Poetry.
WHEN I MEAN TO MARRY.

BY JOHN G. SAXE.
When do I mean to marry? When— 'Tis idle to dispute with Fate; But if you choose to hear me tell, Pray listen while I fix the date:

Miscellaneous.
SMITH'S GOOD LUCK.

I was always a lucky fellow, and the most fortunate thing that ever happened to me was being born a Smith. Listen. Three years ago I had just been killed, and was out of money.

JOINING THE MASONS.
Knobbs has joined the Masons, and here is his experience in getting into a Lodge:

I must tell you of the perils and trials I had to undergo to become a Mason. On the evening in question I presented myself at the door of the Lodge room, No. 36, 6th, sign of the skull and cross bones. I was conducted to the ante-room, where five or six melancholy chaps, in sashes and embroidered napkins, were waiting to receive me.

"Not if I know it," I said; "there's my wife and fourteen fine—"
Another party here told me to say yes, as it was merely a matter of form. So I said, "Yes, I will give up everything."

"Where are we?" I asked, as Sambo opened the carriage-door. "Do they live here?"
"Where is your name?"
"Robert, sir. Will you be so kind as to hurry, sir. They are waiting on you."

It ought to be generally known among Republicans that Judge Williams, of the Supreme Court, is in no way responsible for the retention of J. Ross Snowden, of naturalization papers, as Prothonotary of said Court. The Prothonotary holds his office for three years, and was re-appointed before Judge Williams was called to the bench.

THE latest news from Cuba is favorable to the speedy restoration of the authority of the Government. It is stated that the civil authorities have been re-established in a number of districts heretofore disturbed by the insurgents.

—A Farmer who had engaged the services of a son of the Emerald Isle, sent him out one morning to harrow a piece of ground. He had not worked long before nearly all of the teeth came out of the harrow.

—During a recent debate in the Victoria Legislature, a rather good thing was said by one of the members. An unfortunate loyal liberal, whose education had been sadly neglected, was reading out a document to the House, and vainly endeavoring to decipher an obscure letter; turning to his next friend, he anxiously asked, "Is that a hem or a hen?" "Oh," replied his friend, "call it hen, and move that it lay on the table."

Father Abraham's Chaps.
A fine coat may cover a fool, but never conceals one.

The Insane Asylum at Harrisburg has over three hundred inmates. A Mormon elder was recently presented with nine boys and five girls the same morning.

THE people of Memphis complain of dull times. Last week only two persons were killed and four wounded in shooting affrays.

THE temperance men in Maine are running an independent candidate for Governor, which gives the Democrats hopes of slipping into power there.

A State Convention of School Superintendents will be held at Harrisburg, commencing Tuesday, July 20. Free return tickets over the Railroads centreing there have been secured for attending members.

AN Episcopal clergyman of Chicago recently preached a communion sermon on the duty of receiving the bread with hands crossed, and carrying it to the lips without touching it with the fingers.

TWO blind people in Iowa heard a harp harping with his harp on the opposite side of the street, recognized him by his touch of the instrument, crossed over and shook hands with him.

THE political canvass in Tennessee is getting rather too excited. On Wednesday, at a discussion at Clinton, Stokes challenged Senter to fight on the spot. Senter declined, but said he would hold him responsible for the challenge after the election.
