Before day light on Saturday last two men called on the premises of Peter C. Ebersole, at Silver Springs, this county, and asked to be taken in. This was refused, and the men went away. A horse and wagon was found hitched near the house in the morning. This excited suspicion, and search being made, one of the men, named James A. Jenkins, one of the men, named James A. Jenkins, was arrested and committed to prison. The horse and wagon were stolen from F.C. Jordan, of Middletown.

James Carroll, was arrested on Saturday. For stealing a piece of cloth from the store of J. P. Myer, in this city. When asked what he had to say for himself, he stated that he had just this morning been discharged from prison; that he went to Alderman Wiley's and asked to he recommitted but that the and asked to be recommitted, but that the Alderman refused to entertain his proposition. He thought, therefore, that the easiest way to get "home" was to commit a theft, and he stole the goods with that object in view. He was sent "home."

Now is the time to prepare for the Christ-mas trade. We are ready to print circulars, invitations, cards, letter heads, &c., at the shortest notice, and the very lowest prices. The workmen at several of the furnaces about Marietta, on Saturday last, struck for an increase of twenty cents per day to their wages. The proprietors were compelled to yield to the demand, rather than allow their furnaces to chill, on the principle that "it won't do to swap horses while crossing a stream." The wages of the hands is now

$1.60 per day.

The bill against Robert Clarkson, formerly of this city, in the Philadelphia Court of Quarter Sessions, for larceny as bailee, was quashed by Judge Ludlow on Saturday last. Another bill, free from defects of the former was subsequently presented to the Grand. Jury, who returned it marked "True."

The large three-story frame building in Millersvile, owned by Henry Immel, and used as a vinegar manufactory, was destroyed by fire on Monday morning last. A large quantity of tobacco, belonging to Mr. Immel and Mr. J. Gerhart, which was in the building, was also destroyed.

Satisfactory bonds having been furnished to the government, the embargo upon the Bitters establishment of Dr. S. B. Hartman & Co., has been withdrawn, and it was re-opened for business on Monday last.

A fearful epidemic has been raging among the chicken tribe in parts of this county, and great numbers have died. We hear of one farmer, near this city, who has lost over a hundred. People who buy dressed chickens, should exercise great caution.

The cabinet shop of John Bastian, in Market street, Marietta, and the slaughter house of John Shillow, adjoining, were destroyed by fire on Saturday afternoon last. Mr. Bastlan's loss, including tools, was about 51200; Mr. Shillow's about $600.

51200; Mr. Shillow's about $600.

Francis Harnish, aged about 10 years, son of David W. Harnish, residing near Willow Street, fell from a wagon loaded with stone, while in motion, on Friday last, and was so reverely injured by having his collar bone crushed that he died on Sunday.

George H. Hartman, of this city. Was tried for assault and battery on Mrs. Hartman Horner. Her family occupied the second house of Lewis Hartman, the father of the accused, and the rent not being paid promptly, an attempt was made by the landlord to put the family out according to law. An altercation ensued, Mrs. Horner having hot water ready for defense. A torcible entrance into the house was eff-cted, and a scuffle ensued, during which the lady threw the contents of the house was eff-cted, and a scufile ensued, during which the lady threw the contents of a crock, containing a mixture of privy dirt and coal ashes upon George H. Hartman. He struck Mrs. H. with a stick, and, it was alleged, knocked her down. The evidence was very contradictory. The Court, in charging the jury, stated that a landlord had the right peaceably to enter his premises, but if he attempted force, the occupant had the right to resist such entrance: and entrance by breakresist such entrance; and entrance by breaking open a door or window was a breach of the peace. The jury returned a warder of the peace. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty, the costs to be divided between the

PERIODICALS.

PREESON'S MAGAZINE for December is on our table in advance. It is a splendid number, with two steel engravings, a mammoth fashion plate, a colored pattern in Berlin work, and nearly fifty wood ents. We do not wonder at the immense circulation of "Peterson"—said to be the largest in the world—for it really gives more for the money than any other. Every lady ought to subscribe for it. Its Mannoth Colored Fashion Plates are always the latest and prettiest. Its stories are the best published anywhere. In 1870, in addition to its usual quantity of short stories, Five Original Copy-Right Novellets will be given, among them "The Prisoner of the Bastile," by Ann's Stephens; "The Secret at Bartram's Holme," by Jane J. Austin; "How it Ended," by Frank Lee Benedict, &c. &c. Ao. About 1,000 pages of reading matter will be given in 1870, 12 Mammoth Colored Fashions and 14 superil Steel Engravings. The Magazine will be greatly improved. The terms, however, will remain two bollans a year to sin-le subscribers. To clubs it is cheaper still, viz.: four copies for $6.00, with a large engraving, (24 inches by 16,) "Our Father Who Art in Henven," as a premium to the person getting up a club; or eight copies for $10,00 than a vertra copy of the Magazine and the engraving, as premiums. We can speak, from personal knowledge, of the beauty of this Engraving. Now is the time to get up clubs for $70. Specimens of the Magazine sent gratis. Address, Charles J. Peterson, 303 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

Henry Stager was tried and found guilty of stealing a coat from A. G. Killiau, of Mount Vernon, in October, and sentenced to six months in County Prison.

Samuel Shroad, a special policeman in the city on Whit Monday, was tried for assault and battery on Moses Morris, colored, who he had arrested for riotous conduct. The jury found Shroad not guilty, but made him pay the costs. The witnesses for the defense testified that Shroad beat Morris in an inhuman manner, no doubt because he was a "nigger"—a class of people of whom Shroad and his brother copperheads have a great contempt, believing that they have no rights which a white man is bound to respect.

FAMILY SEWING MACHINES,

POINTS OF EXCELLENCE.

Beauty and Elasticity of Stitch.
Perfection and Simplicity of Machinery.
Using both threads directly from the spools.
No tastening of seams by hand and no waste of thread.
Wide range of application without change of adjustment.
The seam retains its beauty and firmness after washing and froning.
Besides doing all kinds of work done by other Sowing Machines, these Machines execute the most beautiful and permanent Embroidery and ornamental work.

The Highest Premiums at all the Fairs and exhibitions of the United States and Europe, have been awarded the Grover & Baker Sewing Machines, and the work done by them, wherever exhibited in competition.

The very highest prize, THE CROSS OF THE LEGION OF HONOR, was conferred on the representative of the Grover & Baker Sewing Machines, at the Exposition Universelle, Paris, 1867, thus attesting their great superiority over all other Sewing Machines.
