Tribe of Respect.

BALTIMORE, March 18, 1867. At the Preachers' Meeting, held this morning, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, It has moved the Father to remove JULIA, the beloved wife of our brother, Rev. J. S. McMurray, from the Church...

Resolved, That in the death of sister McMurray her husband has lost a fond and devoted companion...

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with Brother McMurray in his sorrow, and sincerely pray the Great Head of the Church to comfort and sustain him in his sad bereavement.

Resolved, That the Secretary of this meeting be directed to transmit a copy of these resolutions to the bereaved.

W. M. FRYINGER, Sec'y.

A New Era in the South.

The correspondent of the Press gives the following account of Gen. Wilson's visit to Petersburg, Va., last week. Had he gone there in the days of democratic copperheadism, pistols, bowie knives, tar and feathers, mobs and mob law would have ruled.

On Thursday morning Gen. Wilson started for Petersburg, and when he reached there was called upon by the Mayor of the city and a committee of Councilmen, who addressed him as a citizen of the United States and a Senator from the great State of Massachusetts, and invited him to speak to the people on the duties and responsibilities of the hour.

The murder of Soldiers at Fort Buford is doubted. Hayti has been undergoing a revolution, in consequence of which President Geffard has resigned.

Mrs. Elizabeth Miller of Union county, had her thigh and left leg broken last week by falling from a spring wagon. Luzerne county has been the scene of considerable rioting, in consequence of strikes among the miners.

Mrs. Gideon Amig, residing about a mile from Selingsgrove, was seriously hurt while accompanying a flitting. She had her head and legs badly cut.

The Millintown Register says our Millintown pack of week before last did not reach there. Of that we know nothing, but we do know it was deposited in the post office here at the usual time.

The Borough election in Huntingdon a week or two ago turned on the question "Town Bull" or "No Town Bull." The Bull we believe carried the day, and is of course a democratic victory!

The Philadelphia Prison Agent reports that "of the 19,468 commitments last year, 14,361 were on account of offenses directly or indirectly traceable to the use of intoxicating liquors."

Kansas City, the second city in importance in Missouri, elected her municipal ticket for the first time at her municipal election on Monday. The cops have heretofore carried the town.

By an order of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, Major General Robert B. Potter was appointed Receiver of the Atlantic and Great Western Railway in Pennsylvania.
