Superintendent of the Soldiers' Orphan Schools.—We learn from the Harrisburg Telegraph that Col. George F. McFarland, at present a clerk in the School Department, has been appointed Superintendent of Soldiers' Orphan Schools of Pennsylvania.

Odd Fellows' Thanksgiving.—Friday next has been appointed as a National day of prayer and thanksgiving for all Odd Fellows. It will be properly observed in this place by a parade in regalia, at 9 a. m. services in the Lutheran church at 10, sermons by Rev. Reimensnyder. Sermon by Rev. Monroe, in the Methodist church in the evening, at 7 o'clock.

Fatal Accident.—On Friday morning a week, George Miller, of this county, an employee at the Hunter's Dale Mills, on the Snow Shoe railroad, met with a terrible accident which resulted in his death.

Accidents.—Joseph Auner met with a severe fall on Thursday evening last at Glamorgan furnace, his recovery from which is problematical. He was cleaning a flue, and while engaged in it he inhaled a quantity of gas, causing him to jump or fall from the roof, 18 or 20 feet high, striking the ground with his head.

Special Notices.

Bounty Funds.—Considerable difficulty seems to exist in several townships respecting the settlement of Bounty Accounts. In some districts the supervisors or other parties levying the taxes under the provisions of the Act of Assembly adjusted the accounts and published them.

Shad on their way Up.—Thomas Mullinix, of Snake Spring township, caught a shad at Hartley's Spring Run, about six miles below Bedford, on Wednesday of last week. This is the first shad that has been caught in the Raystown Branch of the Juniata since the completing of the canal.

The Bedford Gazette also notices this singular fact, so that no doubt need be entertained of its truth. A paper published we think at Wrightsville volunteered the statement lately that no shad had passed the Columbia dam, and that other fish were no more plentiful than usual above it, and we were in hopes some such occurrence would justify our assertion a month or so ago, though we must confess we did not look for a substantiation sixty or more miles above Lewistown.

How it Works.—The effects of a total prohibition of the sale of liquor are already visible in this place. Eighteen kegs of lager beer and a half-barrel of ale were sold on a single evening last week—Saturday.—Democrat.

Like most people we cannot understand the above; but on the whole it works well, for although a few seem to obtain liquor surreptitiously, the remarkable quietness and order pervading our streets show that if our Judges would only license the better class of taverns, and throw aside all mere grog shops, there would be less drunkenness, less disorder, less crime, and less misery.

Pictures.—James W. Smith has removed his Photograph Gallery to the well-known stand formerly occupied by his father, on Main street, near the Town Hall, where he is now prepared to execute all kinds of Pictures in the best style.—Photographs from life size to the tiniest gem can be procured at his rooms.

The stockholders meeting on Saturday last ratified the agreement made between the Directors of the Millin and Centre and Pennsylvania Railroads for completing the former to Milroy.

A fine young horse owned by Mr. G. G. Dunmore, of McVeytown, was stolen from the stable of Mr. John Coulter, in Mt. Union, on Wednesday night a week. The thief also stole a saddle and bridle.

W. J. Rose, Esq., of Johnstown was confirmed as U. S. Collector of this district, and G. Ashman Miller as Postmaster at Huntingdon. Mr. R. we understand is one of that class called a Union war democrat, whom copperheads delight to swear at.

The weather has been quite variable during the past week, with an unusual amount of thunder and lightning. One of these storms on Monday last poured down hail for several minutes in Kishacoquillas Valley and subsequently in Decatur township.

The Puzzle of the Age!

The sharpest observers give it up. People who are proverbial for their critical perceptions, are utterly at fault.

Miss Susan Davis, employed at Dr. Martin's, was severely burnt on Thursday last by some alcoholic preparation igniting on top of the stove. Her arm and face were more or less burnt, and her eyebrows and hair singed.

Daniel Herrington of Granville township, while returning from a visit to a son in the west fell between the bumpers of a train on the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad, at Bridgeport, Illinois, on the 28th February, and died from his injuries a few days thereafter.

The advance of the name of this institution through this section of the country is an event of the greatest importance to the public, as it is an organization combining all that is

MORAL, INSTRUCTIVE, and ENTERTAINING and discarding all the elements (found in so many traveling exhibitions) that would in the slightest degree prove offensive to the most sensitive and pious mind.

The Ring Performance, which is under the practiced eye of COL. DAN RICE, will positively be, beyond doubt, the best in America.
