
Where the tired hands cease their striving,
And the tired heart aches no more,
In that land of light and beauty,
Where no shadow ever came,
To overcloud the perfect glory,
What shall be my angel name?
When the spirits who await me
Meet me at my entering in,
With what name of love and music
All their welcoming begin?
Not the one so dimmed with earth-stains,
Linked with thoughts of grief and blame—
No—the name which mortals give me
Will not be my angel name!
I have heard it all too often
Uttered by unloving lips,
Earthly care, and sin, and sorrow,
Dim it with their deep eclipses,
I shall change it like a garment
When I leave this mortal frame,
And at Life's immortal baptism
I shall have another name!
For the angels will not call me
By the name I bear on earth—
They will speak a holier language,
Whence I have my holier birth,
Syllabized in heavenly music,
Sweet for man's ear, but earth may claim—
Very gentle, pure, and tender,
Such will be my angel name!
It has thrilled my spirit often
In the holiest of my dreams,
But its beauty lingers with me
Only till the morning beam;
Wear of the jarring discord
Wounds the lips of mortals' frame,
When shall I, with joy and rapture,
Answer to my angel name!

MISCELLANY - NASBY.
A Cabinet Meeting—Letters from Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, Gen. Custar, Henry J. Raymond and Hon. John Morrissey.

CONFIDENTIAL X ROADS,
(which is in the State of Kentucky.)
November 7, 1886.

I wuz called to Washington by our patron Saint, the President, to comfort his wounded spirit. There ain't no disguisn the fact, the spirit of Andro Johnson is wounded. He hez endorsed the slings and arrers uv more out-rageous fortune than any other man who hez lived since the days uv Hamlick—more, indeed, than Hamlick endoored—twit over. Hamlick's father wuz pizioned and his mother married agin afore her mourning clothes wuz wore out, suthin on savin, prudent woman would do; but what wuz that to wat A. Johnson endoors every day?—Nothin.

The Cabinet meetin to wich I wuz summoned wuz called for the purpose uv sheddin a tear or two over the election returns, and to consider a variety uv letters wich His Eggscellency had received within a few days. I may remark that the Cabinet hed a gloomy and the mlwed look.

The first wuz from Rev. Henry Ward Beecher. Mr. Beecher remarked that he hed the highest possible respect for the offis wunst held by the good Washington, the great Adams and the sainted Linkin. He omitted remarkin anythin about Peerce and Bookanan out uv regard for the feelins uv the present incumbent, which if he'd red history correct, wuz a ardent supporter uv the Administrashens uv both uv them men, wich he considered stains upon the pages uv American history wich he cood wish mite be obliterated.

But what he desired to say wuz that he hed a higher regard for the good opinion uv mankind in general than he hed for the good opinion uv the accidental incumbent uv any offis and ez he hed, in a hour uv temporary mental aberrashun, which hed happily passed, endorsed the Administrashen, wich insanity hed worked evil into him, he repeated ez a simple act uv justice that the President shoold cause it to be known that he, (Beecher) was not considered by the Administrashen ez a supporter thereof.

'I do this,' sed the writer, 'becoz the impression that I am in the confidence uv your Eggscellency, wich is onfortnately abroad, hez seriously damaged my reputashen.'

Trooly yoors, et settry.
The readin uv this letter wuz followed by a munit uv profound silence wich wuz broken by the President:
'I at him pass,' sed the great man, 'who hez the dispensation uv the post offis, 'let him pass. But here is another,' sed he, bustin into tears, 'read that.'

It wuz from Gen. Custar, him uv the yaller hair, wich hed some reputashun doorn the war ez a cavalry commander. It wuz to the same effect. He hed when he spozed that the policy uv the President, wich he esteemed ez he must any man who held the exalted position wunst okkepied by the good Washington, the great Jefferson and the sainted Linkin—
'The ongrateful dog doesn't respect ME,' sed Andro, 'its the offis I fill, and he bust into a fresh flood.'

When he spozed the President's policy wuz sich ez a soljer and patriot cood endorse, he endorsed it. But he diskivered that it led him, back foremost, into company wich, doorn the late war he hed allaz visited face foremost and on hosback, and therefore, to save his reputation, he must beg that the President wood give it out, that he (Gen. Custar) wuz not never hed bin a supporter uv his policy, and oblige, Yoors trooly, ez before.

I wuz too heartbroken at this to make any reply, and Cowan and Doolittle wuz in the same fix. The Kurneley wich wuz given to Custar to keep him in possishen, hed been promised to a dimokratie captin, who wuz led by a company in the first Bull Run fight, and who threw up the next day in disgust, not likin the manner in wich the war wuz conducted, but the kurneley wuz gone and Custar too, wat wuz worse, there wuz no sich thing to be that uv ez dismiss him. The entire company yooined in minglin their tears.

The next letter wuz red by Seward, ez it wuz addressed to him. It wuz from Raymond. He opened with the remark that for the Presidential offis he hed the highest respect.

Aside from the considerashun that it hed been okkepied by the good Washington, the great Adams, and the sainted Linkin, the President might be considered the father uv his country, havin so large a number of helpless children to provide for, besides hed a instinctive respect for the dispense of any thing. It wuz difficult for him, bein a simple-minded man, not to ad here to the President, but—
'Good Heaven!' shrieked Johnson, 'that little fox aint goin to speak of his reputashen?'

'Dooty requires the readin uv the entire docketment, painful to my feelin ez it may be,' said Seward, 'he concludes thusly':
'I am forced to ask you ez one enjoyin confidenshal relashuns with Him who occupies the Presidential chair, to hev it given out that I stand in opposition to him. A doo regard for my reputashen impels me to this course.'

I remain, yoors trooly.
There wuz 2 or three more. Gen. Carey, uv Ohio, requested the President to remove him from his Collectorship, ez the holdin uv it wuz injurin his reputashen; a editor out West, who wuz seduced into takin a Post offis, begged to hev it taken off his hands, that he might save his circulareshen before it wuz everlastingly too late; and finally we come to wan, the zeal of wich wuz a coat uv arms, bull dog rampant, bowie knife couchant, supported by trottin huzzar, on a field uv green cloth. It wuz from Hon. John Morrissey, who hed just been elected to Congress in Noo York.

Mr. Morrissey remarked, that ez one uv the pillars uv the Democracy, he felt he hed a rite to speak. He wished it to be understood that he washed his hands uv any conneshun with Johnson or his party. He hed seed a life. In States where the Democracy, uv wich he wuz a pillar, hed tied themselves to Johnson, they hed gone down to a premonator grave. Respect for the high offis restrained him from sayin that the Democracy cood carry sich a cussid load, but he wood say that the result uv the election in Noo York, where they dependid solely on muscle and nigger, wich is reel Dimokratie capital, and succeeded, while where Dimokratie wuz loaded down with Johnsonism they failed, satisfied him that the President wuz a inkubus. He sed this with all doo respect for the offis. Mr. Morrissey further remarked, that he hed also personal reasons for makin this request. He commenced in a humble position, and hed filled the public eye long enouff to satisfy his modest ambishen—he hed waloped Sullivan and Heenan—he hed owned the fastest horse and won more money at taro than any man in Amerika. His ambishen wuz satisfied so far ez he wuz concerned, but he hoped to leave behind him for his infant son, (wich wuz only twelve years uv age and which hed a development uv intellect and muscle remarkable for one so tender, hevvin already walopped every boy in the skool to which he wuz goin,) he desired to leave that son a honorable name. It hed been given out that he wuz a supporter uv the individual who okerped the Presidential offis, and it wuz injurin him. He wished that stigma removed—a regard for his reputation forced him to insist upon it.

And this epistle was dooly signed,
his
JOHN MORRISSEY, M. C.
mark.

There wuz silence in the Cabinet. This last stroke intensified the gloom wich hed settled onto the Government, and ez I turned my tear bedewed eyes I saw the great drops coursing down the cheeks uv every one present. Mr. Seward retired without sayin any thing about ninety days, and one by one they all departed.

It wuz a solemn time. There wuz other letters yet to read, but no one hed the heart to open 'em. I made a move in that direckshun, but Andro prevented me. 'I'm sick,' murmured he in a husky voice, wich showed his hart wuz peered!—'Help me to bed.' I saw the great man bury his intellectual head beneath the snowy kivvin uv his oneasy couch, all but the nose, wich in him is the thermometer uv the sole, and wich accordingly glowed, not with a dull, dead and ghastly bloo.—Noticing the convulsive heavens of the kivers, wich betrayed the agitashen uv the breast beneath, I whispered in his ear ez I handed him his nite drink uv rye whisky, flavored with Bourbon, that he hed one hold, ez Delaware hed sustained him. A flush uv satisfaction passed over his nose, but it subsided in an instant. 'Troo,' gasped he, 'its ourn now, but before the next election a couple uv them Massachusetts will buy the cussid State and re-people it too soot 'em,' and he gave a convulsive gasp and sank into a troubled slumber.

It wuz a techn occasion.

(wich is Postmaster.)

A Menagerie of Drunkards.
The most foolish predicament a man can get into is to get drunk. In drunk-ness every man shows his strongest side, and most ardent passion. There are six kinds of drunkards, and if you will go into a drinking place where there are a dozen men under the influence of liquor you will be sure to find these six different characters, representing different animals.

The first is ape-drunk. He leaps, and sings, and yells, and dances, making all sorts of grimaces and cutting up all sorts of "monkey shins" to excite the laughter of his fellows! Oh, terribly silly is the drunken clown.

The second is tiger-drunk. He breaks the bottles, breaks the chairs, breaks the heads of fellow carousers, and is full of blood and thunder. His eyes are fired with vengeance, and his soul raves with murderous fury. Of this sort are those who abuse their families.

The third is hog drunk. He rolls in the dirt on the floor, slobbers and grunts, and going into the street makes his bed in the first ditch or filthy corner he may happen to fall into. He is heavy, lumpy and sleepy, and cries in a grunting way for a little more drink.

The fourth is puppy drunk. He will weep for kindness, and whine his love and hug you in his arms, and kiss you with his slobbery lips and proclaim how much he loves you. You are the best man he ever saw, and he will lay down his money or his life for you.

The fifth is owl-drunk. He is wise in his own conceit. No man must differ with him for his word is law. He is true in politics, and all matter must be taken as authority. His arm is the strongest, his voice the sweetest, his horse the fleetest, his turnips the largest, his town the finest of all in the room or land.

The sixth and last animal of our menagerie is the fox-drunk man. He is crafty, ready to trade horses and cheat you if he can. Keen to strike a bargain, leering around with low cunning, peeping through cracks, listening under the eaves, watching for some suspicious thing, sly as a fox, sneaking as a wolf, he is the meanest drunkard of them all.

Some philosopher advises the girls not to marry blacksmiths, because they all have vices.

The Buffalo Courier, Democratic organ in Western New York, says: "Let our colored brethren possess their souls in patience. The Democratic party will see that they have their rights"

The New Lisbon (Ohio) Buckeye State says: "A newly married couple, in bridal costume, recently stopped in this place to spend a few days of the honeymoon. The groom borrowed $50 of an accommodating gentleman, and then mysteriously disappeared. The bride wept and tore her hair at thus being left without money, and without friends, and the sympathizing inhabitants of our town contriuted liberally for her relief, about one hundred dollars being donated. She then disappeared, and it has since transpired that the promising couple had played the same game in several other towns in the State."

DISSOLUTION.—The partnership under the firm of S. J. Brisbin & Co. expired on the 21st October, 1886, by the death of Prudence Blymyer. The books are in the hands of S. J. Brisbin, and as it is necessary to close the accounts as soon as possible, an immediate settlement is requested.
S. J. BRISBIN,
Surviving Partner.

The business will be continued by S. J. Brisbin, who respectfully invites the public to call and examine a fine stock of New Goods, selected with care.
