JOB PRINTING.

Handbills, Cards, Bill Heads, Programmes, Posters, &c., &c., printed in the best style and at reasonable rates, at the FATHER ABRA-HAM Job Printing Office. Orders by mail promptly attended to.

ITEMS : M. M. Rutt and H. S. Gara, Esqs. have been appointed Notaries Public, for this city, in place of John K. Rutter, who declined the appointment, and John P. Rea, resigned. The house built by Dr. Ben. Mishler, which we stated last week was to be commenced and completed in 30 hours, was finished in 25 hours, and occupied.

We learn that 450 rafts of timber landed at Marietta during the recent freshet in the Sus-quehanna, which is a small number compared er, will largely add to the number. Pine timber is selling at from 20 to 22 cents per cubic foot, and oak from 24 to 30 cents per cu-bic foot. Hemlock brings from $12 to $14 per thousand feet. Pine boards sell at $20 per thousand feet. Shaved shingles sell at from S22 to 24 a thousand.

At a recent meeting of the Donegal Presbytery of the Presbyterian church, at Strasburg, this county, Revs. C. W. Stewart, of Colerain, and George Robinson, of this city, were chosen as clerical, and Col. D. W. Patterson, of this city, and Dr. Andrews, of Union, as lay delegates to the next meeting of the General As-sembly, to be held in New York in May. Rev. Mr. Witherow will be installed as pastor of the church in Columbia, on the 3d of May Mad dogs are the terror of Lancaster just now. Owen Hopple, of this city, killed one having every symptom of hydrophobia, near his premises, on Saturday morning. Our city police are active in shooting all dogs not inuzzled. Right-entire extermination of unmuzzled canines should be the order of the day.

Gen. Heintzelman has been placed on the retired list of the Army, receiving the pay of a Major General. He is a native of Manheim, this county, and has proved himself a worthy son of the old Guard.

The market in Columbia, on and after May 1st, will open at five o'clock A. M., on every Wednesday and Saturday. An unoccupied frame house, belonging to

A. C. Pfahler, near the junction of Walnut and Locust streets, Columbia, was nearly consumed by firs on Saturday night last. A dog having symptoms of hydrophobia, was killed at the residence of John K. Barr, in West Hempfield township, one day last week.

Capt. John A. Madden, a gallant Union soldier of the rebellion, who was twice severesoldier of the rebellion, who was twice severe-ly wounded, leaving an arm on the field at f Bentonville, N. C., and who has resided in Georgia since the war, arrived at his old home in this city, a few days ago, on a brief visit. Mr. H. G. Kendigs of East Lampeter, pre-sented the Express with a hen's egg which measures lengthwise 7% inches, and around 626 incomes of the series of the here.

be obtained at the Recorder's Office. The velocipede mania has taken consideraor five were on Centre Square one evening this week at one time. If any body can tell this week at one time. If any body can define us where the fun of the thing is, we should like to hear of it. We can't see it. The barn of Eli Wenger, in Sadsbury twp., was destroyed by fire, with its contents of ceive a tee in such cases? On Tuesday, Leonard K. Seltzer, was charged with stealing a watch and chain from Mr. Drabenstadt, at Mount Joy, on the 4th of July last, the day of a firemen's parade in that borough. The testimony pretty conclusively proved that Seltzer had Drabenstadt's watch, and that on the day mentioned they were both "high," or "how come you so." On Wednesday morning, the Jury returned a verdict of guilty, and counsel for defendant moved for a new trial.

moved for a new trial. Benjamin Kapp, was charged with stealing two turkeys from Joseph Brill, who resides in Dauphin county, near the Lancaster county line. Samuel Musser, was indicted with Kapp, but did not come to time. The turkeys were sold in Marietta, according to confes-sions made by Samuel and Joseph Musser, but the evidence was not sufficient to convict, and Kapp was acquitted.

On Wednesday morning, William Watson, almost a citizen of African descent, who resides in Mount Joy township, was charged with stealing a set of silver plated harness belonging to John D. Fritz. He was convict-ed and sentenced to three months in the Lancaster County Prison.

Levi, William and Jacob Marshal, father and two sons, were found guilty of stealing four bushels of wheat from Eli Wenger, in Salisbury township. The two former were sentenced to five months in Castle Sensenig, and the latter to the House of Refuge. ***

THE UNITED AMERICAN MECHANICS The State Council of Pennsylvania, held its regular semi-annual session at Harrisburg, on Friday last. About one hundred Councils were represented and the proceedings were interesting. In the evening a complimentary interesting. In the evening a complimentary banquet was given to the members of the State Council by the subordinate Councils of Har-risburg, at the State Capitol Hotel, over which Governor Geary presided. After the cloth had been removed loud calls were made for Governor Geary, who responded in a very neat and appropriate address welcoming the State Council to the Capitol, and referred in fitting terms to the origin and growth of the State Council to the Oxpirol, and "referred in fitting terms to the origin and growth of the Order. Addresses were made by Messrs. Jenkins, A. C. Smith, E. H. Rauch, S. A. Wylie, E. E. Snyder, and others. Songs were sung by Messrs. Server and Barker. Toasts were offered and responded to, and at a late hour the company dispersed highly played with the invitouts and factivities of pleased with the incidents and festivities of the occasion. The motto of the Order, "So-' was strictly observed, as all intoxibriety cating drinks were entirely excluded.

Is there any boy in Chillicothe, whose name is "Uli Damyer"" We hear very loud calls for him occasionally from the little boys who congregate about the corners, and, particu-larly when a dispute arises concerning any game in which they may chance to be engag-ed. We judge from the frequency of these calls for him on occasions of this kind, that he calls for him on occasions of this kind, that he must be a little fellow of vast judgment and wisdom, who is called upon to act as umpire. We hope "Uli" will always appear prompt-ly hereafter, so that these good little boys won't have to call him so often. The older citizons of the place will feel pticularly re-lieved if he will only do so.-Chilleothe Gazette. From the talk of the boys in the streets of Lancaster, it is highly probable that "Ull" has removed to this city. He is popular here, and as much the subject of conversation as he was in Chillicothe.

Railroad side of a quarter of a mile less 15 feet, filled with costly machinery.

In other words, this Manufactory has added to the industrial world the effective force of 1,700, 000 scamstresses, and is swelling that immense number by adding 2,000 per day.

It has even conquered British prejudice. Charles Dickens himself has made it the subject of a finely turned article in "Once a Week," and the London Times, in an exhaustive two column and a half editorial, covering the whole subject of Sewing Machines, awards the highest merits of praise to the WHEELER & WILSON as the one best calculated for household work.

It is on this mission of labor-saving in all parts of the world, London, St. Petersburg, Madrid, Constantinople, Calcutta, Cape Town, &c. Its agents are everywhere throughout the habitable globe, wherever fabrics are sown into human apparel.

We respectfully claim attention, and cordial-ly i_vite the citizens of Lancaster county to visit our Office, inspect the Machine, examine the samples of the work performed, and compare them with others. We willingly abide the result.
