COUNTY BIBLE SOCIETY: The time is drawing near when the annual meeting of the Society will be held. The statement of its transactions during the past year will then be presented to the public, and its financial account settled with the parent Society at Philadelphia. A large number of copies of the Sacred Word, in both English and German, have been disposed of in the county; for the zealous colporteur has been unceasing in his labors. This Society, which has deposited the Bible in so many families, and which thus plants the truth in the community, has great claims on the sympathy and aid of all Christians, and, indeed, of all who love their fellow-men.

The expenses of the Society cannot be met by the very small profit charged on the sales, for the books are sold at very near the first cost, and many are given as donations to the poor. The rich community in which this Society exists should enable it to meet its incidental expenses and, also, to extend a liberal aid to the parent Society to enable it to send the Bible to other places more destitute and less able to pay than we are.

Although the community is now appealed to in behalf of several deserving enterprises, it is to be hoped that the cause of the Bible Society will not be overlooked. Ministers and officials of the various Christian churches in our midst, should, at an early day, raise their respective contributions for the cause, so that they may be on hand before next Thanksgiving Day.

"STOP HIM! CATCH HIM!" Last Monday considerable excitement was created in Penn Square by the appearance of a countryman named Kempher, who was noisy, drunk, and who was running around hurrahing for "Horris Kreeley!" A crowd soon collected and in that crowd we saw a blue coated policeman, but notwithstanding this fact the drunken and reeling Kempher was allowed to run around, swearing and cursing. Again, about two o'clock this morning, the quiet of the night was disturbed by the same crazy fellow, and from the Mayor's office rushed the entire force of Blue coats, closely followed by Chief of Police, Schmitty. Here they found Kempher driving around the square like a madman, in a no-top buggy, and still shouting for "Kreeley!" Schmitty's form loomed up in the darkness and springing in the direction of the shouting and howling Kempher, he attempted to seize the bridle of the horse, but, alas! this was a futile attempt. The horse suddenly espied Schmitty and leaping to one side, he darted up North Queen street, incited to quicker exertion by a savage cut from his drunken driver. The officer quickly followed after, shouting "Shtop him! Catch him!" but the beast was too much for the angry Schmitty and soon he was lost to view. We understand that three charges will be brought against Kempher--for drunken and disorderly conduct, fast driving and cruelty to animals.

HON. WILLIAM PARSONS: This celebrated foreign lecturer will deliver the second lecture of the Home Course, at Fulton Hall, on Monday evening, the 11th inst. Mr. Parsons has several excellent lectures on general literary and biographical subjects, all of which have received flattering notices from the press wherever they have been delivered. The Bloomington, Ill., Pantagraph says of Mr. Parsons: "He is a rather fine-looking man, we should say more English than Irish in his personal appearance, and in speech seldom distinguishable from a very fluent and polished American. He speaks entirely without notes, and with great rapidity. The brilliant picture of the remarkable character who was the subject of the lecture Richard Brinsley Sheridan well repaid the attention it demanded. It was rather a series of sketches than a finished picture--each striking and effective, but without lengthened connection with the rest--touching particular features of the character and incidents in life of the subject, as lawyer, wit, dramatist, and parliamentary orator, votary of dissipation, and victim of penury, neglect, and disease, but giving no detailed account of his life, or elaborate analysis of his character."

THE NEW HOLLAND RAILROAD: The East Brandywine and Waynesburg Railroad Company have in process of construction an extension of their road, from Waynesburg, Chester county, its present terminus, by way of the Beartown and Russel iron ore mines to New Holland, a distance of ten miles. Over six miles are already graded, and arrangements have been effected to have the whole line ready for the superstructure by the first of April next. The completion of this road, by its connection with the Pennsylvania Central at Downingtown, will bring into direct communication with Philadelphia a rich, agricultural, and thickly populated section of this county, and by its intersection of the Wilmington and Reading Railroad, near Waynesburg, connection is made by railroad with Reading and the coal regions. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has shown an interest in this enterprise, and guarantee the first mortgage extension bonds, about to be issued, principal and interest, and further agree to receive them at par in payment for tracks or fare from any point on the East Brandywine and Waynesburg Railroad to all stations on their line of road.

List of unclaimed letters remaining in the Lancaster post-office, Nov. 4th, 1872:

Hornidge, Margie Kieffer, Phoebe E. Keemer, Sarah Kuhns, Anna L. Long, Lilley Townsend, Mary McKorkle, Catharine McCloud, Amanda Meckling, Eveline Singleton, Emma L. Wenger.

Gents' List: Samuel Arnold (2), John Boyce, J. H. Bernthouzel, A. Banker, B. L. Buterbaugh, A. Brubacker, Joseph Coffell, Harry Domer, Lewis Deardorff, William Harding, Philip Hottenstein, John Kauffman, W. C. Kurtz, I. N. Liner, John Maguire, Norman Martin, George D. Miller, Patrick Maher, M. K. McCary, J. Muroar, Ashton McCardell, J. P. Newpher, (3), Samuel Page, Isaac Ryen, J. H. Rhoyer, Christian Snavely, Adam Sharpf, W. H. Thurston, George Tryer, W. E. Worrell, Charles Waggoner, D. F. Young.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE: The Lancaster County Teachers' Institute will be held in the Court House, this city, next week, commencing on Monday. The sessions promise to prove of more than ordinary interest to teachers and all others interested in educational matters. Among the special features will be a lecture on Tuesday evening by C. J. Arms, esq., of Lewistown, Pa., on "Boys;" on Wednesday evening a lecture by Hon. John H. French, of Burlington, Vt.--subject not yet announced; on Thursday evening an elocutionary and musical entertainment; on Friday evening, a lecture by Rev. W. H. Warren, pastor of Broad and Arch street M. E. church, Philadelphia.--subject, "Forces in a Sunbeam." There will also be music each evening under the direction of Prof. Wm. B. Hall, of this city. The price of tickets for the course will be $1, and 35 cents for single admissions--to be had at the book and music stores.

FOR SALE CHEAP: Several white hats--also, an assortment of high-toned Democratic roosters. Apply at the Intelligencer office.

STONING A TRAIN OF CARS: The mail train east, which reaches this city at 9 o'clock, p. m., while making its trip on Monday, was stoned while coming through a town known as Conewago, a short distance this side of Elizabethtown. When the stones were found breaking and crashing through the windows of the cars the conductor immediately stopped the train, and a number of passengers, in addition to all the trainmen, alighted and scoured the woods in all directions, but no signs of any human beings were found. What possible reasons any person or persons could have for thus throwing stones at a passing train of cars and endangering the persons and lives of the passengers, it is impossible to conjecture. The rascals who committed the outrage, if caught, need expect no leniency at the hands of the law.

WASHING WOOLEN BED-CLOTHING: It is said by some, wash in warm water; by others, in cold water. We know that warm water will cause shrinking. A large, fine blanket washed at three different times, shortened six to seven inches each washing. In the centre it pulled up and made a shapeless thing. We were told to wash in warm water and rinse in water of the same temperature. It was done, and with perfect success. The blanket is even longer and more even. The shrinking seems to take place on the sudden change of the temperature from warm water to cold. The gradual cooling and drying afterward does not seem to have any effect.

LAST RALLY: The mass meeting on Thursday week which closed the campaign in this county cannot be recorded as a great success. Indeed, in the hour of rejoicing we can afford to admit that it was to some extent a "fizzle." The speech of Senator Scott was an excellent one, and Simon Cameron informed us that he had come to let us see him--for which privilege we are sufficiently thankful! The torchlight procession was not so large as several of its predecessors, but included a larger number of horsemen than either of them. But we can forgive those who didn't turn out, when we remember the 8000 majority in Lancaster county!

A BOLD ROBBERY: The house of George Eaby, in Rapho township, was entered by a thief or thieves, on Saturday night last, and robbed of ladies' and gentlemen's clothing apparel to the value of $100. The family of Mr. Eaby had retired, and the robbers conducted their operations altogether in the lower part of the house. Suspicion rests upon two old tramps who had been hovering around the neighborhood for a day or two previous to the robbery. A reward of $20 will be given for the arrest of the thieves and the recovery of the stolen property.

NEED LOOKING AFTER: The fire plugs throughout the city should all be carefully examined and repaired, before winter sets in, to see that they are in a proper condition for use.

CROW LUNCH at the Intelligencer office on Friday evening.

SOMETHING NEW: Call at Chas. A. Locher's Drug Store, Lancaster Pa., and get a sample bottle, Tree of Heaven, or Green's August Flower, the great cure for dyspepsia, and its effects, such as liver complaint, costiveness, headache, faintness, heartburn, pains in the side, dyspeptic colic and cough, biliousness, coated tongue, and two-thirds of the disease flesh is heir to. I will guarantee it to cure nine cases out of ten, if properly taken and permanent, with prudent living. We are flooded with certificates from patients cured, and doctors usher it in their practice. Try it. Regular size, 75 cents. Give one and take, and not a run blows.

DUTY OFF TEAS!

THE GREAT AMERICAN TEA COMPANY have business connections with all the principal ports of China and Japan, and Import their Teas direct from place of growth, thus saving the consumer from 5 to 8 profits. It is now about twelve years since the Company was organized--and it has been a splendid success from the very first. This was due to the fact that we imported and sold only and distributed them to our customers in all parts of the United States, for one small profit only, between the Tea-grower and the Tea-consumer. We originated the system of supplying consumers in distant parts of the country with Teas, at New York Cargo Prices, on the Club plan. And since we adopted this plan we have saved the people of this country MILLIONS OF DOLLARS annually in the cost of this article of everyday necessity.
