The leading political event during the past week has been the doubtful exercise of power on the part of President Johnson in removing or suspending Mr. Stanton as Secretary of War. It is daily becoming more evident that the reconstruction laws of Congress, which by the Constitution are the supreme law of the land, will be evaded or nullified by every means that trickery or assumption of power can command. Whether influenced by evil councilors, political hatred of those who elevated him to power and to whom he proved as false as he did to all his Union professionals up to his election as Vice President, or by that baneful habit which has been the curse of too many of our public men, his course is inviting a retributive justice which will surely overtake him before long—for however loth Congress may have been to impeach this political hydra, forbearance has almost ceased to be a virtue. As history has recorded his entrance into high office in disgrace to himself and the nation, it may repeat itself in his disgraceful expulsion. The best commentary that can be offered of the worth and standing of Mr. Stanton is furnished in the letter of Gen. Grant on his being directed to take charge of the War Department. He says:

Headquarters Armies of the U. S., Washington City, August 12, 1867.—Sir:

Enclosed herewith I have to transmit to you a copy of a letter just received from the President of the United States, notifi-ng me of my assignment as Acting Secretary of War, and directing me to assume those duties at once. In notifying you of my acceptance, I cannot let the opportunity pass without expressing to you my appreciation of the zeal, patriotism, firmness and ability with which you have ever discharged the duties of Secretary of War.

With great respect, your obt. servant,

L. S. GRANT, General.

Hon. E. M. Stanton, Secretary of War.

Flowers of Democracy.

The Selingsrove Times of last week notices an attack on the Good Templars as follows:

'HARD ON THEM.—The Columbia

Herald is quite severe on the Good Tem-

Judge Thomas, of the Ninth Judicial District, Va., has been arrested, charged with violating the Civil Rights Bill, in refusing to admit negro testimony.

John S. Pendleton, of Culpeper county, Va., formerly a member of Congress, was arrested and taken to Richmond on Wednesday night, on a charge of perjury in having himself registered.

J. W. Pillsbury, supposed to be from Lowell, Mass., died in July, at Ellsworth, Kansas, leaving some property and a large amount of money, which awaits the claim of his friends.

According to old democratic logic, the 'majority of the people' constituted democracy. Copperheadism is now engaged in demonstrating that the majority are tyrants.

The Poor House Steward of Cambria county has resigned. If the democracy up there is at a loss for a proper person to take his place, we can send half a dozen candidates to pick from.

The democratic papers, after asserting for years that Dunham, alias Conover, was a perjured rascal, are now endeavoring to show that because he is lying on his side he is an honest man.

Some twelve citizens of St. Joseph, Mo., have been arrested for complicity in burning the Platte river bridge, on the Hannibal and St. Joseph railroad, in 1861. Some forty more writs are in the hands of the sheriff.

The colored people of Delaware being denied participation in the benefits of the public school system of that State, fourteen schools have been established through the aid of various associations, supported in part by the contributions of the parents of the pupils.

It seems that Dr. Cummings made a trifling error in his calculations concerning the total destruction to take place in 1867. In revising his work he found that he had overlooked figures which add something like a quintillion of years to the race which this mundane sphere has to run.

The democratic papers all claim the recent election in Kentucky as a demokratic victory. Part of the ticket elected was composed of rebels, and the remainder were little better. Among the 'demokratic' elected to the Legislature is Jesse

D. Bright, who it will be remembered was expelled from the U. S. Senate in 1861 for being in correspondence with Jef-fer Davis.

It is said that one of the causes of the late rupture between the President and Secretary of War, was the refusal of Mr.

Stanton to assign to a militia company of Maryland, composed mainly of returned rebel officers and soldiers, a battery of light guns for which they had applied.

The President is said to have directed him to furnish the battery, but that Mr. Stanton declined.

In running to catch a 'fly ball' in a base ball game at Otago, in Mitchell co.,

Iowa, a few days ago, two players came in contact with such force that one of them had a jaw broken and was knocked down insensible, and was 'crazy for twenty-four hours thereafter,' while the other had his face bruised and the bones of his nose broken.

The letter of Gen. Pope to Gen. Grant, describing the progress of reconstruction in Georgia, Alabama and Florida, says the party which is in accord with the northern democracy 'are bitterly opposed to reconstruction under the acts of Congress; opposed in fact to any reconstruction whatever except such as would leave them in precisely the same political condition as no war.'

The Johnstown Tribune, has been selected one of the two newspapers in the State, in which the public Acts and Resolutions of Congress are to be published.

What political infamy did this editor commit to entitle him to this congressional

'Democrat' Young America.—Young

America has really found a representative in this brilliant little periodical, which is as full as any stories, puzzles, toys, and fun for a little boy or girl could desire. It is, moreover, not only entertaining, but instructive; containing hints and information on all sorts of subjects, and capital suggestions, introduced in a way to interest children, and make them follow up the subject for themselves. Parents will find it a valuable auxiliary to their efforts for home amusements and education. Address, W. Jennings Demorest, 473 Broadway, New York.

The Diamond Dickens.—Dombey and Son.—The diamond edition of Dickens' happy little stories, Ticknor and Fields—has excited an abundance of competition. Several other cheap editions of the greatest living novelist, have been commenced by New York Publishers.

But the diamond edition maintains its supremacy, both because it was the first in the field, and because it best fulfills the purpose of a cheap, neat and readable reprint. The illustrations of whatever nature, which are so many of the Diamond edition, are of such shape that they can be put into the pocket, taken into the cars, or carried into the country. They are of the right size to be perused on the way. The illustrations are so many and so well adapted to the story, that the reader of an afternoon on the breezy porch of a country-house. The illustrations, too, are fresh and striking. The type is small, but so wonderfully clear, and im-pressible, that it looks as if it were the work of a blind man. The paper is of the best quality, and the binding is of the most durable. The price is only $1.50; plain edition, $1.25. Everybody ought to own a copy of this little book, and every one who has the simple remedy by which he is cured. Sufferers from this complaint should be careful to see to it
