The dwelling house of Mrs. S. C. Stambaugh near this city, on the Litiz turnpike, was entered and robbed, on Tuesday night last, of about $60 in money and a diamond cluster ring. The latter was valued at $200.

The thermometer reports from neighboring cities and towns for the closing days of last week ran from 90 up to 100 degrees.

Mutten is falling. People who have heads of that sort should look to it and not get hurt.

C. Morbus along with B. Complaint have arrived here—and contemplate remaining as long as the cucumber family is about.

Thos. Feran, Esq., formerly of this city, and publisher of the Lancaster Intelligencer, has resigned his position as Chief Clerk in the office of Commissioner of Customs, at Washington. He has been in office thirty-three years, having been appointed during Van Buren's administration.

If you want to purchase a good sewing machine, buy a Grover & Baker, a Howe, or a Wheeler & Wilson. They are the best in the market.

We regret being called upon to announce the death of Dr. H. B. Bowman, of Neffsville, on Wednesday morning. He had been suffering for some weeks past from an apoplectic stroke, which occurred at his residence in Neffsville, though hopes were entertained that he would shortly recover therefrom. He held several important public offices and was widely known and respected. He was in the 65th year of his age at the time of his decease. Funeral takes place to-morrow.

The commencement exercises of the State Normal School, Millersville, took place yesterday.

On Saturday night last the barn of Mr. Jas. Stauffer, who resides near the Gap, was, with its contents, entirely destroyed by fire. No cause assigned.

The Lexington Union Sunday School will hold its fourth annual celebration on Saturday August 7th, in Hiram Kline's woods.

PROCLAIM THE JOYOUS NEWS throughout all the land! Dr. Pierce's Alterative Extract, or Golden Medical Discovery arrests and cures Consumption in its early stages, and is a positively sure and certain remedy for Bronchitis, Laryngitis, and all lingering Coughs. Sold by druggists, or enclose three dollars and twenty-five cents to Dr. R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y., and get three bottles free of express charges.

STATE NEWS.

CHESTER COUNTY.—On Saturday evening before last the barn of James Lynch, Jr., in Upper Oxford township, was totally consumed by fire.....Mr. Newton Miller, of Uwchlan, was knocked down and stunned by a stroke of lightning, but recovered.....A Methodist Camp Meeting will be held in Young's woods, West Bradford, some time next month.....On Sunday before last a boy named Dannan, in tussling with another lad, in West Chester, fell and broke his arm.....One day last week a savage encounter occurred between two large bulls, in North Coventry township. One of the animals, belonging to Mr. H. A. Focht, broke into the premises of Mr. Jacob Hahn, who had one of about equal, or probably a little larger size. A fierce battle at once ensued, lasting, it is supposed, for some time, the bovines, in their desperate struggle, trampling over about an acre of grass, breaking down several trees of considerable size, and knocking over forty panels of fence. Finally the bull belonging to Mr. Hahn got his antagonist at a disadvantage in some way, against a stump, broke his leg, and gored him fearfully, causing his death.

BERKS COUNTY.—The Hancock club, of Reading, on returning from the State Convention, proceeded to a beer saloon and got on a fresh drunk. An attempt to get up a ratification meeting resulted in a fizzle.....Elixina Heckman, arrested on the charge of infanticide, some time ago, was brought before Judge Woodward, and admitted to bail in the sum of $500.....Peter Maurer, aged 70, was killed by the upsetting of a wagon loaded with grain, near Greshville.....Fourteen persons were baptized in the Schuylkill, at Reading, by Rev. Mr. Peters, of the United Brethren Church, on the 15th inst.....A meeting was held in Reading on Sunday last, in the Presbyterian Church, to form a county Sabbath School Institute. Speeches were made by Rev. Mr. Taylor, Secretary of the State Sabbath School Association, and by Rev'ds. Fernley, Frear and Richards, of Reading. It was agreed to hold an institute on the 14th, 15th and 16th of September next.

YORK COUNTY.—William Keyser, of Chanceford, on Sunday before last fell from a tree and broke his arm.....John Light is to go up in a balloon to-morrow, from Center Square, York.....On Tuesday night last week some burglars attempted to enter the residence of A. H. Craley, in Lower Windsor, but were discovered and driven away. On the following night a half barrel of mackerel and some butter was stolen from the spring house of Wm. Knisley, in the same neighborhood.....Sarah Sutton fell into a lock of the canal, about twenty miles below Wrightsville, and was drowned, on Thursday the 9th inst.....The barn of Thomas J. Cooper, in Peach Bottom township, was struck by lightning recently and slightly damaged .....The store of V. G. Stubbs, of Peach Bottom, was robbed of some goods and $100 in money.....On Monday a week Willie Bates, of the borough of York, fell into a tub of boiling water and was scalded so badly that death shortly after ensued.....The Methodist Sunday School held a pic-nic on last Friday at Hanover Junction.....The barn of Daniel Markey, 4 miles from York, was destroyed by fire Tuesday night last.

PERIODICALS.

THE LADY'S FRIEND for August is adorned with a beautiful steel engraving of those two youthful lovers, "Paul and Virginia"—a double-paged and handsomely colored Fashion Plate, containing the latest Paris styles—a picture of Maidenhood, in illustration of Longfellow's sweet poem—and the usual number of miscellaneous engravings, illustrating sea-side costumes, children's fashions, hats, head-dresses, dinner and walking toilets, &c., &c. The music of this month is a ballad, "The Rose of Erin." Published by Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut street, Philadelphia, at $2.50 a year (which also includes a large steel engraving.) Four copies, $6. Five copies (and one gratis,) $8. "The Lady's Friend" and "The Saturday Evening Post" (and one engraving), $4.00. Specimen numbers sent for ten cents.

A NEW NOVELET BY MRS. HENRY WOOD.—In the SATURDAY EVENING POST of July 17th, a new serial is begun by the celebrated author of "East Lynne." It is called "GEORGE CANTERBURY'S WILL", and opens in this author's usual interesting manner. An extra edition will be reprinted of the early numbers of this story, but those wishing it would do well to apply early. Sample copies of THE POST, containing the opening chapters, will be sent gratis. Price of THE POST, $2.50 a year; four copies, $6.00. Address H. Peterson & Co., 319 Walnut Street, Philadelphia.

HARPER'S MONTHLY.—The August number of Harper is replete with interesting contributions. Here is a list of the papers in the number before us: Pictures of Japanese, The New Theory of Heat, South East Saunterings in England, A Brave Lady, Drawyour conclusions The Graves at Newport, Hetty's Liberal Education, Slavery in Palaces, A Peep at Finland Reminiscences of Oxford, A Wonder, My Enemy's Daughter, Borrowed Baggage, The New Home, August Days, The New Timothy, Editor's Easy Chair, Book Table, Monthly Record, Drawer. Harper & Bros., New York, publishers. For sale at our Book Stores.

HEARTH AND HOME, No. 30, is before us. It is a specially fine one, both in the variety and excellence of its matter and the beauty and value of its illustrations. It contains the beginning of the very interesting story, "The Romance of a Rich Young Girl," by Octave Fuillet, author of "The Romance of a Poor Young Man," which was everywhere so deservedly popular, besides other interesting and instructive reading matter. To get it address Pettingill, Bates and Co., 37 Park Row, N. Y. Terms $4 per annum in advance or ten cents per copy.

ADJOURNED COURTS.

It is ordered by the Courts, that Adjourned Courts for 1869, for the trial and decision of cases in the Common Pleas, Orphans' Court and Quarter Sessions, be held as follows:

FOR ARGUMENT.

One week commencing MONDAY, March 15th.
" " " June 21st.
" " " Sept. 20th.
" " " Dec. 20th.

To continue one week from said days respectively, and as much longer as the business may require. All cases on the list for argument in the Common Pleas will be taken up on the first days of the said terms and be proceeded with until disposed of, unless continued by consent or for cause shown.

The cases on the argument list for the Orphans' Court will be taken up immediately upon the cases in the Common Pleas having been gone through with.

The cases in the Quarter Sessions will be commenced after the cases in the Orphans' Court shall have been heard or continued. It is further ordered that the absence of counsel at the time appointed for hearing the cases mentioned in the preceding order, shall be no cause for suspending proceedings therein, unless by consent, or legal ground for a continuance be shown.

ADJOURNED JURY TRIALS.

One week commencing MONDAY, Feb. 1st.
" " " Feb. 15th.
" " " Feb. 22d.
" " " May 24th.
" " " May 31st.
" " " Aug. 30th.
" " " Oct. 18th.
" " " Oct. 25th.
" " " Nov. 29th.

And at such other periods as may be appointed by the said Courts, or at regular terms.

The foregoing to be published in all the newspapers in the city and county of Lancaster, by one insertion each, at the expense of the county. Bill to be presented at the Commissioners Office.

Court ordered defalting Jurors to be fined $15 [illegible]

THIS INFALLIBLE REMEDY does not, like the poisonous irritating snuffs and strong caustic [illegible] with which the [illegible] have long been [illegible]gged, simply palliate for a short time, or drive the disease to the lungs, as there is danger of doing in the use of such nostrums, but it produces PERFECT AND PERMANENT CURES OF THE WORST CASES OF CHRONIC CATARRH, as thousands can testify. "A COLD IN THE HEAD" is cured with a few applications. CATARRHAL HEADACHE is relieved [illegible]ed as if by magic. It removes Offensive Breath, Loss or Impairment of the sense of Taste, Smell or Hearing, Watering or Weak Eyes, and Impaired Memory, when caused by the violence of Catarrh, as they all frequently are. I offer in good faith a standing reward of $500 for a case of Catarrh that I cannot cure.

FOR SALE BY MOST DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE.

PRICE ONLY 50 CENTS.

Ask your Druggist for the REMEDY; but if he has not got it on sale, don't be put off by accepting any miserable worse than worthless substitute, but enclose sixty cents to me, and the Remedy will be sent you post paid.
