They loved me as I was, I murmured to myself, and they shall find out for themselves whether I am better worth loving than formerly.

I packed up many a token from that land of romance and gold, for the friends I hoped to meet; the gift for Mary Moore I selected with a beating heart; it was a ring of rough, virgin gold, with my name and hers engraved inside-that was all; and yet the sight of the little toy strangely thrilled me as I balanced it upon the tip of my finger.

To the eyes of others it was but a small plain circlet suggesting thoughts perhaps, by its elegance, of the beau tiful white hand that was to wear it. But to me-how much was embodied there! A loving smile on a beautiful face-low words of welcome -a future home and a sweet smiling face-all these delights were hidden within that little ring of gold.
