SYBIL'S LOVERS. CONCLUDED. Mr. Bunker handed over the ten dollars extra without a word.

Mr. Bunker returned to dinner, Sybil was there, smiling and lovely as Peri.

Mr. Bunker secretly apprehensive that he was about to be conducted to see all the babies asleep, a sight dear to the maternal heart.

Mr. Bunker stared silently. "Cashmere shawl, five hundred dollars; black-thread, three hundred; white lama, seventy-five; three lace parasols, forty; the dress white silk, two fifty; opera-hat, from Madame D'Etoile, sixty; ermine fur, fifty; mink set, one hundred and twenty. Not a bad beginning, eh?"

Madison Avenue, or Gramercy place, at the very least. Mr. Bunker made no reply; he simply opened his mouth and shut it mutely, like a fish in the agonies of a deficient respiration.

Next day but one the sly matron hinted to Mr. Bunker that Sybil was delicate, and that a month in Washington every winter, and a month in Saratoga every summer, was just what she needed to build her up.

"I'm so glad on that account that she's going to marry rich," sighed Clara, with a gold-mounted cigarette in her nose.

"Glad to see you again, Bunker," cried the paternalistic, with a squeeze of the hand.

"Who are the Democratic candidates?" said an enthusiastic Democrat, "Packer, and Price? Two hundred thousand dollars, said the Cass man from Harrisburg."

THE EDITOR OF THE Bedford Gazette gives notice to its Democratic patrons that its money he wants. Never mind, Packer's financial committee will be around shortly and make your heart glad.

THE BEAVER Radical says the sturdy sons of Pennsylvania will not bow down before the golden image which has been set up before them; they will not fall down and worship Mr. Asa Packer, the golden calf of the Democracy.

AN EXCHANGE SAYS: "Asa Packer has still in his possession the very harness which covered his boat-horse of former days." We advise him to keep it oiled up and in good repair, as he will need it to make that little excursion up Salt River next October.

THE OHIO Democrats are in a sad plight over the declination of Rosecrans. If they could only improvise a twenty millionaire now, they could at least keep up appearances until the first-class whaling takes place in October.

THE new Democratic war cry—millions for party votes, not one cent to pay off the national debt.

ASA PACKER belongs to the coal monopolists, one of a class to whom the people are now paying tribute in the advanced price of coal.

INSTEAD of asking for the market value of votes for Packer, the people are beginning to ask the price of coal. A very serious question to the Packerites!

ASA PACKER thanks the Democracy in his letter of acceptance for the nomination "tendered" him. That's a new name for a hundred thousand dollar purchase.

WHO are the Democratic candidates? said an enthusiastic Democrat, "Packer, and Price? Two hundred thousand dollars, said the Cass man from Harrisburg."

ROSECRANS and Hancock won't train in the Democratic party. Both are fortunately each blessed with memory and conscience, and these will forever keep them from running on Democratic tickets.

TWO Democratic victories—The late massacre of negroes at Mobile and on a western river boat. For the "white man's party"—it is such a just, humane, enlightened, Christian institution!

THE fact is not generally known that our Federal securities are worth to-day at least $250,000,000 more than they were worth the day our President was inaugurated, and are advancing at the rate of ten or fifteen millions a week.

THE BEAVER Radical says the sturdy sons of Pennsylvania will not bow down before the golden image which has been set up before them; they will not fall down and worship Mr. Asa Packer, the golden calf of the Democracy.
