

RECIPES

Tomato Catsup.—The following recipe for making tomato catsup was furnished by the proprietor of one of our principal restaurants...

Apple Cakes.—Flour one pound, sugar half a pound, two eggs, a little salt and one yeast powder. Grate six large apples, and rub them well into the other ingredients...

Apple Pudding.—Pare four or five large tart apples, grate them fine; then make the following custard...

A Little Fun Now and Then. How to Propose. A party of ladies and gentlemen were laughing over the supposed awkwardness...

For instance, he continued, addressing a lady present: 'Miss Smith, I have been two years looking for a wife. I am in receipt of about three thousand a year, which is on the increase. Of all the ladies of my acquaintance I admire you the most; indeed, I love you, and would gladly make you my wife.'

'You flatter me by your preference,' good hu modestly replied Miss Smith, to the surprise of all present; 'I refer you to my father!'

'Well, I declare!' said the ladies, in chorus. 'The lady and gentleman, good reader, were married soon after. Wasn't that a modest way of coming to the point, and a lady-like method of taking a man at his word?'

What he died of. 'What's become of your husband, woman?'

'What's become of him, yer honor? Faith, an' he's gone dead!'

'Ah! what did he die of?'

'Die of, yer honor!—he died of a Friday.'

'I don't mean what day of the week, but what complaint?'

'Oh! what complaint, yer honor? Faith, an' it's himself that didn't get time to complain.'

'Oh! oh!—he died suddenly?'

'Rather that way yer honor.'

'Did he fall in a fit?'

No answer.

'He fell down in a fit, perhaps?'

'A fit, yer honor! Why not exactly that. He fell out of a window, or through a cellar door—I don't know what they call it.'

'Ay, ay! and broke his neck?'

'No, not that, yer worship.'

'What then?'

'There was a bit o' string, or that like, and it trottled poor Mike.'

At a trial in a divorce case in England recently, a witness made the following reply: Mr. Sergeant Tindal—He treated her very kindly, did he not? Atkinson—Oh, yes, he kissed her several times! Mr. Sergeant Tindal—And how did she treat him? Atkinson—Well, she retaliated!

RINGS' Vegetable Ambrosia, FOR GRAY HAIR.

This is the AMBROSIA that Ring made.

This is the Cure that lay in the AMBROSIA that Ring made.

This is the Man who was bald and gray. Who now has raven locks, they say. He used the Cure that lay in the AMBROSIA that Ring made.

This is the Maiden, handsome and gay. Who married the man once bald and gray. Who now has raven locks, they say. He used the AMBROSIA that Ring made.

This is the Parson, who, by the way, Married the maiden, handsome and gay. To the man once bald and gray. But who now has raven locks, they say. Because he used the Cure that lay in the AMBROSIA that Ring made.

This is the Bell that rings away To arouse the people and gay. Unto this fact, which here do lay—If you want the Cure that lay in the AMBROSIA that Ring made.
