POETRY.

BY REV. EDWARD MEYER

ACELDAMA ! O Lord, our God Who evermore dost Israel keep, Watered in tears, baptised in blood, Thou givest our beloved sleep.

They came at Freedom's trumpet call, From hall and cottage, fane and dome, Venturing limb, life, freedom—all, For Truth and Right, for heart and home!

Lift high the granite shaft for all That fell where duty summoned them; Their country's star-gem'd flag their pall, A Nation's wall their requiem!

These bones, the seed of crimson strife? Thy Spirit breathes upon these slain, And they shall thrill with endless life!

In living hope, then, we commit This precious dust, for Freedom giv'n, To Thee, till angels gather it, Transfigured, in the urn of Acaven!

Astounding Credulity. A Gipsy Woman Swindles a Man out of Instantaneous Window Polish. On Thursday, August 1, a company of gipsies, consisting of three men and one woman, encamped near Mr. Reeves' house. The woman called on Mr. Reeves the same day, representing to him that she was a clairvoyant fortune-teller, and that she was endowed with a secret gift, which enabled her te reveal the past and future of all things sublunary.

Furthermore, she informed Mr washers. Our Hinstrated Circular, and Price List, with our 31313 DISTIDNARY. Reeves that she was a spiritualist, and that the spirits had communicated to Reeves that she was a spiritualist, and her the astounding fact that somewhere on his (Mr. Reeves') farm immense quantities of gold and silver had been hidden by some one, at a time 'whence the memory of man runneth not to the contrary.' The charming woman continued to visit Mr. Reeves' house from day to day, finally informing him useful and literative.

Six Thousand Dollars. A. A. Reeves is a quiet, well-to-do farmer, living about six miles northwest of Springfield, on the George town road By hard work and frugal living he had acquired the farm upon which he resides, and about one thousand dollars in money. Week before last, however, he was victimized in an almost incredible manner to the extent of six thousand dollars-an amount which it will perhaps take half the earnings of his lifetime to repay.

Mr. Reeves had nine hundred and DEST Bar Iron, at 4%, and other kinds F. J. HOFFMAN'S.

He then came to Sedalia and mortgaged his farm to Mr. Reeve Hughes to the amount of five thousand dollars, payable in ninety days, at two and a half per cent. a month. He thereupon returned home, without informing any member of his family what his mission had been to Sedalia, stealthily met his enchantress and told her he was ready for the incantation. The woman took the money, made a roll of it, wrapped it securely in a piece of the received acres, which, owing to the extreme drouth, has been in condition to be burned over, and in it fire has been doing its work for some time, but causing little harm, except to the rattlesnakes and other reptiles with which the swamp is infested. Not long since, says the Buffalo Express, a portion of this reptile-haunted swamp was the locality of a very melancholy occurrence, which produced great feeling woman took the money, made a roll of it, wrapped it securely in a piece of cotton cloth, and, as if to make assurance doubly sure, she then took a long string and tied it many times around the roll of money. She returned the next day, when the final ceremonies took place, which were to inevitably extort a revelation from the spirits as to the exact locality where the treasure was to be found. She took Mr. Reeves into a room where there could be considered in the roll of the company was a mother, with an infant child. The child fell asleep, and its mother deposited it on her shawl upon a comfortable bed of moss or grass, while she pursued the Reeves into a room where there could moss or grass, while she pursued the
