The Election Next Week.

On Tuesday next, the voters of this county are again called upon to perform a high duty—for it is evident that the more Christian and respectable people take part in choosing rulers and officers to conduct public affairs, the more likely that such officers will administer the laws and govern themselves agreeably to the charter of their constituents. National affairs too partake of the results, for advantage is taken of such elections as Maine and California and made a pretext by Andrew Johnson and the copperheads for assailing Congress, there might be no limit to attempted usurpations should the Union Republicans of Pennsylvania suffer the election to go by default. The people's representatives in Congress, who by the Constitution are the law-makers of the land, are to all intents nearly the same in number as the Congress which put down the rebellion, created greenbacks and bonds, enacted bounties and pensions, granted public lands and homesteads, and made laws generally, and if this Congress is a rump as the copperheads allege, or a body hanging on the verge of the government as the man in the White House last year alleged, then are all these acts illegal, null and void, and will be so proclaimed should Pennsylvania, New York and Ohio be carried by Calhoun's nullification democracy. Thousands of honest democrats may not think so, but past experience shows how little by little they have gone from one step to another. These same men three, four or five years ago would have scouted at the idea of their endorsing the rebel democracy of Wood, Vallandigham, Harris, Pendleton, and others, as especially advocated nearest home by the Scissoring Times, Bellefonte Watchman, and Huntingdon Monitor, yet it is a sober truth that at this day the leaders of what is called the democratic party have placed it on the platform which those men and papers advocated during the war. These are incontrovertible facts that ought to make every taxpayer, from the farmer and mechanic to the humblest laborer, pause and reflect before he votes for men who are anxious and willing to restore the rebels to all the political power they possessed under the infamous administration of James Buchanan. Young men, especially, to whom the future of this country is entrusted, ought to examine this subject carefully before committing themselves to undo what the victories over the rebellion accomplished. Many of them have known what it is to endure the privations and fatigues and hardships of war—have felt the power of drafts—and otherwise realized the depleting effects of bounty subscriptions and taxes. Are they so forgetful of these things that they will lend their votes to the rebels who caused all these difficulties, restore them to power, and run the risk of another rebellion before they become old men? There is nothing improbable in this. Three-fourths of the present Southern generation, male and female, have been educated in rebel doctrines, hate everything north as bitterly as they did in 1863-4, and but need the opportunity to re-enact the scenes preceding the late war. Such a generation is unfit to take part in a government like ours, until their conduct shows that they are willing to do more than yield a growing submission. Congress has amply and liberally provided for their regeneration, and it is the only mode which will eventually restore friendship, good-feeling, and a permanent peace.

little for any body else. Our other candidate is Captain HENRY H. WILSON of Juniata county, a young man of sound judgement, and who served with distinction through the war in the 1st Reserve Cavalry. On the 5th of February, 1865, at the battle of Hatcher's Run, he had part of his jaw shot away, a wound from which he suffered a great deal. It is worthy of note that both the republican candidates from Juniata county (Colonel Robison and Captain Wilson) were in many hard-fought battles, were both promoted for good conduct, and both badly wounded, while the only soldiers nominated for office by our opponents were hardly in a fight. It is alleged that Captain McWilliams, the democratic nominee for the Legislature, lost a thumb or finger in the war, but this we learn is not so, it having been shot off by a pistol while at home; nor was he in any fight of consequence during the short time he was in service.

For Commissioner DAVID F. MILLIKEN is the republican and Charles Nageny the democratic candidate. For six or eight years the Democrat used to implore for one of that stamp to be in the board just to see how things are managed, and if that reasoning was good then, it ought to be tenfold more so now. There may be nothing especially wrong in the Commissioners' office, yet the fact that at this time of year the Commissioners are borrowing money, without warrant of law at that, to lift county orders, shows that there must have been a great want of care and calculation since the issue of the last duplicates, or else that county funds were wrongly appropriated to the redemption of bounty or other bonds, for it is evident that unless the commissioners have expended more than usual, there ought at least to be money in the treasury to lift the orders issued for current expenditures. As the Democrat would say, we want a member in the board, just to see how things are managed.

Mr. LASHELL, our candidate for Treasurer, is pretty well known as an honest, upright man, who has buffeted poverty all his life, and being incapacitated to earn a living by hard labor, is deserving the sympathy and support of all who would desire to do as they would be done by. That he would make a good treasurer, no one can doubt.

Our Jury Commissioners and nominees for Auditor are of the right stamp, honest and capable, and if elected will discharge their duties to the public faithfully.

Copperhead Gains.

Like schoolboys who whistle to keep up their courage, the copperhead papers are claiming great gains in the recent elections, and publish the following: DEMOCRATIC GAINS FOR 1867. The following are the Democratic gains in round numbers since last Spring: In Connecticut, 3,000; in California, 25,000; in Kentucky, 20,000; in Maine, 14,000; in Massachusetts, 5,000; in Michigan, 1,000; in New Hampshire, 2,000; in New Jersey, 2,000; in New York, 2,000; in Rhode Island, 2,000; in Vermont, 5,000; Total, 76,000.

Now let us compare this with the truth, and to make it more clear we place it in tabular form: DEMOCRATIC VOTE IN 1866 AND 1867. States. 1866. 1867. Gain. Connecticut, 43,974 44,808 834 Kentucky, 95,979 100,225 loss 5,754 Massachusetts, 30,481 32,948 2,467 Rhode Island, 2,418 3,178 760 Vermont, 10,383 10,383 0 Rhode Island, 40,316 44,702 4,386 Total, 223,939 225,945 2,005

We have no returns from California on which to base gain or loss, but as the Legislature is republican, the likelihood is that they made no gain at all in that State on their former vote.
