Our Senators Sustained.

A public meeting of citizens of East Hompfield township was held at Sakunga, on Satur day, January 23d, to take into consideration the recent extraordinary action of our Representatives at Harrisburg. The meeting was well attended, and was organized by the appointment of the following officers: President, D. LEUPOLD, Vice Presidents, John Weidman, W. D. Relevel; Secretaries, A. R. Strickler, A. P. Breneman.

After appropriate remarks by the President and Messrs. Kreider and Beitzel, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, We have heard with profound regret and deep mortification, that the members of the House of Representatives from Lancaster county, have voted to incredible clerical force at Harrisburg beyond all paddent, and rejected a proper offer to economize the expenses of Government, when the people are groaning beneath the weight of taxation, caused in part by the perfidy and corruption of our Representatives: of our Representatives :

of our Representatives:

It is, therefore, Resolved, by the people of this town and vicinity, that we denounce the act as unjustifiable, uncalled for, and in direct opposition to the expressed will of the resolved as indicated in the election of General factor.

Resolved, That we hereby declare that the said members have violated the confidence of their constituents here assembled, the pledged faith of the Republican party as to commun, and filled us with doubt as to a continuation retrenchment in every department of Govern-

Jane Rodney took a fancy to a piece of muslin, in the store of "Cheap Jessie," in North Queen street, this city, one evening last week, and appropriated it. She was held to bail. This is not her first offense, and "Rockey" says she is afficted with "kleptomania"—an uncontrollable desire to take mania"—an uncontrollable desire to take things, and "gives her Jessie."

The new U. B. Church, in Manheim, will be dedicated on Sunday, February 7th. Bishop Glossbrenner will preach. Clinton and Henry Rogers were ap-

The Normal Literary Society, at Millers-ville, will celebrate their twelfth anniversary this evening.

The name of the man whose body was found in Mill Creek on Saturday week, was William Blum, not Edward Derr, as stated last week. He had recently been employed as a bar-tonder at the Washington House, at Michael Withers' dwelling house, on South Michael Withers' dwelling house, on South Queen st., sold to H. W. Harberger, for $5,000 A fire, which threatened to be very destructive, occurred on Saturday evening last, at the stable of Mr. Knapp, on the alley running from Duke to Lime, between East King and Orange streets, about half a square east of the Court House. The active efforts of the firemen confined the fire to the table of Mr. Knapp although it was to the stable of Mr. Knapp, although it was surrounded by stables and other buildings filled with combustible matter. Two fine horses and a cow perished in the flames. It is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

The market thieves were about again on Saturday morning. A buffalo robe was stolen from a carriage in the yand of the Lamb hotel, and a basket of butter on North Queen street. But two spans of the Columbia bridge remain to be arched, and it is confidently ex-pected that if the weather be favorable, the bridge will be made passable for ears and vehicles within three weeks.

There is quite a feeling on the subject of religion in several of the congregations in this city. No one doubts but that in this matter

Lancaster is sadly in need of a reformation.

THE COURT. Continued from last Week's paper—John Harter and Charles Focht were charged with assault and battery on Benjamin Henry, and it was in evidence that Christ. Hoglegantz and Henry Appley, who had pleaded guilty to a similar offence on Henry, on Tuesday, assisted in this assault. The jury rendered an "accommodation verifiet," by declaring defendants not guilty, and dividing the costs between them and the prosecutor.

A nol. pros. was entered in the case of Thomas Porter, indicted for forgery.
Christian Shenk, "mfhe host" of the Sorrel Herse, this city, was acquitted of resisting an officer in the discharge of his duty. Constable McCutcheon had an execution against a horse and buggy of Christian Bortzfield, who stopped at Shenk's hotel, and attempted to take possession of them. Shenk rebisted, offering to give security. This McCutcheon refused, and Shenk would not allow him to take the horse and buggy away. In the meantime, Bortzfield paid the amount of the judgment to the alderman. McCutcheon swore that Shenk laid violent hands on him. This was denied by other witnesses.

John Davis was convicted of stealing a coat

Michael Askill was indicted for attempting to commit a felony. He was found in the sleeping apartment of Dr. Metzgar, in South Duke street, this city, at midnight, on the 22d of November. This closing the cases before the Court, the trans closing the cases before the Court, the Grand Jury report was presented and read. The jury say that they acted on sixty bills, most of them of a comparatively light character, ignoring twenty-three. They approved one application for a bridge. [We hope they also recommended that it should be given out by public readure, and not by private are by public vendue, and not by private arrangement, for somebody to get a "job." "Thereby hangs a tale!"] They were of opinion that if Aldermen and Justices of the Peace would act properly, very many of these cases would never come before the Grand Jury. [The Court, in reply to this, said that Jury. [The Court, in reply to this, said that magistrates were sometimes excusable for sending trifling cases to Court, as they cannot always, at the hearing before them, tell whether there is sufficient ground for action at law.] [We would ask whether it does not make some difference in the amount of costs they receive, too?] The Jury visited the courty buildings—speak favorably of the manner in which the officers of the Prison and Alms House and Hospital discharge their duties—compliment Court, District Attorney and constables, &c.

We regret to report the death of two of the officers of the Prison during the year: Dr. John F. Huber, Physician to the Prison and Henry M. Musser, a member of the Board of Inspectors.

F. Huber, rhysician to M. Musser, a member of the Board of Inspectors.

Dr. Huber was a faithful and energetic officer, bringing to the discharge of bis duties the varied experience gained in the practice of his profession not only at home but in the army during the rebellion.

Mr. Musser by his urbanity of manner and the constant interest felt in everything which promoted the welfare of the Prison, was well qualified for the position made vacant by his untimely death.

All of which is respectfully submitted.
