The Governor's Veto Message.

We publish on our outside to-day the message of Governor Geary vetoing the bill giving the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, or rather the directors, unusual power to issue mortgages, &c. The views expressed are so sound and logical that there can hardly be found any difference of opinion among our citizens as to their propriety...

Financial Measure for Resuming Specie Payments.

Mr. Morrell, our member of Congress, last week introduced a bill which was read twice and ordered to be printed, having in view a gradual return to specie payments. Its provisions make it unlawful for the Secretary of the Treasury to sell or otherwise dispose of any gold or silver coin now held by the Government of the United States...

A New License Law.

A FURTHER SUPPLEMENT to an act further to regulate the granting of licenses to hotels and eating houses, approved March thirty-first, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That when an application is made to any court of quarter sessions of this Commonwealth, for license to sell intoxicating drinks, it shall be lawful for said court to hear petitions, in addition to that of the applicant, in favor of, and remonstrances against the application for such license, and in all cases to refuse the same whenever, in the opinion of said court, having due regard to the number and character of the petitioners for and against such application, such license is not necessary for the accommodation of the public and entertainment of strangers and travelers, and upon sufficient cause being shown, the said courts shall have power to revoke any license granted by them, and all laws inconsistent with this section are hereby repealed: Provided, That the sureties in the bond, required of the applicant for license, shall be signed by his petition.

SEC. 2. That applications for license to keep an eating house, beer house or restaurant, authorizing the sale of domestic wines, malt and brewed liquors, shall hereafter be made in the same manner and to the same authority as application for license to keep a hotel: Provided, That the regulation in relation to beds, rooms and beds shall not apply to applicants for an eating-house, beer-house and restaurant license, and the tenth section of the act of twentieth April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, authorizing county treasurers to grant an eating house or retail brewery license, is hereby repealed.

SEC. 3. No license to keep an eating house, beer house or restaurant, under the provisions of the second section of this act, shall be granted in any incorporated city for a less sum than fifty dollars, nor elsewhere for a less sum than twenty dollars.

SEC. 4. If any person, after the passage of this act, shall sell spirituous and vinous liquors, domestic wines, malted or brewed liquors, without having obtained a license authorizing him so to do, such person shall, on conviction in the court of quarter sessions, be fined, for the first offense, in any sum not less than fifty, nor more than two hundred dollars; and for the second, or any subsequent offense, such person shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars, and, in the discretion of the said court, be imprisoned in the county jail not less than thirty days, nor more than ninety days: Provided, That nothing in this act shall be construed to repeal the provisions of the act of Assembly passed March thirty-first, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, relating to sales by druggists and apothecaries.

SEC. 5. That the provisions of the first section of this act shall not apply to the city of Philadelphia or to the county of Allegheny: Provided, That nothing in this act shall authorize the granting of licenses to hotel and inn keepers, to vend vinous, spirituous and malt liquors, and to license beer houses, eating houses and restaurants in any locality where licensing of hotels, inns, beer houses, eating houses or restaurants is now prohibited by law.

The above bill has passed both Houses, and has no doubt been signed by the Governor by this time. It is not what was petitioned for from this county, but is still an improvement on the old law, as it now requires license for saloons, &c., the same as taverns, and gives the judges discretionary power in granting licenses at all. Whether our judges will exercise it will become apparent at April court.

Political Apathy in the South.

The Richmond Times thinks "it is unfortunate for Virginia and the South that the profound political apathy which prevails among our people stagnates all the energy of true and exalted statesmanship." This "political apathy" says the Philadelphia Inquirer, is a good sign for the South, indicating, as it does, that the masses of the people have little confidence in their political leaders. Because they refuse longer to follow the advice of Pryor, and other fire-eaters, they are accused of being in a state of apathy, much to the chagrin of these malcontents. It is better for the South that such is the case. If they would refuse to listen to the evil counsels, and ignore the bombastic and treasonable columns of the Richmond, Augusta, Mobile, New Orleans and Memphis journals, and judge and act for themselves, like independent men, they would soon find among themselves that "true and exalted statesmanship," the absence of which they now so much deplore. Is not the "political apathy" lamented by the Times an evidence that the people are beginning to read and think for themselves, instead of blindly following, as of old, the madmen who precipitated them into a wicked war, and caused their homes and lands to be laid desolate? From this "apathy" we may look for good to come, and that right speedily.

How Manufacturers Benefit Farmers.

Hon. D. J. Morrell has written a letter in reply to the question what amount of Western agricultural produce the Cambria Iron Works, of which he is superintendent, now make a market for. He estimates the number of tons of rails produced by the Cambria works for the year ending October 31, 1866, at 45,000, and the amount expended in living by workmen for each ton at $65, making a total of $2,925,000. Of this sum $1,050,730 were paid to Western farmers, $319,050 to Southern farmers, $371,800 to Pennsylvania and Eastern, and to foreign farmers $175,500. Considerably more than half of the nearly three millions of dollars which are paid to the employees of this one manufacturing establishment go into the pockets of American farmers, and more than two-thirds of the sum which is distributed among the American farmers goes to the farmers of the West. Had the rails made by the Cambria Works been imported from England, not one-fifth of the part of the produce of Western farms for which the Cambria Iron Works paid more than a million of dollars, would have been exported to England, and for that fifth the farmers of the West would have received lower prices than were paid them by American mechanics.

COLUMBIA, S. C., March 18.—One of the most remarkable meetings ever held in South Carolina took place to-day, the occasion being a celebration by the negroes of the passage of the bill enfranchising the black race. By invitation, General Hampton, ex-United States Senator; W. E. Desousiere, Edward Arthur, Hon. W. J. Talley, and James G. Gibbs addressed the meeting; also, the Rev. David Pickett and Beverly Nash, both colored. Sentiments were expressed highly honorable to both sides. The negroes are gratified with the spirit of political affiliation with which they have been met, and the citizens are equally pleased to find the colored men identified with the true interest of the State. Should the convention be called, the latter will probably nominate and support the best men in the country, and, as declared by Mr. Nash, will urge Congress to repeal the disfranchising clause.

We said some time ago that the democracy would soon be cheek by jowl with Sambo, and now we find the great democratic ex-rebel Wade Hampton, at a public meeting in South Carolina, on the same stand with colored speakers and addressing a crowd of colored men, alias "niggers." Our neighbor of the Democrat, who is getting occasional fits of Negrophobia, had better not denounce them too much, as it might be necessary to embody in the next resolutions of the democratic county meeting speaking of Sambo, Cudjo, &c. as "our Southern brethren."

Returned from Missouri.—The Juniata Sentinel informs us that on Saturday morning a week Mr. Groninger, accompanied by the children of Mr. David Switzer, returned from his new home in Missouri. As it was Mr. Groninger who identified Sanders, one of the assassins of Mr. Switzer, who was hung, it was not safe for him to remain any longer, as some of the gang of thieves and murderers were on the alert for him. It seems hard that a man after buying a home in Missouri should be compelled to flee for his life on account of these lawless, unconverted rebels and bushwhackers. The Missourians, however, are making every effort to prevent their arrest, and if they are caught, Judge Lynch will hang them.

The United States Senate has been "cat-hauling" the career of Philip F. Thomas, Senator elect from Maryland, concerning his rebel proclivities about the time the "Southern heart was being fired." We hope Philip enjoys it more than the darkeys used to.

DICKENS' WORKS.—Messrs. Ticknor & Fields, the leading publishing firm in this country, lately commenced the publication of a diamond edition of Dickens' Works, which as a whole, stand at the head of works of fiction of that peculiar style.—The "Diamond Pickwick" is the first of the series issued, is embellished with illustrations, printed on tinted paper, and bound in "green and gold," making an elegant volume for the library or center table. The complete works of Dickens will be comprised in twelve or thirteen volumes, uniformly bound, to be issued at the rate of one a month, at $1.50 per volume for the illustrated edition, or $1.25 for the plain—so that every head of a family, every young man or lady, and even boys and girls can easily spare enough monthly to acquire a vast fund of reading matter which inculcates sound moral and religious principles, at a trifling cost. The character of Dickens' writings are daily appreciated, and the fact that they are so popular among the Emperor Napoleon presented his son—a more boy—with a complete edition. The books will be sent by mail free of cost on receipt of price by the publishers, Ticknor & Fields, Boston, Mass., or can be had at all booksellers. The Boston Journal, in referring to this edition of Pickwick, says:—"Before its appearance, whoever wanted to buy that standard product of Dickens' genius had to choose between a 'cheap edition' (cheap in name, but not in fact) and an inferior workmanship, and a single larger and cumbersome copy, or one in two volumes. Now we have a happy little book for the fireside or window, tastefully bound, of 465 double-column pages, the type small, but so sure, yet very clear and readable, the paper good and slightly tinted, an excellent engraved head of Dickens prefacing the title-page, and sixteen original illustrations by one of our best artists, all of which are sold at the price of $1.25. At any time this would have been regarded as a decided achievement in book-making. In the midst of the present prices, it is certainly as surprising as it is welcome. It is bold indeed to that portion of the reading public who have been deluged from the enjoyment of the weekly literary considerations, for the purchase of Dickens by penny prices, to purchase the high cost editions, and it shows that the publishers are not averse to doing nothing but the most extended sale would reward such an undertaking.

We have a number of Magazines on our table, notice of which is deferred.

In the democratic city of New York no distinction is made in color, black, white, yellow, cream and copper colored riding in stages, omnibuses, street cars and other conveyances. In Pennsylvania it is a democratic sin.

Belmont, the chairman of the democratic National Committee last week gave a dinner at which his servants were dressed in the old English mode, to wit, powdered wigs, yellow breeches, scarlet coats, top boots, &c. &c.

The facility with which the Harrisburg Patriot and Union manufacture falsehoods, is shown by the fact that it classes Mr. Morrell from this district as voting for the military reconstruction bill passed by the last Congress, of which he was not a member.

Gen. Joseph Markle, a well-known citizen, died on the 12th, at his home in Westmoreland county. He was a prominent old line whig, and was defeated for governor by Francis R. Shunk. He was in the war of 1812, and the Whisky Insurrection, and was in his 92d year.

[ADVERTISEMENT.] For the Gazette.

MESSES. EDITORS.—Our court commences next Monday, the 1st day of April, 1867. I send the names of 18 persons published in the Gazette, praying the court to grant them tavern licenses to sell spirituous liquors. There never was a time in the history of our country when it required our courts of justice to restrict the sale of intoxicating drinks as it does at this time. In the town of Newton Hamilton I see the names of three persons making application to the court for license to keep public houses and sell whiskey. About eight years ago the Odd Fellows built a house intended to be kept as a tavern in direct opposition to the old house. The court in that case didn't average three persons per day during the whole year. I cannot see how it is that the citizens of Newton Hamilton can certify that it is necessary to have three licensed houses in the town to accommodate strangers and entertain travelers, when it can be proven that there is not custom sufficient to keep up one. If the court would appoint a day to hear testimony for and against granting licenses, it would be proven that any one house in Newton Hamilton would accommodate that traveling custom comes to that place and five times as much. I have been informed that the man who now keeps the public house in Newton Hamilton has done much to reform drunkards. It is said that there are some ill-disposed men in and about Newton Hamilton who procure liquor at another town and of course get drunk, and created such a state of affairs that the citizens got up a petition to the court of Quarter Sessions which will be presented to this court praying to give the Borough authorities power to build a lock-up house in the Town of Newton Hamilton. With three taverns, what will it be then?

By a temperance man and visitor of Newton Hamilton.

A YOUNG LADY returning to her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the city, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of coarse rustic, flannel face, she had a soft ruby complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them she used the CARCASSIAN BALM, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any lady's toilet. By its use any lady or gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold.
