Something for the Ladies.—A new article for sprinkling clothes, rendering the wetting of hands entirely unnecessary, will be found at Selheimer's. It is cheap and useful.

Cheap Leather.—At Frank Wentz's, in West Market street, you can buy Boots and Shoes at greatly reduced prices. In fact, he is selling extremely low. See prices in to-day's issue.

Goods unloaded at our door almost daily. Housekeepers will find a nice stock of goods to fix up their homes this spring at the Big Coffee Pot. We unpacked to-day a very large stock of American and English Knives and forks—won't let the price until you see them, for fear you'll think they are not good—but they are the indestructible forks—can't break them. Give us a peep before you buy, and I'll show something else that is nice that I've not as yet said a word about.

P. S.—Just received a lot of Patented Door Gongs, which we will put up to order—they come cheap—all can now have gongs by calling on

A Mystery Solved.—On Sunday night last, just as the heavy droppings from the clouds had ceased, and the many lighted chamber windows betokened that people were seeking their couches for repose, and one lone star peeped through the clouds upon the affairs of men, and while hush and calm pervaded nature, (except the yelp of a troublesome canine) a mysterious light, gleaming like a huge star, appeared on the top of Ard's Hill, then slowly descended, with all the grace of the wonderful ignis fatuus, to the base of said elevation. Two ladies, out enjoying the fresh air, or brought forth by instinctive forebodings of evil upon such dreadful occasions, wandered up the dark street, peering with curious eyes into the thick blackness surrounding the awful appearance. They returned, however, shaking their heads and wondering. This terrible apparition, at such an early hour of the night, proved to be—a man carrying a lantern.

Corn Planters Wanted.—The protracted rains have thrown back corn-planting in this county; but fortunately all farmers who hand in their orders soon, at Frysinger's Agricultural Implement Agency, can be supplied with Corn Planters or Droppers (whichever they want,) that will do up the work in a few days.

Frysinger has the Morrison, which scores out, plants, plasters, and covers, all at the same time, besides putting in pumpkin seeds, if desired. Also, Wanbaugh's and Heidler's, which are both old and popular machines.

He has also a capital little Corn Dropper, with which one boy can drop corn in hills as fast as four men. Price only $24.

Base Ball Match.—The game played in this place on Saturday last, between the Meteor Club, of Millintown, and the Hope, of Lewistown, resulted in a complete victory for the latter. The score stood, Hope 43; Meteor 22.

Foot Out.—Irwin, a son of John Miller, of this place, cut his foot badly with an axe on Monday last, whilst on the mountain across the river chopping. He was brought to town on a horse furnished by Mr. Sager.

The G. T. District Convention held here on Wednesday and Thursday last, was not largely attended, only 69 delegates having reported. Rev. J. S. McMurray, Grand Worthy Chief Templar, was present, and at the public meeting on Wednesday evening delivered a masterly address. The next will assemble at Liverpool, Perry co., on the 7th August.

The Valley Vocalists gave a concert in the Town Hall on Thursday evening. They sing well, are gentlemanly and ladylike, and deserve good houses wherever they may appear.

Ellis Snyder, a brakeman on the local freight, had one of his heels seriously injured at Mapleton last week. This is the second time he has been hurt in a few months.

Two or three dollars mysteriously disappeared from Yingling & Gruver's money drawer on Monday a week. Rats are evidently about.

A man named Bausman, employed on a Lewistown boat, was thrown off the bridge at Northumberland last week, and drowned.

A trout 15 inches long and weighing 14 pounds was taken on an outline last week, in Kishnoe purlins creek, by Will Waters and a companion.

Frank Rice, in the employ of Jacob Hamaker, of this place, while using a drawing knife at a wagon body, inflicted a deep gash in his knee.

A Word of Caution.—Our readers in buying cheap Sewing Machines, should be careful in making the selection. There are but two low priced Machines made in this country which are really PATENTED, namely, the "BARTLETT," of New York, and the "Shaw & Clarke" of Maine; and the "BARTLETT" is the only one that is also fully LICENSED by the manufacturers of the higher-priced machines. We mention this because those who buy or use an infringing machine are just as liable to prosecution, under the U. S. patent laws, as are those who make or sell it.

WANTED.—A lot of ground, in or near the borough, from 1 to 2 acres. For a suitable one, a fair price will be paid. Inquire at the Gazette office.

The Senior Editor of the Gazette has, until further notice, relinquished the Real Estate Agency.

John A. Ross, of this place, it is said has been appointed chief Messenger in the office of the Secretary of State at Harrisburg.

Mrs. Margaret Wareham has removed to Mill Street, two doors west of Logan St., where she is now prepared to do all kinds of fancy as well as common sewing, and will be pleased to see all her old customers as well as new ones.

On a visit home—Mrs. Jos. Mount (formerly Miss Elizabeth Kerr) and an interesting daughter. Mr. Mount is still engaged in teaching the deaf and dumb, in which science he is as proficient as he was an able editor.

The Court yesterday granted licenses to the different applicants, no remonstrances having a legal bearing being presented.

The weather continues wet but is otherwise pleasant; everything growing finely.

Workmen's Meeting.

REEDSVILLE, April 18th, 1867. Pursuant to a call of the Workmen of Brown township to discuss the propriety of organizing a Workmen's Party, a meeting was called to order by the election of J. F. McKinley as chairman, and C. C. Burkholder, secretary. The subject as aforementioned, was called for and discussed preparatory to submitting a vote, which resulted in a unanimous voice in favor of the organization.

Resolved, That we will withhold our support from all presses that will not endorse the (politic) interest of said organization or Party.

Moved, seconded, and vote carried, that the proceedings of this meeting be published in the county papers.

C. C. BURKHOLDER, Sec'y.

REEDSVILLE, April 25, 1867. A second meeting of the Workmen was called for, and brought to order by electing R. F. Cupples, chairman, and D. H. Bell, secretary. The following preamble and resolutions were submitted for approval, and unanimously adopted.

Whereas, In our opinion, both the existing political parties have become so corrupt that they have lost sight of the interests of the great mass of the people, that the design of the government has been egregiously perverted, and that the exigency of the times demand that an effort should be put forth to effect a change in the political aspect of the government, and we believe the power remains alone with the working masses of the people to effect the desired reformation.

Resolved, That we, the Workmen of Millintown, will bend all our energies, and use all honorable means to effect the change contemplated.

Resolved, That we believe the time has arrived that the working class should select men from their own ranks to represent them in our State and National councils to the end, that we, the laboring men, may have equal legislation with the capitalists.

Resolved, That we will sacrifice all political predilections in order to carry into effect the foregoing resolutions. Joseph Newman, Wm. T. Evey, J. F. McKinley, John A. Bowers, Jas. L. McDonald, J. T. Smith, Charles E. Chastain, Jos. Cornman, David H. Bell, Eph. Wian, Henry Meyer, J. G. Worley, Michael R. Ault, Jos. H. Young, Wm. Rountree, C. C. Burkholder, John A. McDonald, A. M. Shoop, S. O. Himes.

Moved, seconded, and vote carried, that the proceedings of this meeting and the adopted preamble and resolutions be published in the county papers.

DAVID H. BELL, Secretary.

MARRIED.

In Millintown, on the 26th March, by Rev. E. W. Kirby, JOHN R. HARTMAN, of Brown township, and Miss MATILDA BROUGHT, of Granville township, Millintown, Pa.

On Monday evening, 18th February, by Rev. Mr. DOWNS, FRANK A. HUTCH and Miss FLORENCE LONGWELL, both of Millintown.

DIED.

In this place, after a lingering illness, JOSEPH ALLOWAY, aged 26 years, a member of the 118th Pa. Vol., known as the Corn Exchange Regiment, and formerly of New Jersey. This young man came here last fall, and was employed by C. M. Shull, but soon fell sick. He was taken to Mr. Shull's home, where he was treated with unusual care, and in Miss S—h M—e met with a "good Samaritan" whose motherly care of a stranger deserves far more commendation than is here bestowed. Others too lent their kindly aid, and did all they could to alleviate his sufferings, thus proving that Christian virtues still occasionally shine forth bright as one of those glorious stars adorning the dome of heaven.

Thy soul art gone to rest— And sorrow, pain, and suffering, now Shall never distress thee more.
