They also recommend the erection of a new barn on the Poor House property, and the placing of blinds in the windows of the new Hospital building. They recommend the erection of steps on the west side of the Court House, leading to Court Avenue. They return their sincere thanks to, and express their "high appreciation" of the Court and the District Attorney, for the many acts of courtesy received at their hands, and to Sheriff Frey, who they describe as a "very gentlemanly, most able and efficient officer, who has filled the office with so much credit to the county!"

THE following editorial notice appears in "The Advocate," which is the organ of the Methodist E. Church in Buffalo:

"CATARRH REMEDY.—We think we do the public a favor, by calling the attention of those afflicted with catarrh, to the remedy advertised in our columns, as "Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy." A son of ours has been seriously afflicted with catarrh for several years, and having tried various remedies without success, we began to fear that in his case there was no cure. But a few months' use of the above medicine has entirely removed all traces of the disease.

"We write the above not for pay, but for the information of those afflicted, and as an act of justice to those by whom we have been benefited."

It is sold by druggists for fifty cents.

PERIODICALS.

☞ "THE LADY'S FRIEND," for September, has a handsome steel engraving of Portia, the heroine of the "Merchant of Venice;" this is followed by the usual large and brilliant fashion plate, and by engravings of fashions for dresses, &c. The literary matter is highly interesting, and the magazine deserves an extensive circulation. Published at $2 50 a year, by Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut Street, Philadelphia.

☞ "PETERSON'S MAGAZINE," for September, is on our table. It contains a very beautiful engraving, entitled "At the Falls," which is followed by a colored fashion plate of great beauty.—There are many other engravings, as designs for fancy work, &c. The reading matter is quite interesting. Terms, $2 a year in advance. Published by Charles J. Peterson, 806 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

POLITICAL.

Legislature.

As there is a popular feeling throughout the county to send none but honest men to the Legislature, permit me to recommend for that office Dr. E. B. HERR, of Indiantown district as a man of that class. Elect him, and all who know him will assure you there will be no reason to regret the choice you made.

HONESTY.

☞ Vote for HENRY S SHENCK for Register.

For Register—Jeremiah Rohrer.

The most prominent amongst the many candidates for Register of Wills, is Maj. Jeremiah Rohrer, of Lancaster city. He is deserving the suffrages of every man in the county. He was a true and faithful soldier of the Union army, who left family, friends and home to face the rebel cannon.

Martin S. Fry is the Thug candidate, and is supported by the ring with all their power, influence and money. If you wish to beat Fry, don't scatter the vote, but go solid for Major Rohrer, as the contest is now narrowed down to these two candidates.—Columbia Spy.

Register of Wills—Henry Bechtold.

Mr. Editor: I noticed a communication in our county papers, a short time since, in regard to Mr Henry Bechtold, of Mount Joy, a candidate for Register of Wills. All contained in that communication I fully agree with. There is one feature, however, which was omitted, and which should be known by all voters, viz: "Mr. Bechtold is not a member of any clique, or connected with any combination." He enters the political arena depending upon his character as a man, for the support of the public. His moral character and business habits, with his knowledge of the English and German languages, merit the support of the public. JUSTICE.

For Register—Geo. W. Compton.

Messrs. Editors: It seems to have become a fixed fact that the most of the Republican party of this county have resolved to oppose at the coming primary election anything and everything in the shape of "cliques," "rings" or "factions." In order to do this effectually, they should unite their forces, and in solid phalanx go for the strongest candidate outside of the "cliques" and "rings." Having traveled through a majority of the districts in the county (though not politically) during the past few weeks, we find the sentiment of the people to be in favor of GEO. W. COMPTON for Register. While some of the other candidates may have strength in certain sections, he being the oldest candidate, has a general strength throughout the entire county in favor of his nomination. This being the case, he is therefore the strongest candidate, and the party should fix upon him as the candidate for Register, to break up the factions that have heretofore controlled our primary elections. The Prison Keeper.

We observe with great pleasure, that the persevering young gentleman, who for several years past has run the Lancaster County Prison so profitably to himself, is getting things "set up" so as to insure the re-election of his friends, Messrs. Sweigart and Sheaffer, whose terms as Inspectors expire with the present year.

Being able to build six houses, and offer $30,000 for a farm, $20,000 to be paid cash, out of the profits of three years prison keeping, would satisfy some people, but Levi's ambition is made of sterner stuff.

Former Keepers got twenty cents per day for boarding prisoners when provisions were quite as high as now—Levi barely contents himself with thirty cents, which an obliging Board of Inspectors very kindly allows him.

One more thing only is needed to secure his peace and comfort: he experiences some trouble every year in electing Inspectors whom he owns. We trust to see this remedied soon by some kind of legislation which will insure him the office for life. He would then hire out the potatoe harvest for the neighbors, without any of the trouble heretofore experienced in such operations.

Seriously, we ask the tax-payers whether they are willing to go on year after year, struggling under our enormous load of County tax, that this miserable tool of a corrupt clique may feed and grow fat, build houses and buy farms out of their hard earnings? If not, come out to the polls on the 28th inst., and let him and his pets feel your power. PATIENCE.

H. K. Stoner for County Treasurer.

To the Voters of Lancaster County.

GENTLEMEN: It is known to the voters of this county that I am a candidate for County Treasurer. It is also known to those who are acquainted with my political course, that I never identified myself with any political clique, but have acted according to the best of my judgment and voted for such men as I considered honest and best qualified for the positions. Some of my competitors, and some of the political wire-pullers, fearing that I would receive the nomination—the popular feeling being in opposition to "rings" and "set-ups"—about four weeks ago reported a fictitious "set-up" or "ring ticket," which was never intended to be voted for; and among the candidates named was myself for County Treasurer. My name was used in this connection to poison the minds of my friends, scatter my vote, and give strength to the real "ring" candidate. I was in hopes that all the Republican voters would see the trick prior to the primary election; but I find that some of my friends are not yet aware of the fact that it was but one of their political tricks to defeat me, as it was not intended for me to be voted for in that "set up."

I hereby pledge my word and honor that I belong to no clique or ring, and that I have never attended a secret political meeting, and that I have not approached or been approached either verbally or by writing, in regard to being connected with the reported "set-up," or "ring." The report that I am connected with it in any shape or form is a positive falsehood. I do appeal to the people of Lancaster county for their suffrage, and if elected, I will endeavor to discharge the duties of the office to the best interests of the citizens of Lancaster county.

Yours truly, H. K. STONER.

West Lancaster township.

—Since the above was written, I am informed that "short tickets" have been printed and put in circulation, containing my name. I hereby state that my name was printed on said tickets without authority or countenance from me.

H. K. STONER.

Attention Voters.

Now that rings seem to be the order of the day and nearly every candidate claims to belong to one or the other of the cliques, it behoves voters to examine closely the tickets they vote. I as one voter who am and always have been opposed to all such arrangements, got up to indirectly rob the tax payers of the County, wish to call the attention of the people to the fact, that Henry S. Kaufman, candidate for Treasurer is not and has never been connected with any ring or clique. The course he has pursued during the past week of political turmoil is a strong assurance, that he depends on his own merits alone for success, and that he intends to be nominated honestly and fairly or not at all. If so nominated his neighbors have no doubt but that he will discharge the duties of the office fairly and honestly to all. Having been always a strong, working Republican, and a strong, staunch old Jarry Clay Whig, we think his claims so strong on our party that the honest yeomanry of the Old Guard can do naught else than nominate him for the office, that we the old voters of East Hempfield twp ask for him.

AN OLD VOTER.

A Card from Mr. Sensenig.

LANCASTER COUNTY PRISON, August 23rd, 1869.

Messrs. Editors: Communications have appeared at different times in several of the Republican papers of this city charging that the management of the Prison during the last two years has been conducted extravagantly and even imputing dishonesty to myself. Knowing full well that my political enemies would seize upon any and every pretence to effect disastrously my political standing in the community, (as always has been and always will be the fate of those who serve in an official capacity,) I was prepared for it, and had made up my mind to take no notice of their attacks. I was not prepared, however, to have my reputation for honesty assailed. I thank God that I have been reasonably well blessed with this world's goods and have in many of my ventures met with some pecuniary success, but I do not think that I should, on that account, be held up before the community as a dishonest official. What my financial transactions, outside of the trust committed to me, are and have been is no one's business but my own. I freely admit that as a public servant I am responsible, and the only charge made against me which I feel under any obligations to notice is that of having extravagantly managed the affairs of the prison during the last two years; and here let me state that if any of those self-constituted guardians of the people's (?) interest who have assailed me—not as they alleged in the interests of the tax payers, but to gratify their own selfish ends—would have procured copies of the Prison reports for any number of years back (which they easily could have done) their mouths would have been stopped. For upon a comparison of the receipts and expenditures of the last two years with those of the one immediately preceeding they would have seen, as I shall below show, that I have during the last two years saved the county the sum of $1,848.65 per year, making for both years a saving to the county of $3,897 30 over that of the year immediately preceeding. For how are we to ascertain whether or not, I am guilty of the charge imputed to me? Simply by a comparison of the receipts and expenditures of previous years with the receipts and expenditures of the years of my management. More money has been expended during the last two years than during some of the preceeding ones, for the following reasons:

First, the cells throughout the building had proved themselves insecure and were becoming more and more so every day. It was necessary to fix new improved doors to every cell; to clad some of them with iron and make many other necessary repairs. This was in part necessary for the purpose of safely holding long term convicts who had hitherto been kept in the penitentiary in Philadelphia, at a cost of forty cents per day, and whom the Inspectors desired to have retained her, which authority was given them by an Act of Assembly passed last winter. These usual expenses we shall designate in our statement below as extraordinary expenses.

Secondly, the number of vagrants committed to jail was much larger the last two years than for previous years. For these two reasons—the increase in the extraordinary expenses and the increase in the number of vagrants—the amount of money expended during either of the two last years will be larger than the one immediate preceeding, but by deducting these increases in the extraordinary expenses and the number of vagrants from the increased amount expended, it will appear as plain as a nose upon a man's face that in each year I saved the County the sum $1848.65, over the actual cost of the prison the year immediately preceeding.

EXPENSES FOR 1866.

Cash paid out		$27,466 85
Manufactured goods and raw materials on hand		5,396 78
Total		$32,863 63
Deduct goods sold	$16,618 57
" extraordinary expenses	791 50
" maintenance of vagrants	1,723 05
		$19,133 21
Amount of the actual cost of the prison for the year 1866		$13,730 42

EXPENSES FOR 1867 AND 1868.

Cash paid out for two years		$62,861 48
Manufactured goods and raw material on hand		7,218 02
		$70,079 50
Deduct goods sold, &c	$36,279 82
Extraordinary expenses	2,627 19
Maintenance of vagrants	7,408 95
		$46,315 96
Amount of the actual cost of the prison for the years '67 and '68		$23,763 54
The half of which will make the actual cost of each year, viz		11,881 77

We see above that the actual cost for the year 1866 was $13,730 42
From this deduct actual cost for the year 1867 11,881 77

This gives us the average saving for 1867 $ 1,848 65
Multiply this difference by 2

And it gives us the total saving of last two years over the one preceding $ 3,697 30

The above statements I hope will dissipate any apprehensions my friends may have felt for my reputation, and to the gentlemen who have been instrumental in endeavoring to raise a hue and a cry against me, I would respectfully refer for their consideration and meditation the statement of the year which I have selected as a comparison and during which they themselves had the honor to be members of the Board of Prison Inspectors. In conclusion, Messrs. Editors, permit me to state that ever since I have had charge of the Prison no prisoner has ever escaped which cannot be said of any of my predecessors.

I would further request the honorable gentlemen who are so sorely grieved because I am paid thirty cents per day for boarding prisoners, to point me and the public to any other Prison keeper in the State who is paid less.

Very respectfully,

LEVI SENSENIG,
Keeper of Lancaster County Prison.

PRIVATE SALE.

The subscriber offers at Private Sale his Farm, situated in West Fallowfield township, Chester county, two miles south of Penningtonville.

The Farm contains 114 acres of highly improved land, fenced off into convenient fields. There is about ten acres of woodland, and the rest is under a high state of cultivation.

The Buildings consist of a large convenient FRAME HOUSE, with KITCHEN attached, good STONE BARN 35 by 60 feet, with strawhouse attached, Wagon-house, Corn-crib, Cider-press, Ice-house and Hog-house, and other outbuildings, such as are usually connected with a first class farm. There is a well of excellent water near the door, with a pump therein and a vault connected. There is a good Apple and Peach Orchard on the farm, just coming into profit.

The Grounds around the House are nicely laid out, and planted with a choice variety of Fruit and Ornamental Trees, Shrubbery, &c., which conspire to make it one of the most desirable dwelling places in the country.

Persons wishing to purchase a good farm, in a good neighborhood, would do well to view the farm before purchasing elsewhere.
