A paragraph is going the rounds of the papers stating that a number of farmers from Millin county intend removing to Virginia in the spring. This is a mistake, calculated to mislead. Several parties have purchased lands, but we know of but one who purports to remove...

The U. S. Senate was kept in session all Saturday night by Sautsbury, Davis, and other copperheads factiously taking up time in staving off the passage of a bill which they knew would finally pass.

Munificent Donation.

Democracy is still gradually veering around towards negro suffrage, and in a few years it will be nothing unusual to see a white democrat linking arms with an Ethiopian, and begging him to vote the democratic ticket.

The barn belonging to Henry Aughey, in Juniata county, was, with its contents, entirely destroyed by fire, on Sunday a week. It contained twenty-two head of cattle, nearly all last year's crop and about twenty tons of hay.

The large barn belonging to Daniel Reber, about one and a half miles southeast of Millburg, Union county, was destroyed by fire about 3 o'clock in the morning a few weeks ago. The fire is supposed to have originated from a sled loaded with lime that had been left in the shed.

The Juniata Register in a two and a half column article wants to know where Brown and Wharton were when a bill changing sundry venues from Juniata to Snyder passed the Legislature.

Whenever one out of the thousands of ministers in the United States is guilty of a crime of any kind the whole pack of copperheads attack and denounce him, and with him all preachers who were loyal during the war, with the avidity of bloodhounds.
