With malice towards none, with charity for all, with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in; to bind up the nations wounds; to care for him who shall have borne the battle, and for his widow and his orphan, to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and a lasting peace among ourselves and with all nations."—A. L.

THANKSGIVING. Gov. Geary has issued a proclamation, designating Thursday, the 26th inst., as a day of Thanksgiving to Almighty God for the manifold blessings which he has showered upon our prosperous, law-abiding and happy Commonwealth.

LEHIGH COUNTY.—A curious coincidence occurred in the vote of Lehigh county. The majority for Boyle, this year, is precisely that given for Clymer in 1866. In 1866 Clymer had 5,781 votes, Geary 4,160. In 1868 Boyle had 6,305 votes, Hartman, 4,733. It will be seen that each party gained precisely the same number of votes—574.

A SENSIBLE BET.—A young gentleman and lady of New Albany, Ind., made a novel bet on the Presidential election. If Grant was elected the young man agrees to marry the lady, and if Seymour was elected the young lady was to marry the gentleman.

Miscellaneous.

Now Glory to the Lord.

[ADAPTED.] Now, Glory to the Lord of Hosts, from whom all glories are, And glory to our sovereign flag, of every flag the star; Now let there be the merry sound of dancing and of song, Through all our fields and sunny vales the gladsome notes prolong.

Old Arm Chair.

[From Mrs. Lizette A. Capehart.] Lines suggested by the Chair in which General Grant sat when he signed the stipulation or treaty with General Lee at Appomattox Court House, Va., April 9, 1865, for the surrender of the Army of Northern Virginia.

Past, Present and Future.

Our progress during the last forty years has been so wonderful and rapid as to appear almost fabulous to the men of the present generation. Probably no other period of equal time in the worlds history, has produced so many changes as the one under consideration.

place than is generally supposed, and a more rapid progress made than ever before by any people on the face of the globe. Whether we have, in every respect, improved ourselves, or moved in the right direction, will be for each one to judge for himself. Forty years ago, Pittsburg was the principal city in the far off West. Dry goods and other products of the East were transported from Philadelphia to Pittsburg in Conestoga teams, with four, five and six horses, and by the same means, the produce of the great Western Ohio and western Pennsylvania was brought to the East.

and children, at the rate of thirty miles an hour, over mountains, across valleys and rivers, without a single incident calculated to disturb or alarm the most timid individual. And although every important town in the State is now a Railroad station, the great system is apparently yet in its infancy. Very soon the iron horse, with its long train of human freight, will wind its way up and over the Rocky Mountains, all the way across this immense continent to the great Pacific, and the trip will be attended with much less adventure or fatigue than a journey to Pittsburg forty years ago.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3d, 10 o'clock, P. M. The election for President and Vice-President to-day resulted in favor of Grant and Colfax, the Radical candidates, by a large majority. Seymour has only five or six States—Grant the remainder. How long a period of time would have been required to gather the same amount of news forty years ago, each one may imagine for himself. I believe there was no daily newspaper published in this country forty years ago. It was then customary, in the most intelligent and civilized towns and villages, for two, three or more neighbors to club together, and each subscribe for one newspaper, and in regular order they were handed round, and read by each one belonging to the club.

worship. It is only in the Churches of the common people, where it is in order for the congregation to sing the praise and glory of God with a will. And the preaching in some leading Churches to-day is very much like the singing, and the "love of a preacher" who can best avoid true Christianity, and white-wash over and present ingenious apologies for the most fearful vices of society, is the man who now commands the highest salary, and figures as the most popular preacher. Glittering generalities, and not the spirit of Jesus Christ, is the style of preaching. (To be Continued.) REJECTED—AND WHY? TO THE LEADERS OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY. Your rejection by the people is decided and emphatic. Why? You encouraged the South to initiate secession. You pronounced coercion equally revolutionary with secession. You assailed the first call for troops as unconstitutional. You refused to vote either man or money to carry on the war.
