De leit doch im shtedde sin all uf der meang dos ich awfongs a moum bin fun means, korroekter an influence. Weil ich an United Shtates Government Officer bin, un kea wisny mea sauf, un gooty kleader draw, meana se ich wer goot ob, bet kea truvvel un bodderashun mea. Doh war der Shtatklupper bet mer den morya, un hut behaupt dos ich now de welt easy memma kennt, un wuhsht er hets aw so goot we ich. Awer now for des ding recht tsu fershten, mus ich der explaina uf was dos mer ous sin. De bricka jobs dohi in County sin ous g'shpeelt, secht der George, weil de Tschingta so a feerdeivelly fuss derweya g'macht hen. De cantsich chance dos mer hen for des ding bezawia macha is wann mer unser monn secura kenna—anyhow eaner—for in de Sennawt tsu gea, un noch eaner for in de Semly, for uf seller weck, secht er, hen mer aw gooty un solidy footing, un kenna so karls we seller Shtate Tresherer uf socka macha fun we se de surplus fund heasa—des gold wu uf hond is in der Treshery, du weasht. Eans fun unser party war seller wu der Fret heasa, wu ols Shreef war doh de yohr, un de balance wu uf unser side warn hen hinrich cam g'stonna, so dos mer se abeer gor net seana hut kenna weil der Fret so gross is. Awer, se wahra true blue, un hen olly mohli gevoto exactly we der George es hut hawa wella.

Ea ding hen se gedu dort, secht der George, dos cam gor de g'foll, un sell is so a regulation dos de kondidawta a recht sella hawa leit tsu pointa for de lekshun officers tsu watcha, so dos se kea extra tickets in de box nei duwa, un aw net meaner votes nunner shreiva dos voters sin. Our Little Jokes.

To ascertain the weight of a horse, put your toe under his foot. Does a man consider a woman a poem because she is a verse to him? I have very little respect for the ties of this world," as the chap said when the rope was put around his neck. An editor out West says, if "time is money," he is willing to exchange a little of his for cash. The man who declared that matrimony is a cage in which two people voluntarily imprison themselves, is a cruel wretch.

A married lady, being asked to give the following sensible and appropriate answer: "No, thank you, sir; I have hugging enough at home." Stiggins, the new married man, says his wife is a perfect rose. The only drawback to his happiness is that she perhaps blows out a "leete" too often. "Won't that boa constrictor bite me?" said a little urchin to a showman. "Oh! no, boy, he swallows his wittles whole."

A hotel landlord in California saves the expense of a gong by keeping a dog. The weight of the landlord on the dog's tail causes the animal to howl sufficiently loud to waken all the guests. A luscious correspondent of a Philadelphia paper says: "Miss Anthony has never tasted the sublimity of motherhood. She has never bathed in that immeasurable sea of glory whose waves touch the gates of Paradise." Mary Magdalene had seven devils cast out of her. I never heard of a man having seven devils cast out of him," growled a cynical bachelor in the course of a discussion on the woman question. "No, they are not cast out yet, I believe," was the quiet response of his fair antagonist.

The landlady of a hotel said to a boarder, "Look o'here! I want you to pay your bill, and you must! I have asked you often enough for it, and I tell you don't leave the house until you have paid it." "Good!" said the lodger; "I'll stay with you as long as you live." They tell a story about a man out West who had a hair-rip, upon which he performed an operation himself by inserting a piece of chicken flesh. It adhered and filled up admirably. This was all well enough, until, in compliance with the fashion, he undertook to raise a moustache, when one side grew hair and the other fathers.

A negro preacher was recently baptizing some of the female portion of his congregation, when by accident he held one of them a minute too long under water, causing her death. Upon discovering that she was no more he exclaimed in the language of Scripture: "The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away"—pass on another lady. A preacher was picturing to an old sinner on his death-bed the glories that awaited him if he would repent. He promised among other things that he should soon be an angel. "Don't talk that way to me, please, parson," said the dying man, "if there is anything I have a horror of, it is of being an angel sitting on a damp cloud picking a harp by moonlight."

A farmer who had engaged the services of a son of the Emerald Isle, sent him out one morning to harrow a piece of ground. He had not worked long before nearly all the teeth came out of the harrow. Presently the farmer went out into the field to take notes of Pat's progress, and asked him how he liked harrowing. "Oh!" replied Pat, "it goes a bit smoother now since the pegs are out." A gentleman standing in a crowd felt the pressure of two feminine feet upon his patent leathers. At first the sensation was delightful; but soon the pressure began to feel the least bit uncomfortable. "Madam," he gently suggested, "you are standing on my feet." "Your feet, sir?" "Yes, Madam."

"Goodness! beg your pardon, sir; I thought I was standing on a block of wood; they are quite large sir!" "Quite; but you covered 'em, Madam!" A Connecticut editor has become envious of the inventor of an improvement on some of his patent crochets, and discharges courses as follows: "After all, how very human this weakness of small jealousy in almost everybody has it more or less. That's what ailed Cain; it disturbed the patriarchs and kept letting down the prophets; it crops out frequently in politics—more often, perhaps, in the army; it infects the festive fire company; it disturbs the rural militia; it creeps occasionally into the pulpit, and always blossoms in the choir."

THE DEMOCRATIC WHEEL HORSES AFTER ASA'S FODDER.

NEIGHBORING COUNTY NEWS.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY.—Last February the ticket office at Perkiomen Junction was entered and robbed, and the three thieves though captured, managed to escape from the constable in Philadelphia, while on their way to jail. One was recaptured a few days ago and consigned to jail. William Neal was drowned in the Schuylkill river, at Port Kennedy, Montgomery county, on Sunday morning last while bathing. A number of cows belonging to Allen Wells, near Pottstown, broke out of the pasture field, on Friday evening last, and got upon the railroad track, and a coal train ran into them, killing a very fine cow and also injuring another.

YORK COUNTY.—A boy named Gotwald was bitten by a mad dog in York last week and died, and a lad named Smyser was injured by a kick from a horse. The extension of Rev. Lilly's church is being pushed forward with despatch. Jacob Gipe, from Conewago twp., was kicked by a mule and the bones of his leg fractured. CHESTER COUNTY.—A dog supposed to be mad, was killed in North Coventry, near Pottstown. The ladies of the Brandywine Baptist church will hold a Harvest Home, in the Grove at Brandywine Summit Station. Catharine Stewart, aged 45, who resided in a frame house above Leiperville, near Deshong's Quarry, feeling unwell, went up stairs to lie down upon a bed, and while there, a blast was made in the quarry, and a stone weighing twenty-five pounds came in through the roof and struck the woman on the breast, killing her instantly. A daughter of Mr. Davis, residing at Slate Hill, near the Spread Eagle Hotel, died from hydrophobia on Monday of last week. She was bitten in the finger by a dog nine weeks ago. A drinking fountain is to be erected in front of the Court House, West Chester.

BERKS COUNTY.—D. Schmeck was arrested and bound over to answer a charge of stealing a watch from Joseph Schober, of Molltown. John Unsitt, residing in North Twelfth street, Reading, was arrested on a charge of shooting and slightly wounding a little child. Although the evidence was very clear that the shooting was accidental, he was bound over by Ablerman Shoener to answer at Court. Spitting tobacco juice on ladies' dresses is the latest amusement of young men in Reading. The planting mill of Messrs. Gneff & Myers at Second and Cherry-sts., Reading, was totally destroyed by fire on Saturday morning last. The employees lost all their tools, and a number thrown out of employment. The St. Paul's Roman Catholic Parish School, on Walnut Street above Ninth, Reading, was dedicated on last Sunday. John Ehring, of Reading, was arrested a few days ago for keeping a disorderly house, keeping a drinking house without license, keeping a gambling house, selling liquor on Sunday and committing an assault and battery with intent to kill upon Mrs. Hannah Gans. An unknown German, while bathing in the Schuylkill, near Jackson's Lock, Reading, was drowned on Monday last. The Rail Road from Tipton to Port Clinton, via Kutztown and Hamburg, is progressing rapidly. The coming session of the Keystone Normal School, at Kutztown, will open on the 9th of August.

Medical. DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY. THIS INFALLIBLE REMEDY does not, like the poisonous irritating snuffs and strong caustic solutions with which the people have long been unbeneficially supplied for a short time, or drive the disease to the lungs as there is danger of doing in the use of such nostrils, but it produces PAINFUL AND PERMANENT CURES OF THE WORST CASES OF CHRONIC CATARRH, as thousands can testify.
