PERIODICALS.

HEARTH AND HOME continues to hold its place as one of our best illustrated weeklies. The number for May 22d, contains the beginning of a fine story by R. B. Edson, entitled "Marrying Well." Address Hearth and Home 37 Park Row, New York.

THE LADY'S FRIEND FOR JUNE.—The Steel Plate for this number is the beautiful, saintly iace of Isabella, one of Shakspeare's characters. The Colored Fashion Plate gives a rich and tasteful bridal dress, and others of the latest style; and a number of well-executed wood cuts illustrate the most picturesque varieties of the present mode. The musical and literally departments are attractive. Published by Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut street, Philadelphia, at $250 a year.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE for June, is bright and attractive with handsome illustrations and excellent reading. "On the Terrace," is a being tiful engraving, and there are others of an excellent character. The colored fashion plate will please the ladies, as well also the patterns, &c. Published by C. J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE for June sustains its high character, as the best monthly of its class. The contents are exceedingly interesting, and the handsome engravings are attractive and well executed. Money invested in HARPER is well invested. Published by Harper & Bros., New York.

ARTHUR'S MAGAZINE, (NCE-A-MONTH AND CTIL-DRENS' Hour for June are on hand, with their bright and charming engravings, and reading matter for old and young. There is no discount on Arthurs' publications, and they are univer-sal favorites. Address T. S. Arthur & Son, 809 and SH Crostour of Philadelphia. and 811 Cnestnut-st., Philadelphia.

To the Working Class: I am now prepared to furnish all classes with constant employment at their homes, the whole of the time, or for the spare moments. Business new, light and profitable. Fifty cents to $5 per evening, is easily earned by persons of either sex, and the boys and girls earn nearly as much as men. Great inducements are offered those who will devote their whole time to the business; and, that every person who sees this notice, may send me their address and test the business for themselves, I make the following unparalelled offer: To all who are not well satisfied with the business, I will send it to pay for the trouble of writing to me. Full particulars, directions, &c., sent free. Samples sent by mail for 10 cts. Address E. C. ALLEN, Augusta, Me. [mh12-3m]

LANCASTER, June 25th, 1868.

EDITORS EXPERSS: Dr. Wm. M. Whiteside, the enterprising Dentist, has purchased from me a large stock of tecth and all the fixtures, the instruments formerly belonging to me, and also those used by my father, Dr. Parry, in his practice. In the purchase, the doctor has provided himself with some of the most valuable and expensive instruments used in dental practice, and has beyond doubt one of the best and largest collections of teeth and instruments in the State. Persons visiting the commodious offices of Dr. Whiteside, cannot fail to be fully accommodated. The Doctor loses no opportanity of furnishing himself with every late scientific improvement in his line of business.
