

Lancaster Intelligencer.

SATURDAY EVENING, JAN. 3, 1880.

If He Must, He Will.

It seems well-nigh an impossibility to convince the mind of man that anyone who has a chance to achieve the presidency of the United States...

PERSONAL.

Queen Victoria's warmest friends are Dean Stanley, the Dean of Windsor and Principal Tulloch, editor of Fraser's Magazine.

Mr. FRANCIS E. SHRODER attained his majority yesterday and the event was duly celebrated at the residence of his father, East Orange street...

The receipt of numerous papers with "marked" recommendations of the Indiana English for vice president leads us to suspect that W. H. E. has established a literary bureau to keep his boom booming.

Senator CHANDLER'S will has at last been discovered among the papers of the late Judge Edmunds, of Washington. It has just been admitted to probate.

Up in Luzerne county it is beginning to be understood that Judge HARDING, who retired from the bench of the Eleventh district a few days ago, will be a candidate for the seat in the United States Senate...

A number of members of Congress, in drawing their monthly pay, protested against accepting 10 per cent. of their salaries in standard silver dollars...

S. H. REYNOLDS, Esq., of this city, who has been for months retained and active in conducting the Curtin-Yocum congressional contest, will leave Lancaster on the 7th inst., for Washington...

CONKING had arranged to go to Cuba with Grant, but the change in the programme compelled him to remain in Washington. When Grant heard of it he exhibited symptoms of the liveliest regret...

Mr. SEYMOUR ranks to-day as the most scholarly, the most comprehensive, the most finished of living American orators, on special occasions. He has grown much, and is a far greater man than when he was governor of this state.

Mrs. HAYES'S attire at the New Year reception at the White House will be matter of interest to female readers. Her dress was of white broadcloth, wrought with gold threads.

But it will not jump the traces. The Republicans of Pennsylvania are now asked to go back upon their record and trample upon "the unwritten law of the republic," sanctioned by the example of Washington and our patriotic fathers...

The present vacancies, however, are not caused by any such high patriotism as would induce appointments to decline filling them because they could not serve their country. The private reasons which compelled Mr. Welsh to resign, were doubtless good and true.

MINOR TOPICS. The Pirates of Penzance threaten to capture and sink the Pinafore. The statistics of the Baptist church in Pennsylvania for 1879 show the total membership to have been 64,845, which is 1,356 more than 1878.

The Queen of England has presented an organ to the church on Pitcairn's Island, in the Pacific, and the first air played upon it after it had been put in place was "God Save the Queen."

On the recent occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the feast of the immaculate conception, Pope Leo received in special audience a body of Italian pilgrims numbering over 600, and in reply to an address presented him delivered a speech defining the dogma.

In his prayer meeting talk last night Talmage pronounced Governor Garcelon "from personal knowledge" to be "as pure a man as can be found in public life."

A WRITER in the Christian Intelligencer speaks of Robert Bonner as "the enterprising editor who introduced Edward Everett, Dr. Tyng and Sylvanus Cobb to the American public, and got Henry Ward Beecher to dance a literary hornpipe in the clogs of a novel writer."

A COMMITTEE of Ursinus college, Montgomery county, met a committee of Palatine college, Meyerstown, at the First Reformed church, Reading, yesterday, to consider the question of the consolidation of the two collegiate institutions.

1880 will be celebrated as the semi-centennial of the organization of the eldership of the Church of God. In 1830 Elder John Winchbrenner was settled as pastor of the German Reformed congregation of Harrisburg.

Mr. BECKER says: "Of course, young people ought to marry; it is intended that they should according to nature. But love always must be tempered with prudence, and it is all the better—and very much better—if both love and prudence be tinged with religion."

Blowers vs. Bellows. The important question as to whether a blower or a bellows furnishes the best power for forcing air into the blacksmith's fire is not yet settled, and probably never will be to the satisfaction of everybody.

Immense quantities of war material have been sent by way of Odessa for a new expedition to Mexico. Harris's cotton warehouse, on Buchanan's wharf, Baltimore, burned last night with all its stock.

The St. Petersburg Golos protests against the recent attempt on the Czar's life being made an excuse for reactionary measures. In County Line, N. J., Martin Nugent, a telegraph operator, shot himself and was found dead on Wednesday evening.

In Freeport, L. I., Bergen Smith, eighteen years old, stabbed Melvin Smith four times. They had quarreled several times during the day. A fire in the dry goods and carpet house of M. Huff & Co., Quincy, Illinois, damaged the stock $10,000 to $15,000 and the building $11,000.

The first collision between the striking stock yards men of Chicago belonging to the union and the non-union men occurred yesterday morning, the assault being made by the former, who dispersed the workmen by means of missiles, but without serious consequences.

A quarrel arose between John Schilling, a respectable German, and a negro named Johnson, at a dance in Allegheny, N. Y., on New Year's eve, when the latter drew a knife and stabbed the German a short distance above the heart.

The vicennial assessment in Allegheny county has reduced the valuation about $40,000,000. Dr. Luther, agent of the state board of charities, approves of the tramp act and says it is of great benefit.

Augustus Williams, who was injured by the fall of the roof of the Edgar Thompson steel works, in Pittsburgh, on Sunday has since died. The Allegheny Jail has changed hands and henceforth its editorial and business department will be under the charge of Edward B. Haines, late editor and proprietor of the daily and weekly Banner, of Williamsport.

At a meeting of the Western iron association at Pittsburgh, yesterday afternoon, it was decided to raise the coal rates on bar iron to 3 1/2 cents per pound on and after Monday next. This will also increase the wages of puddlers.

Among our lecturers, writes Mr. Congdon in the Tribune, is Rev. John Pierpont, who came down from Boston to expound to us the mysteries of phrenology. He died not long ago, a wonderfully well-preserved old man, considering all the trials and troubles through which he passed.

Yesterday, before Judge Pearson, evidence was heard on the part of the commonwealth in the case of A. W. Leisinger, of Mauch Chunk, charged with corrupt solicitation. Some of the attorneys from a distance (for and against the commonwealth) were not present.

The Proceedings are printed in size and style uniform with the School Journal. The star list includes one hundred and thirty stars and some forty constellations, etc., prepared by Mr. McCaskey for the special use of teachers and pupils who are now giving attention to this grand science in all parts of the county.

Johnny Diehm in Jail. Johnny Diehm, who for some years past has almost passed out of sight, has turned up again in a rather unenviable light. The Political Candidate. It boils furiously in view of the organization of the poor house and prison boards on Monday, and the great scramble for the petty places in their dispensation. The Hog Ring, having captured the prison will make a clean sweep of the understrappers there; even the devoted head of Doctor Compton, who has been physicking the prisoners for sixteen years out of the last twenty, must fall into the basket.

The Poultry Show. Everything has now been nicely arranged in the rooms in Locher's building in which the poultry show is being held, and the exhibition is floating on in the full tide of success.
