FATHER ABRAHAM

"With malice towards none, with charity for all, with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in; to bind up the nations wounds; to care for him who shall have borne the battle, and for his widow and his orphan, to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and a lasting peace among ourselves and with all nations."

Poetry.

DRESSING FOR CHURCH.

Has anybody heard the bell?
You have!—dear me; I know full well
I'll never dress in time—
For mercy's sake, come help me, Luce,
I'll make my toilet very spruce,
This silk is quite sublime!

MY RAILWAY COMPANION.

After awhile we came to a stopping place. The curly haired fellow put his shawl over the back of the seat to keep his place for him, and went out. Quick as thought I piled the boxes into Mrs. Poodle's lap, stepped over her, and took the seat the young man just vacated.

unkind enough to blame me for so doing:

I thanked her and signified that I would do so; but I had no more idea of it than I had of calling at No. 47 S— street in the moon.
I went to a hotel, ordered a room, and flung myself on the bed, as much cut up generally as any hero of a fine novel whose heart is broken; and I ought to have been seeing after my business.

MY RAILWAY COMPANION.

A little while before we would reach Chicago, Mrs. Graves turned to me and said:
"Mr. Sanford, I cannot express the gratitude I feel toward you for your kindness. I am afraid I have given you a great deal of trouble."

THE AUTHORS.

While the congregation were collected at church, on a certain occasion, an old, dark-faceted, skin-and-bone individual was seen wending his way up the aisle, and took his seat near the pulpit.

DISORDER.

The man or boy who goes through the streets whooping and haw-hawing is certainly a fit representative of nonsense.

FROD.

The proudest man we have met for many a day is an old friend who has lately been made a grandfather.
