

FATHER ABRAHAM.

BUT your candidate I cannot be—Seymour. July 9th, 1868. But your President I cannot be—Seymour Nov. 8, 1868.

This is also a favorite remedy among Copperheads, but they insist upon making the application inwardly, and consequently the lice continue to live, prosper and multiply.

JEFF DAVIS wrote a letter to a friend recently, in which he says: "I heartily endorse both platform and candidates of the New York Convention." Nuff ced.

FRANK BLAIR, about two years ago, was seen at the Philadelphia Continental Hotel, gloriously drunk.

At a Blair and Seymour meeting, held in Kentucky last week, a collection was taken up to erect a monument to the memory of J. Wilkes Booth.

THE original carpet-baggers were a crowd of Copperhead draft skeddaddles, making tracks for Canada about the year 1863.

A PROMINENT Copperhead of Burlington, Iowa, who is now in California, writes home that the thing is all up—California will give 25,000 majority for Grant.

THE New York Journal of Commerce (Copperhead) gives up; says the Copperheads committed a great blunder in constructing their platform, but a more serious one in the nominations.

THE Raleigh Standard guarantees fifty thousand majority for Grant in North Carolina.

DEMOCRATS are again operating on the boats between Hartford and New York. If they can't get into the State rooms through the doors, they go outside and lean through the windows, stealing whatever may come within their reach.

OVER the entrance of the county jail of Sussex county, New Jersey, is now inscribed: "Copperhead Headquarters and Reading Room. Free to all. Walk in." Highly appropriate.

IN 1860 Frank P. Blair pronounced the Copperhead party "the most miserable and corrupt party that ever existed outside of h—."

THE New York World says: "Seymour's friends comprise the majority in New York." That accounts for the fact that New York is the worst governed city in the United States.

SCRATCH a Copperhead and you'll find a Rebel under his skin.

"GRANT has got to work early if he expects to get a victory," quoth a Copperhead. "He worked Early once in the Shenandoah, and got one," quoth a Republican.

"THE Copperheads go for civil liberty," says The Louisville Journal. Yes, and they go for every thing they can lay their thieving hands upon.

WADE HAMPTON pledges his party to war, and the wiser heads say, "It is not expedient to do so just now; we cannot afford to throw off the disguise yet. When we have deceived the people into our support, then will be time enough."

THE Rebel General Wade Hampton, in a late speech said: That the cause for which they fought, and for which Stonewall Jackson died, will yet be gained in the election of Seymour and Blair."

LIFT a man out of the gutter and you raise him from Copperheadism.

GRANT will be whipped, says the World. And so it said all through the war. But it always turned out that instead of Grant it was "the other fellow" who was whipped. And so it will be now.

FRANK BLAIR in a speech at Terre Haute, Ind., only three years ago, declared he would rather sleep with a nigger than with a Copperhead.

"WHAT think you of the Democratic nomination?" inquired a Copperhead official of a one-legged Union soldier, the other day. "I regard them an outrageous insult to the American people," was the soldier's reply, "and if any man asks me to vote for them, I shall be tempted to break my crutch over his head."
