HOG RING VS. BULL RING. Parting the Political Raiment---Apportio

For a month past the small politicians have been exercised about the distribution of the spoils in the organization of the prison and poor house boards. It will be remembered that at the last primary election the Hog ring elected Amos Rutter and John Horting, prison inspectors who go in to-day vice I. H. Shaeffer and Joseph Samson, Bull ringers, who go out. This makes the board stand four Hog ringers to two Bull ringers, and gives the former complete control faction "solid" they have caucussed for par. several weeks and have had great difficulty in satisfying the numerous claimants of their faction. The clerkship has been successively promised to John Baker, Amaziah C. Barr and Jere Cooper, of Bart, but finally a boss Hog ringer said it must be Cooper and it will be. For the other positions there has been a lively scramble, the only thing certain up to this morning having been that there would be a clean sweep of the present incumbents, but their succession is certain not to be fixed without exciting some bad blood among the Hog ring advanced aged of 77 years. She was well aspirants. They say Dr. Compton might have saved his hair if he had not stuck to Joe Samson.

The new board met and organized by the election of John H. Miller, president, Amos Rutter, secretary, and Jac. Wolff,

The offices of cigar boss and matron were abolished, and the following reduction of salaries took place: Clerk, from $800 to $720; first and second underkeepers, from $900 and $720 to $660 each. watchmen, from $650 to $576; shoe boss. from $650 to $520; baker, from $456 to

The board then adjourned until after dinner After dinner the officers were elected as follows: Clerk—Jeremiah Cooper. First Underkeeper—Not filled. Second Underkeeper—Albert Murr.

Watchmen-Benj. Rohrer, W. Lampe-ter; W. L. Houck, Manheim. Boss Shoemaker-Jacob Flick, city, Baker-Geo. Ehrman. Solicitor-W. F. Bever. Physician-M. L. Herr. Messenger-Henry Cooper. At the Poor-House

At the last election the Bull ring elected Overholtzer to the poor-house board and the Hog ring re-elected Shultz, which made the board stand 3 to 3, but as the Hog ring had previously had control the tie was in their favor and "no election" is as good for them as a victory. There was no change there, except the list of physicians, which stood before as follows: Drs. Ehler, A. J. Herr, Bolenius and Roland. Drs. Thos. B. Cox and H. E. Muhlenberg were elected instead of Drs. Herr and Roland.

The entire organization at the almshouse was as follows: President—D. B. Land

Superintendent-B. F. Cox. Steward-John Brock. Treasurer—George, Spurrier. Solicitors—Owen P. Bricker and Chas.

I. Landis: tie vote. Farmer—Isaac Zimmerman. Engineer—Taylor L. Schuler. Baker-Lewis Kohlhaas.

Doctors-J. A. Ehler, R. M. Bolenius Thomas B. Cox and H. E. Muhlenberg. Moral Instructor-John Swenck. The Politicians.

The organization of these boards brought quite a number of politicians to town this morning, and there was a good deal of chaffing about the hotels and on Barbary Coast. On the presidential question Bull ringers were found generally for Grant, and Hog ringers for Blaine. It seems to be conceded that no primary election will be called to choose state or national delegates, and that the county committee will select them in the Cameron interest.

Recorder's Office. John P. Good, county recorder elect, took possession of his office this morning. He retains as his clerk Mr. M. V. B. Keller. As deputy recorder he has appointed Maj. C. H. Fastnacht, vice A. C. Barr removed. Mr. Good and both his deputies were soldiers of the Union during the late war.

Of Mr. A. C. Barr, the retiring deputy, who was in the office for the past seven years, it must be said that he was an obliging, courteous and efficient officer, thoroughly posted in all the duties pertaining to the office.

The County Solicitor. Hugh R. Fulton, esq., the county solicitor-elect, entered upon the duties of his office this morning, succeeding J. Hay Pills." Try them. Brown, esq., whose term has expired.

HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI.

A Project on Foot to Secure a General Organization of the Graduates. An effort is now making, and with fair prospect of success, to establish an "A!umni Club," composed of graduates of the male high school in this city. A number of young gentlemen have taken hold of the matter, and for some weeks past been energetically canvassing the sentiment of graduates of the school and have succeeded in arousing a lively interest, which encourages the belief that the movement will result in a success-Several individual classes of the school have perfected organizations, whose annual reunions have from time to time been noted in our columns, and it is proposed to secure the co-operation of as many graduates of the school as can be brought to favor the idea, organize them into a body, to be known as the "Alumni Club of the school." All Coughs, Croup, Asthma and Bronchitis yield at once, hence it is that everybody speaks in its praise. To those who have not used it, let us say, if you have a cough, or your child the cough, and you value life, don't fail, to try it. For lame back, side or chest use shiloh's Porous Plaster. Death of an Estimable Lady.

In our death column is recorded the death of Mrs. Catharine Keyser, at the known in a large circle of friends, by whom her decease is greatly deplored. Although for a number of years before her death she was greatly afflicted with paralysis, she bore her suffering with that calmness and trust in her Maker which characterized all her actions during her life. Solemn high mass will be celebrated at St. Joseph's Catholic church tomorrow morning at 8:30, and her burial will take place at St. Jeseph's cemetery.

= To-morrow Night's Show.-The variety show to-morrow evening is one of the best. The four leading men have appeared in all the cities of this country, and their reputations for first-class artists are very good. The prices are extremely low.

Kate Claxton To-night.-The gifted and pop ular young actress, Miss Kate Claxton, supported by her own excellent company, including Mr. Stevenson and Miss Margaret Cone, will appear at Fulton opera house to-night in the new play especially adapted for her by Charles Reade, "The Double Marriage," Our people have seen and admired Miss Claxton's realistic work as the blind girl of "The Two Orphans," and competent dramatic authority accords to her rendition of the heroine of the Double Marriage" the same degree of histrionic art.

The following article was voluntarily sent to Mr. H. E. Slaymaker, Agent for Reigart's Old Wine Store, by a prominent practising physician of this county, who has extensively used or all their ills and aches. Be it, however, strictly understood that we prescribe and use but one article, and that is; as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preference over all other Brandies, no matter with how many jaw-breaking French titles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impotent dyspepsia specifics would suffice to buy all the Brandy to cure any such case or cases. In proof of the curative powers of

Reigart's Old Brandy,

In cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon numbers of witnesses—one case in particular we cite:—

A hard-working farmer had been afflicted with an exhaustive Dyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour eructations constantly—uo appetite—in fact, he was obliged to restrict his diet to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used McGrann's Root Beer. He is a Methodist, and then, as now, preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed earnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try

Reigart's Old Brandy,

In his case, he looked up with astonishment but after hearing of its wonderful effects in a stomach capable of digesting anything which he chose to cat. He still keeps it and uses a lit-tle occasionally; and since he has this medicine he has been of very little pecuniary bene fit to the doctor.—A Practising Physician.

Even after the doors had yielded the unfortunates could not be reached, as the flames swept up the broad and only stairway. The firemen went to the roof of the adjoining house, hoping to release the imperiled people by means of the scuttle to the building in which they were confined. It is morally certain Abdul Khaman will join with him. In this fact lies Abdul Khaman's importance and his value to Russia depends on the same circumstance.
