A Representative of the Mackerelville Democracy.

The Democratic Press on the Result.

The Philadelphia Age of Wednesday says:

We had hoped that the masses of American freemen, who love their country, and whatever may be the presented adverse verdict, will not permit our free institutions to be sacrificed by wicked and designing parizans, would have risen in their might, and would have swept from existence the reckless crew now driving the old ship of State upon the breakers.

The New York Democrat of Wednesday (Brick Pomeroy) says:

No, not beaten, Democrats! We have only not won! We have "moved upon the enemy's works," but have failed to carry them.

The New York World of Wednesday says:

Always desperate and difficult, for three weeks, ever since the October elections went against us, theirs (the Democracy) has been a consciously hopeless fight.

Will They Learn?

We trust the result of the election on Tuesday last will teach the Southern disorganizers wisdom, and to submit to what is inevitable. Let us have peace; let us have liberty; let us have free discussion; let us have tolerance. Let us have no more murders; no more invasion of the people's rights; no more disorders. Grant and the new Congress are instructed by the people of the United States to demand only justice and order; but they will insist on these.

WHY DON'T YOU CROW!

Local Items.

THE TANNERS.—This evening the Boys in Blue and Tanner's Club of this city propose celebrating our great victory of Tuesday last by a grand torchlight procession. A number of fire works have been purchased for the occasion, and a general illumination is in prospect.

THE CITY OF READING.—The result of the election in the city of Reading was glorious—169 majority for Grant, being a gain of 192. The total number of votes polled in the city was 6,261.

The Republicans of Reading want a change in the time of holding their municipal election—from February to the second Tuesday in October. A full vote in Reading assures a Republican victory nine times out of ten.

A NEW BOOK.—Jacob E. Barr, our Lancaster enterprising book-seller and publisher, has just issued from the press a very handsome book, entitled THE CITY OF GOD, from the pen of Rev. E. H. Nevin, of this city.

LANCASTER CITY.—Nobly did the Republicans of our city, on Tuesday last, sustain the proud position they took at the State election. The Cops bowed and blustered that they would increase their majority, but they didn't.

BOYS IN BLUE.—This effective organization of returned soldiers have added no little to the fine effect of the torch light processions in Lancaster, during the late campaign.

ELECTION BETS.—The Republicans of old Berks, and all others who occasionally visit Reading, and who were so fortunate as to win greenbacks on the late election, would do well to call at Buch & Bro's, Portico Row, No. 543 Penn St., and order a first rate suit of clothes for the coming winter.

THE FOURTH WARD!—Poor old Miss Nancy, and the smiling and plausible sleek and tricky Dr., of the fourth ward, this city! How much less than the little end of nothing they must feel.

THE VINDICATOR, a live temperance paper, published weekly at Williamsburg, Blair county, Pa., by Dr. James P. Thompson, will enter upon its second volume, on the 6th of January next.

OLD WARWICK is ahead, not only as the Presidential election banner township, but in growing corn. Mr. Emanuel H. Shirk, of Rothsville, raised an ear of corn containing sixteen hundred and twenty-two grains. Who can beat it?

THE AMERICAN, corner of Fourth and Penn, is the leading Hotel of Reading, and its Proprietors are staunch Republicans. Let our friends, who occasionally visit Reading, remember this.
