

NEARLY thirty millions of dollars worth of petroleum was produced in the Venango region last year.

We must not always speak all that we know—that were folly; but what a man says should be what he thinks, otherwise it is knavery. All a man can get by lying and dissembling is that he shall not be believed when he speaks the truth.—Montaigne.

THE order for the death warrants of Gottlieb Bohner and Albert Von Bordenberg, the murderers of the Peightal family near Huntingdon, was issued to the State Department by the Governor to-day. Wednesday, March 9, 1870, is fixed as the time of the execution.

—On Friday evening of last week the gases in the coal mine at Saw Mill Run, near Pittsburgh, ignited by a lamp, causing a terrific explosion. Five men and a boy were very seriously injured, but were promptly rescued by the outside workmen. Two of the injured men will probably die.

A COUPLE of unique medals, connected by a gold chain, were picked up by a farmer while building a fence at Lawrence, Kansas, the other day. One was stamped with the British coat-of-arms and a bust of George III., while the other has the inscription, "Second Presidency of George Washington. MDCCXCVI." Five hundred dollars has been offered for this medal.

THE new fifty cent notes, which we were told could not be imitated, have been counterfeited so accurately that the government officials cannot tell the difference between the spurious and genuine stamps. We allude to those with the Lincoln head; the flat has gone forth that they must all be called in, and no more stamps of that kind will be made.

THE total receipts of cotton at all the ports, to the latest date, foot up $489,804 bales, against 1,177,174 bales at the same time last year, showing an increase at the shipping points of 313,630 bales. The necessity to sell was not so urgent as last year. The South is manifestly on the highroad to permanent prosperity, and cannot long be impeded by Southern obstinacy or Northern folly.

THE old editor had a very clear idea of his vocation who advised an aspirant to editorial honors to write down what he had to say, then run carefully over it and strike out one-half, and thereafter reduce the remainder to one-third of its volume. Long speeches, long sermons and long editorials are nuisances which the people detest, and are generally only evidences of how much a man can write without meaning anything.

THE total production of anthracite coal last year was 13,221,389 tons, and of all kinds, semi-anthracite and bituminous on the Atlantic seaboard included, 16,339,014 tons, against 16,054,816 tons in 1868. Including the estimated production of 11,000,000 tons of bituminous coal in other sections of the Union, the total coal production in the United States in 1869 is put down at over 27,000,000 tons. The total consumption of coal in the United States in 1869 is estimated at little less than thirty millions of tons.

THE production of iron ore in Pennsylvania for the year 1869 has been as follows: The iron, 965,000 tons for 1869 against 872,000 tons in 1868; increase, 93,000 tons, the sales of the product being about $34,000,000 or very little beyond the lesser quantity of last year. From ores and bloomeries, 31,000 tons; rails, 280,000 tons; other forms of manufactured, 271,000 tons; increase, 31,000 tons. The added value on the manufactured article may be fairly estimated at $35,000,000 showing a total productive value of fully $69,000,000, with an increase in total quantity from 1,424,157 tons to 1,563,000 tons.

A serious stabbing affray occurred on Saturday evening last, at the hotel of Lelsey & Snyder, in West Cocalico-town, near Reams-town Station, R. & C. Railroad. A shooting match had taken place during the day, and in the evening an altercation arose about the manner in which it had been conducted. During the course of the dispute, a young man named Murr, struck several blows by another one of the party named Tacker, which was finally resented by the Murr knocking off Tacker's hat. Tacker then drew out a large dirk knife and made an effort to stab Murr, but struck a man named Lutz instead, inflicting a painful, yet not dangerous wound. Tacker then struck a second blow, this time rounding Murr in the left abdomen, causing a frightful gash six inches deep, causing the intestines to protrude. Physicians were immediately called in, who closed up the wound, but it is thought that the wound will most likely result fatally. Tacker has been arrested and committed to prison to answer at the next term of the Quarter Sessions.

NEEDS STAMPING.—Many persons suppose that after having received a letter addressed to some friend or acquaintance, all they have to do to make it reach the person (who has left the place in the meantime) is to change the address merely and drop it in the postoffice. The Postoffice Department has decided that all letters intended to be forwarded must, after having passed from the custody of the postoffice, be prepaid by stamps in the same manner as though the letters had never been taken in the mail. If they are not so prepaid they are held for postage and sent to the dead letter office as unpaid matter.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY is no Patent Medicine humbug gotten up to dupe the ignorant and credulous, nor is it represented as being "composed of rare and precious substances brought from the four corners of the earth, carried seven times across the Great Desert of Sahara on the backs of fourteen camels, and brought across the Atlantic Ocean in two ships." It is a simple, mild, soothing Remedy—a perfect specific for Chronic Nasal Catarrh, "Cold in the Head" and kindred diseases. Testimonials of R. V. PIERCE, M. D., of Buffalo, N. Y., offers a reward of $500 for a case of Catarrh that he cannot cure.
