The Death of Gen. Washington. How the News Was Announced in Lancas

Lancaster Journal (now Intelligencer) Dec. 21, 1799. O! WASHINGTON! WASHINGTON! "The cloud-capt towers, the gorgeous palaces
The solemn temples, the great globe itself;
Yea all which it inherits shall dissolve;
But thou shall flourish in IMMORTAL life
Unhurt amongst the war of elements
The wreck of Matter and the crush of

ON SATURDAY THE 14TH INSTANT, DIED SUDDENLY, At his seat in Virginia. GENERAL GEORGE WASHINGTON. Commander in Chief Of the Armies of the United States of America ; MATURE IN YEARS, COVERED WITH GLORY, AND RICH IN THE APPECTIONS OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE.

When men of common chacacter are swept from the theatre of life, they die without the tribute of public notice or concern, as they had lived without a claim more exalted worth are summoned from the scenes of sublunary existance, their death calls forth a burst of general regret, and invigorates the flame of public gratitude. In obedience to the wishes and to the voice of their country, the orator, the poet and the historian combine to do justice to the virtues of their character, while the labors of the painter, the sculptor, and the statuary, in perpetuating their likeness do homage to their memory.

But, when, in compliance with heaven's high mandate, the hero of the Age lies numbered with the dead-when the reverend sage, the august statesman, the father of his country, has resigned his breath-when the idol of an empire, the envy and admiration of distant nations, and the brightest ornament of human nature-when Washington, is no more, let a sense of the general loss be testified by the badges of a general mourning; but let not the voice of our age be heard, lest the weak ness of talents, and the deficiency of language do injustice to the lustre and fame of the deceased.

From Vernon's Mount behold the Hero rise! Resplendent Forms attend him thro' skies! The shades of war-worn veterans round him throng,
And lead, er wrapt, their honored chief along?
A laurel wreath th' immortal Warren bears,
An arch triumphal Mercer's hand prepares,
Young Laurens 'erst th' avenging bolt of

With port majestic guides the glittering car; Montgomery's godlike form directs the way, And Greene unfolds the gates of endless day. Tho' last, not least in love, the valiant Wayne In splendid triumph joins the glorious train! While angels, "trumpet-tongued," proclaim thro' air,

"Due honors for the first of men prepare."

Hop Bitters, which are advertised in our columns, are a sure cure for ague, biliousnes and kidney complaints. Those who use them say they cannot be too highly recommended. Those affilieded should give them a fair trial and will become thereby enthusiastic in the praise of their curative qualities .- Portland

Brandy as a Medicine.

The following article was voluntarily sent to Mr. II. E. Slaymaker, Agent for Reigart's Old Wine Store, by a prominent practising physician of this county, who has extensively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice. It is commended to the attention of those afflicted with Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

BRANDY AS A MEDICINE.

This now much abused Alcoholic Stimulant was never intended as a beverage, but to be With a purely philanthropic motive we present to the favorable notice of invalids—especially those afflicted with that miserable discusse Dyspepsia, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than

Brandy. The aged, with feeble appetite and more or less debility, will find this simple medicine, when used properly,

A Sovereign Remedy or all their fils and aches. Be it, however strictly understood that we prescribe and use Reigart's Old Brandy, In his case, he looked up with astonishment, but after hearing of its wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He used the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was taken he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything which he chose to cat. He still keeps it and uses a little occasionally; and since he has this medicine he has been of very little pecuniary benefit to the doctor.—A Practising Physician.

WARNER'S SAFE Kidney and Liver

The greatest of Modern Medical Discoveries, A Vegetable Preparation and the ONLY SURE REMEDY in the world for Bright's Disease, Diabetes and all Kidney, Liver and Urinary Diseases. There are a large number of testimonials of the highest character in support of these statements. Prof. Green, a distinguished allopathic physician of the South, in an article in the Medical Record, gives an account of the cure of two cases of Chronic Bright's Disease by this remedy, and advises all his brother physicians to use it in practice. R. Caulkins, M. D., of Rochester, N. Y., writes that he would prescribe the remedy to all afflicted with serious Kidney and Liver Diseases. Rev. J. E. Rankin, D. D., of Washington, D. C., tells of permanent cures effected by it, and says: "I do not doubt that it has great virtue." D. W. Bartine, M. D., D. D., of East Orange, N. J., certifies that it cured him of chronic Bright's Disease in two weeks. Rev. C. A. Harvey, D. D., Secretary of Howard University, certifies; "I am convinced that no remedy heretofore used or described can be held for one moment in comparison with this." These are sample testimonials.
