Fresh Gleanings from the Fruitful Harvest of

The reception given to Bishop Potter at the Academy of Music on the 25th of No-vember, in commemoration of the twentyfifth year of his episcopate, called together an audience that filled all the seats and standing-room of the stage and auditorium. Crowds turned away who desired to get in but "could not for the press." Apropos of this, a reverend gentleman near one of the doors, who was struggling for entrance said, "The only propriety I can see in the selection of a theatre for such a reception consists in the fact that in the early ages of the church the bishops were always martyred there."

Democrats are the exception instead of the rule in Vermont, and it is unusual to see more than two or three gathered to-gether. Widow — has buried three husbands, all prominent Democrats. At the funeral of the last, many of the "unterrified " were in attendance, and as they were leaving the house a gentleman re-marked, in an under-tone, "This looks like a Democratic state convention." The widow is soon to marry a fourth husband who is also a noted Democrat, and as the matter was being discussed recently Jim —, who is one of the "true blues," said: "Boys, this thing is getting serious: at this rate the widow will in a few years ruin the Democratic party of Rutland county."
—Editor's Drawer, in Harper's Magazine for February.

The humor of the war continues to crop out here and there, and is relished equally by the gray-coats and by those who wore the blue. For instance, here is good old Daniel S. Helton, a Baptist preacher of Roane county, Tennessee, eighty-eight years old. He had sixteen sons in the Union army and two in the Confederate, and thereupon becomes satistical by saying, "My sympathies were with the Union by fourteen majority." The computation seems to be charged with accuracy.

Another reverned gentlenan of this city, known alike for his wit and eloquence, alluding casually to the fact that a brother of Bishop Potter had been bishop of Pennsylvania, and that the bright and genial rector of Grace church, Dr. Henry C. Potter, had just narrowly escaped election to the see of New Jersey, remarked," It would seem that the American episcopate is really the Potters' Field."

It is a great thing to have what is called nerve, and nothing contributes more to the power of physical control thus named than Warner's Safe Nervine. It also relieves all kinds of pain, and cures headache and neuralgia.

Father is Getting Well. My daughters say, "How much better father is since he used Hop Bitters." He is getting well after his long suffering from a disease de-clared incurable, and we are so glad that he used your Bitters.—A lady of Rochester, N. Y. j15 2wd
