

FATHER ABRAHAM.

To destroy lice on cattle, camphor dissolved in spirits is an effective agent.—Exchange.

There must be some mistake about this. We know a Democrat in this town who has tried the "effective agent" repeatedly—taking it inward, of course, and he is just as lousy as ever.

A BERKS COUNTY Life Insurance agent, a few days ago induced a Copperhead to take out a policy on his life, by making him believe the hog cholera had broken out in a neighboring district.

A Copperhead paper says, that in order to secure Seymour's election they must get out every Copperhead voter. Can't do it, for some of them are in for a number of years.

THERE is a hiatus in Grant's history, say the Copperheads. That may be, but it is nothing compared with the hiatus he made in the Copperhead party at Vicksburg, in 1863, and at Appomattox, in 1865.

THE Richmond Examiner asserts that "Governor Wise was never a secessionist." Next we shall hear that Jeff Davis was always devoted to the Union, and that Andersonville was a delightful place to spend the summer.

"WHAT uniform do you suppose I wear? Do you think I have begun to wear gray?" said one of General Hancock's staff officers, when asked if he would vote the Copperhead ticket. Many a soldier will repeat the question.

In 1860 the Southern fire-eaters threatened secession if they failed. They now threaten revolution if they succeed.

Who boasted that they would not vote a man nor a dollar to put down the rebellion? The Copperhead party.

THE Boston Post is made anxious by the question of a religious paper at Chicago, "Can a Democrat be saved?" It is a difficult problem indeed: but if a Democrat will eschew the sins of his leaders, and neither drink like Blair nor lie like Seymour, there may be some hope for him.

PIRATE SEMMES predicts a new rebellion, and Wade Hampton continues making rebel speeches in favor of Seymour and the Blairs. Let 'em go ahead. We are ready, twice five hundred thousand more, if needed.

READING POST, No. 16 G. A. R. will make a grand Rail Road excursion to Mauch Chunk, via Allentown, on the 19th of September next.

FRANK BLAIR passed through Lawrence, Kansas, recently, but after a very short conversation with him, the local committee deemed it inexpedient to call him out for a speech. Frank was gloriously drunk!

WHAT is the difference between the Democratic candidates for President and Vice-President? The one is a "bloated-bonholder," and the other is a bloated whiskey holder.

FIVE Democrats of Reading joined the Union League of that city last week.

"THE WIRZ RANGERS" is the title of a Seymour and Blair organization down in Kentucky—named after the notorious Andersonville WIRZ, who starved thousands of Union soldiers to death.

HON. T. W. GREEN, a prominent Indianapolis Democrat, repudiates the Blairs and is out publicly for Grant and Colfax.

FATHER ABRAHAM has now a larger circulation than any other campaign paper in the country, and new subscribers are rushing in upon us more rapidly than ever.

BECAUSE we are the descendants of the rebels of the revolution, the Columbia Herald (Copperhead) boastingly claims fellowship with the late rebels of the South!

SECRETARY SEWARD has gone home to Washington. Who cares?

THADDEUS STENENS' WILL.—The will of the late Hon. Thaddeus Stevens was admitted to probate yesterday. It is in the handwriting of the deceased, and reads as follows:

Last Will and Testament of Thaddeus Stevens, of Lancaster, Pennsylvania.

I give all my estate, real and personal, to my trustees and executors, hereinafter named, and their heirs, on condition nevertheless that they will dispose of it as hereinafter directed by the payment of the several sums mentioned. They will reduce such of the property as they deem proper to cash, and put the net proceeds at interest by investing the same in government securities at not less than six per cent. per annum. I direct them to pay to the town of Peacham, State of Vermont, one thousand dollars, the interest whereof at six per cent. to be applied in aid of the juvenile literary association, which was formed at the Caledonia County Academy, if the same is still in existence, and continue to pay the same so long as the same continues in active operation.

I give and bequeath to the trustees or titleholders of the graveyard in which my mother and brother Alanson are buried, in the town of Peacham, Vermont, five hundred dollars, to be put at interest perpetually, and the interest to be paid annually to the sexton, on condition that he keep the graves in good order and plant roses and other cheerful flowers at each of the four corners of said graves, every Spring. If either of the said legacies should lapse, the same to go to the support of the Baptist Church or meeting nearest to Danville Centre, my native town in Vermont.

I direct one hundred dollars to be put at compound interest, and the aggregate amount to be paid to George E. Brown, son of John E. Brown, of Philadelphia, at age.

I give two thousand dollars to my nephew, Dr. Thaddeus M. Stevens, of Indianapolis. I give to his sister, Mrs. Kaufman, one thousand dollars, to be paid to her at the age of Simon Stevens, one thousand dollars, to be put at interest and paid to him by his father when he arrives at age.

I give to Mrs. Lydia Smith my housekeeper five hundred dollars a year during her natural life, to be paid semi-annually; or at her option, she may receive five thousand dollars, she may make her election, and then release all further claims on my estate. Mrs. Smith has some furniture of her own, used in common with mine, some bought with her own money, as well as others, which it would be difficult to distinguish. Now, she must be trusted on honor to take such as she claims, without further proof.

I give to my nephew, Captain Thaddeus Stevens, now at Caledonia, my gold watch.

I give to my nephew, Captain Thaddeus Stevens, eight hundred dollars a year, to be paid half yearly. If by reason of illness he be unable to exercise the discretion of the trustees. None of the legacies, except the annuities, will be paid for three years, during which time the house I now live in, and furniture and books, will remain as they are, except the miscellaneous books, which may be sold at any time. Mrs. Smith may occupy the house the first year, and if Thaddeus, son of Merrill, prefers to keep house to the other lot, he may keep house there with her, or with any one else, during the three years or any part thereof. If at the end of three years, Thaddeus Stevens prefers some other mode of living, then the trustees shall dispose of said property, as they may deem best. While it is occupied by my nephew, he shall be charged with three hundred dollars a year rent for it. The property occupied by Mr. Effinger, after adding two feet of the lot he wishes to the other lot, may be sold, for five thousand dollars have been offered for it, it should not go for less.

The Furnace and all other real estate may be rented or sold. The Furnace must not be worked longer than to consume the stock on hand. If at the end of any five years, Thaddeus, nephew, shall have shown that he has totally abstained from all intoxicating drinks through that time, the trustees may convey to him one-fourth of the whole property. If at the end of the next successive five years, he shall show that he has totally abstained from all intoxicating drinks, they may convey to him one-fourth, being one-half of the property. If at the end of another consecutive five years, he shall show that he has abstained from all intoxicating drinks, they may convey the whole to him, in fee simple. If he shall get married before the house I live in is sold, he shall receive the same, and occupy it without sale.

If the life estate of my nephew, or rather the annuity of said Capt. Thaddeus Stevens, of Vermont, should expire before he has enabled himself to become entitled to the corpus or fee simple of my said property, if any of whatever may remain as follows: If the aggregate sum shall then amount to fifty thousand dollars, without which no further disposition can be made, I give it all to my trustees to erect, establish and endow a house of refuge for the relief of the homeless and indigent orphans. Those shall be deemed orphans who have lost either parent. I devise twenty thousand dollars to be expended in erecting suitable buildings, the residue to be secured in government securities, bearing not less than six per cent. interest. I wish the building to be erected in the city of Lancaster, south of King street, provided sufficient ground not less than two acres, shall be donated therefor. If not, then at the west side of said street, on some conditions. If sufficient ground is not gratuitously offered, then I direct it to be built at Columbia. The orphans who cannot be sent out, may remain in the institution until the age of fifteen years, and longer, if infirm, at the discretion of the trustees. They shall all be carefully educated in the various branches of an English education, and in all industries and useful pursuits, as far as left to the discretion of the authorities. No preference shall be shown on account of race or color in the admission or treatment. Neither poor Germans, Irish or Mohammedans, nor any others on account of their religion, or on account of their parents must be excluded. All the inmates shall be educated in the same classes and manner without regard to color. They shall be fed at the same table. The domestics to be under the direction of the trustees. The trustees shall provide an act of incorporation at some convenient time. This I declare to be my last will and testament, and name as my executors and trustees, Anthony E. Roberts, O. J. Dickey, and Edward Mother-ton, this thirteenth day of July, 1867.

Signed, THADDEUS STENENS. Witnessed in the presence of Edward Riley and Christopher Dice.

The Codicil to the will is as follows:

I, Thaddeus Stevens, of Lancaster, make and declare this codicil to my last will and testament: Item—I bought John Shortz property at Sheriff's sale, much below its value. I only want my own. All except three hundred dollars, the proceeds of it, and the interest, I direct shall be returned to the estate.

Item—If within five years after my death the Baptist church should build a house of public worship in the city of Lancaster, for the purpose of worshipping a cording to their creed, I direct one thousand dollars to be paid towards its cost. I do this out of respect for the memory of my mother, to whom I owe what little of prosperity I had, and which, small as it is, I desire emphatically to acknowledge.

Item—If my nephew, Major Thaddeus Stevens should get married before my decease he will be at liberty to take possession of and hold in fee, the house in which I now dwell, and the furniture thereof, and I in that event, remove all the restrictions which I place upon the devise of that property in the body of my will. I hereby exclude the corner property, now occupied by Effinger, from this provision.

Item—In eight years after my decease, if my estate shall have accumulated by interest, I do it without embarrassment, I direct one thousand dollars to be paid to the Pennsylvania College at Gettysburg, for the use of Stevens' Hall. I hereby request O. J. Dickey, Esq., to act as executor of this codicil.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this eleventh day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

THADDEUS STENENS.

SEWING MACHINES. DON'T READ THIS! SINGER'S SEWING MACHINE

Proved itself without a rival in the late test trial in this city with the Howe Machine. We therefore present it to the consideration of an intelligent public as incomparably the BEST SEWING MACHINE IN THE WORLD. It is light running—almost noiseless—and adapted to a wider range of work than any other SEWING MACHINE. While it is, at the same time, very simple indeed. A child can, with all ease, learn to use it in a short time. We can assure the public that they will look to their OWN INTEREST, If in want of a SEWING MACHINE, TO SEE, TEST AND TRY THE SINGER.
