

GRAYBILL, DIETRICH, DEAN. It will be remembered that a man named Graybill, Dietrich was severely beaten on the morning of November 17th, 1872, near Water-street. Since the beating occurred, Dietrich has been lying at death's door, and on Saturday evening, December 7th, he breathed his last. Coroner Blair, yesterday, held an inquest over the body, and a post-mortem examination was made by Dr. Wm. Compton, assisted by Dr. John L. Atter, Sr., Dr. Amos K. Kohler, of Mountville, Ed. S. Gray and Dr. M. Davis, of Rohrestown. The Coroner's jury was composed of Messrs. Walter G. Evans, Jacob S. Smith, Jacob M. Shively, Andrew Berger and Adam B. Blair. After hearing all the evidence, and the post-mortem examination was over, a verdict was rendered "that said Graybill Swope Dietrich came to his death on Saturday evening, December 7th, from inflammation of the brain, resulting from a severe concussion of the brain, caused by being struck and thrown down by Henry G. Martin, on the Columbia turnpike, between the hotels of Christian Herr and Mrs. Barbara Hess, on Sunday morning, November 17th, 1872."

Martin was arrested by officers Roy and Seymour and brought to this city Monday afternoon. He was taken to the Police Jail, where he was held until the application was granted and bail asked and given to the sum of $10,000. B. Frank Eschman appeared for the defendant in this affair.

CHURCH DEDICATION: The new M. E. church at Washington borough, Lancaster county, Pa., was dedicated to the service of God on last Sabbath, Dec. 7, 1862. Revs. H. C. Smith, of Philadelphia, and J. C. Gregg, of Lancaster, preached on the occasion. The church is forty by fifty feet, a very neat and well-finished church indeed, which reflects great credit upon the pastor, Rev. T. M. Jackson, who is a young man of promise. The little society of members have done nobly, and deserve great credit. All the money needed to erect the church of debt, was obtained in money and by subscription. Rev. H. C. Smith and Rev. J. C. Gregg conducted the collections in a very efficient manner, assisted by the working pastor of the church. Therefore the 8th day of December, 1872, will be remembered in Washington as a day of success, although the weather was quite unfavorable. The church was dedicated by Rev. Smith, assisted by his brethren, at the close of his evening discourse.

THE CHILDREN: When providing your supply of reading for next year do not forget the children. They need a weekly paper as well as the older folk. Nothing better can be found for them than the weekly Harper's Weekly, Harper's Bazar, which is designed especially for them. It is edited by T. G. G. Fisher, A. M., a teacher in the Chicago High School, and has among its contributors some of the best writers of the country, such as Rev. Alden, Pres. of the N. Y. State Normal School, Prof. Sanford Tenney, of Williams College, Mrs. A. E. Sherwood, Mrs. Anna Clayton, Amelia E. Doherty and others. It is designed to interest as well as instruct, and is such a paper as any parent or teacher may give to his children or pupils, assured that they will be benefited by it. It is furnished at the low price of $1.00 per year, and every subscriber receives a handsome Chromo, the Calla Lilies. Published by the Bright Side Co., Chicago.

COMPLIMENTARY: A correspondent writes in the following complimentary terms of two well-known citizens: "The musical entertainment given by Prof. Hall and Miss Bare, on last Thursday evening in the Town Hall at Marietta, was a rich treat and a grand success. While the hall, on account of its low ceiling, is poorly fitted for the display of a perfect sound, yet Miss Bare, with her sweet melodious voice, and Prof. Hall, with his round mellow tones, perfectly delighted the audience, which was composed of those who could appreciate such an effort. The selections were fine—just such as suited our intelligent audience."

BURIED ALIVE: Jacob Kautz, a young man of family, employed in the brickyard of Mr. Henry Gontz, Millersville turnpike, was buried up to his head on Monday afternoon by the caving in of a clay bank in the brickyard, which he and a number of other workmen were undermining. He was dug out with a good deal of difficulty and taken to his home, where he lies in a critical condition from internal injuries received. He is attended by Drs. Herr and Ehler.

THE PUREST AND SWEETEST COLD-LIVER OIL is Hazard & Caswell's, made on the sea shore, from fresh selected livers, by Casswell, Hazard & Co., New York. It is absolutely pure and sweet. Patients who have once used it prefer it to all others. Physicians have decided it superior to any of the other oils in the market.

CHAPPED HANDS, face, rough skin, pimples, a tingling, salt-herm, and other cutaneous affections cured, and the skin made soft and smooth, by using the Juniper Tar Soap, made by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York. Be certain to get the Juniper Tar Soap, as there are many worthless imitations made with common tar.
