

WHEN Seymour feels the cold wind of the 3d of November blowing upon him, he will exclaim, as he exclaimed to Lincoln, during the war—"Stop the draft!"

THE New York Herald wonders if Frank Blair may be cured of his low and vicious propensities. We do not believe he can be cured except as folks cure bacon—by hanging.

GENERAL CARL SCHURZ says the Democracy have nominated for President, a man who is hereditarily in danger of losing his wits, and for Vice President, a man who has already lost his.

Who is fool enough to suppose that Seymour would live a year, if he was elected President, when a second Southern Booth could make a worse than Johnson President?

In 1864, in Vermont, the Republican majority at the State (September) election was 22,000. This year, it is 27,000. In November, 1864, it was 29,000. In November, 1868, it will be 35,000. How do you like it?

THE issue is squarely made up. Shall the devoted Unionists of the South be left unprotected and at the mercy of vindictive, murderous rebels? Answer at the polls in October and November next.

THE other day, says the Lebanon Courier, a number of persons in Lebanon were judging the age of a mule, which was for sale. After examining his teeth he was pronounced to be twenty-two. A witty "son of the sod" standing by exclaimed, "Over age, is he? Then, be jabbers, there is another vote for Seymour. His kind all pull in that harness."

If you want to make a Democrat mad, just ask him something about MAINE.

THE election will take place next Monday, in Maine. A glorious victory awaits the Democracy.—Brick Pomeroy.

Didn't see it, did you?

THE Reading Eagle is going to publish the returns from Maine immediately after the next election.

MR. SEYMOUR has recently been trying to tickle the soldiers; but they recollect that in 1863 he vetoed a bill allowing them to vote in the field.

"BRICK" POMEROY, of the La Crosse Democrat, calls General Grant a "dummy." What a disgrace to rebeldom that the "impossibility of whipping the South" was made a possibility and reality through the plans of an ignoramus. Brick, try again. Ye cops, swing your caps and shout for glory!

"CARPET-BAGGERS" is the name applied by the twin brethren, cops and rebs, to all northern men going South in search of a residence in that sunny clime. Vallandigham, a returned carpet-bagger, is a Democratic candidate for Congress somewhere out in Ohio. Consistent, very.

THE La Crosse Democrat says, "God bless Horatio Seymour." Brick is becoming very pious. We have no objection to the "God bless him," but we hope He will bless the American people more by putting upon the shelf this self-same, identical Horatio Seymour. Yes, "God bless him."

It is contemplated to erect an inebriate asylum out West for Frank Blair and his drunken followers.

By the way the Democrats work, they seem ready to furnish material for their own November tanning.

BRICK POMEROY is going to make a speech at Reading this, Friday, evening. Look out for your pocket books.

THE La Crosse Democrat of last week says: the campaign in Maine is becoming quite animated. The Democracy have gone to work in earnest, and are confident of victory. A few more "such" Democratic victories, "Brick."

WHAT THEY MEAN.—Grant and Colfax means peace and prosperity, Seymour and Blair, war and bloodshed.

GOOD—The news from Maine. How do you like it, Cops.

WE are fighting over again to-day the issues of the war times. Do we appreciate fully that great fact? We stand by the graves of our dead soldiers.

SOLDIERS! Horatio Seymour is the candidate of the party which refused you the right to vote at all when you were in the field, and which now determines to make war on you if you do not vote as the conquered rebels dictate!

No one denies that Blair is giving his voice and lungs to the campaign, also his mouth and stomach to the champagne.

As an indication of how intelligent mechanics will vote in this State at the Presidential election, look at the following vote, taken on the excursion train from Harrisburg to Lancaster, on Friday last, containing several Councils of United American Mechanics.—For Grant, 540; for Seymour, 142.

THERE have been portraits of Davis, Lee, Hampton, and other like rebel heroes borne in Democratic processions since the campaign opened. But no one has yet ventured upon a picture of Booth. Why should the greatest Democratic hero of the age be thus slighted?

THE great secret of success is combined effort. Then at once organize the forces of Grant and Colfax in every ward, precinct, village and school district in the Commonwealth.

SEWING MACHINES.

DON'T READ THIS! SINGER'S SEWING MACHINE Proved itself without a rival in the late test trial in this city with the Howe Machine. We therefore present it to the consideration of an intelligent public as INCOMPARABLY the BEST SEWING MACHINE IN THE WORLD. It is light running—almost noiseless—and adapted to a wider range of work than any other SEWING MACHINE, While it is, at the same time, very simple indeed. A child can, with all ease, learn to use it in a short time. We can assure the public that they will look to their OWN INTEREST, If in want of a SEWING MACHINE, TO SEE, TEST AND TRY THE SINGER. Before deciding to take it or any other Machine. Parties often come to town in search of a Machine, and then listen to the advice of interested parties, or those who have but a limited knowledge of the Machines in question. BETTER SEE THEM FOR YOURSELVES, FRIENDS, And then you will not be deceived. W. W. BEARDSLEE, Agent, No. 3 EAST ORANGE STREET, (Two Doors from North Queen,) LANCASTER, PA.
