Chartered Monopolies.

Robert Hare Powell of Philadelphia has taken the field against chartered monopolies with exclusive privileges, and in one of his recent letters favoring a convention on the subject, utters the following home truths:

If the anxious inquirer into this important subject will travel through Pennsylvania and carefully note the extent and condition of the private manufacturing and mining establishments which are distributed along the lines of the great Rail road and Canal monopolies, exclusive of 2 00 the extensive and prosperous enterprises 2 00 the extensive and prosperous enterprises 2 00 controlled or owned by Railroad and Canal managers, and spend sufficient time in the investigation to ascertain the sen-Register's Notices of Accounts, each 50 One inch constitutes a square, and all advertising not otherwise contracted for, or enumerated above.
