SATURDAY EVENING, JAN, 17, 1880. THE OLD METHODIST'S TESTIMONY.

PHIL J. BULL. I praise the Lord, my Christian friends, that I am with you still, Though standin' like an old log-house upon a west side hill; The music has gone out you know; the tim. bers have decayed; But sunshine on 'em's just as warm as when they first was laid. Almost a hundred years have passed since l was born, and then 'Twas only fifteen further on, and I was born

I've seen the forest melt away; nice house have been reared; The world has quite outstripped the church, I'm very much afeard.

They used to tell a Methodist as far as eye could scan-No gewgaws on a woman then, no dickey on a

But now our congregations are so much by fashion led. They just look like a rainbow wrecked upon posey-bed.

The circuit riders of them days were not so fine and grand; They took degrees a haulin' logs and clearin' up the land; But when one of 'em rose to preach, I tell you we could smell The tragrant flowers of heaven, and the stifling smoke of hell. We had an "amen corner," too, beside the pul pit stairs, And while he raised his sermon-bents, we lifted with our prayers; We threw in many a loud "Thank God!" and weren't oblige to go. To give the Lord the glory, to a class-room | Having just returned from New York with a The grand old quart'ly-meetin's were to all the brethren dear,

Just like four green oases in the desert of the The people flocked from miles around; my wife would take a score, And after supper they would pray, and sleep upon the floor.

I know the world's a-movin' on as Galileo For now I rent a cushioned pew to hear an es say read ; But when through stained-glass windows the sun throws blue and gold,

I cannot help a-thinkin' how the glory shone They call me an "old fossil," and a "relic of the past,'

A "fogy" and a "croaker," too; but this won't always last; I tread a tremblin' isthmus where two seas of glory roll. And soon the past and future bliss will swallow up my soul. And when I reach fair Canaan, the Lord will doubtless sec That mansions in the city will not do for such

So He will let me go among the old-fashioned saints, I think, And praise Him 'neath the trees of life upon the river's brink,

STAUTLING ASSERTIONS. DR. GREENE is ready to cure all disease

DR. GREENE is ready to cure all diseases by external applications of medicine. During 18 months practice in Reading, he has treated over 1,600 patients, many of them from other cities and towns in the United States, 70 of them from Lancaster; hundreds are cured, and no one has died under his charge, and only three persons have died during that time who have been treated by him, and they died away from Reading and under their physician's care. Over 1,150 deaths occurred in Reading during his sojourn there. Having taken up his residence in Lancaster, he will be in his offices all day.

Call and see him and he will give you a list of cases cured of all diseases of the body.

A. McHose, of Reading, Nov. 13, 1879, says: Dr. Greene removed from my neck a tumor of the size of a hen's egg, in 15 days, without cutting or causing me any pain or the loss of a drop of blood. His certificate is eadorsed by the autographs of Jesse G. Hawley, proprietor of the Eagle; T. C. Zimmerman, proprietor of The Times and Dispatch; G. W. Grant, postmaster; H. A. Tyson, mayor, and ex-Mayor Evans, all of Reading.

PRINTING AND BINDING

Having purchased the exclusive right of Lancaster city and county to manufacture and at the cost of printing alone, and in a style that for neatness and durability is not equalled by any other device of a similar character. Dur-ing the time that Reynolds's Metallic Station-ery and Book Binder has been before the pub-lic it has acquired a high reputation among printers and others who have had occasion to make use of it for the extreme simplicits of its printers and others who have had occasion to make use of it, for the extreme simplicity of its construction and the ease and accuracy of its operation, while business men and others whose experience enables them to speak where-of they know pronounce its work to be superior in the essential points of cheapness convenience and durability to that of the old process and was willing to give our returns. cess, and we are willing to give our patrons a guarantee of the perfectly satisfactory char-acter of its work.
