

On last Friday evening Samuel Armer, an employe of the smelting furnace, in Paradise township, was found dead in the road leading from the furnace to his home.

A severe rain and hail storm visited this city and vicinity on Monday evening last. The heavy rain continued to fall on the fruit and shrubbery, and the growing grain was beaten down very much.

The decoration ceremonies on Sunday last in this city were attended by a very large concourse of citizens, but the procession was meagre.

The locomotive attached to the Columbia Accommodation train ran off the track on Monday last near Bitter's warehouse, considerably damaging itself, but injuring no one in the cars.

Alexander Leman, aged 18 years, has been committed to prison, charged with stealing a gold watch and chain in March, 1868, from Augustus Currie, of this city.

The "Drummer Boy of Shiloh" is to be produced at the Opera House, under the auspices of Post 118, G. A. R.

Our farmer friends are so busy attending to their own business just now that but few of them visit town, and as a consequence our streets look like some banquet hall deserted.

A contemporary says: Roses—radiant and regal—are already budding in the gardens, and the petals fling their fragrance on this summer air.

Mr. Stephen Clair has been appointed Assistant Assessor of Internal Revenue for the Eleventh district, composed of Columbia, West Hempstead, &c., in place of William U. Hess, resigned.

An unsuccessful attempt was made on Monday night last to break open and rob the safe of the Susquehanna Iron Company at Columbia. A similar attempt was made two years ago.

The warehouse of Miller & Hartman, on Chestnut street, this city, was entered on Tuesday night last, and an attempt made to get into their safe, but it did not succeed.

Mr. Frederick Shiner, of this city, mysteriously disappeared on Monday afternoon last. His wife died a few days ago, and his grief was so great, that it is feared that some evil has befallen him.

THE COURT: The trial of Emanuel Longenecker, who was charged with larceny by Jesse McComey, occurred in the District Court from Thursday until Friday noon, and was warmly contested.

On Monday morning another adjourned Court of Quarter Sessions convened, Judges Hayes and Libbatt on the bench.

Oscar Fowle, indicted for Malicious Mischief, in cutting loose logs secured in the Susquehanna at Columbia, by F. S. Bletz. The logs about which this suit was instituted, were purchased by Mr. Bletz at a public sale held by several persons residing in the vicinity of Marietta, who had picked them up in the river, and kept them some five months after finding them. Notice had been given by Craig & Blanchard, who have a saw-mill at Port Deposit, that the logs belonged to them.

Verdict of not guilty on six indictments against Augustus F. Spang, for selling liquor without license, was rendered by District Attorney stating that after examining the cases he was satisfied that they could not be sustained. [Wonder what "settled" the District Attorney!]

Samuel H. Looker pleaded guilty to the charge of selling liquor without license, in Columbia, and was sentenced to pay a fine of fifty dollars and to serve a term of thirty days in the County Jail.

In the case of J. Middleton, against whom two indictments were found, one for adultery and the other for cheating by false pretences, verdicts of not guilty were taken, at the request of the District Attorney, who informed the Court that the charges against this defendant could not be sustained. [A great deal of this kind of thing done now-days. We suppose George was "satisfied!"]
