

COLUMBIA NEWS.

From Special Correspondents There. The town hall was filled last evening by a large audience to hear a panegyric upon St. Patrick, delivered by the Rev. D. I. McDermott, of Summit Hill, Pa.

The shawnee furnaces are now—two of them at least—in full blast and turning out daily a large quantity of first-class pig iron. The shawnee rolling mill is also filled with busy life and manned by a cheerful and happy crowd of workmen.

Our neighbor, Grier, of the Herald, is off to Pittsburgh to attend the meeting of the Democratic state central committee.

Mr. John B. Batt, of Philadelphia, will take charge of Black's hotel on the 1st of April, he having leased the same for a period of years. Mr. Black retires as landlord on that day.

Mr. Joseph M. Watts, of Columbia, has in good condition in his possession every issue of the Lancaster Daily Intelligencer. Who can beat this?

The river is high. The raftmen are in good cheer. W. B. Given, esq., who was confined to the house for the last week, is able to be in his office again.

We noticed a number of wagons from York county, loaded with tobacco, on the streets this morning.

Mr. John Shanahan, of Bowmanville, Pa., and Rev. D. I. McDermott, of Summit, are the guests of Rev. J. J. Russell.

An Old Easter Egg. Amos Miley, saddler, showed us this morning an old Easter egg which has a history. The egg was decorated fifty-five years ago by David Miley, Amos Miley's father, who was a wheelwright and then resided in Washington borough.

This egg was found about a dozen years ago in an ascot drawer in an old-fashioned desk, and from that time until two ago was carefully preserved in his safe. Two years ago Mr. Miley took it from the safe and put it in his coat pocket for the purpose of showing it to some friends.

Upon further inquiry we find that Miss Denning usually goes by the name of "Josephine" and was known as "Phenie" among the families with whom she lived.

When informed of the discovery of the body the girl seemed quite astonished, and makes no explanation of the circumstances of the case, pending a legal investigation.

The family with whom she now resides and where she has lived for several weeks had no idea whatever of this episode in her experience; and the family whose service she quit after her week of illness state that through circumstances afterwards developed pointed to the cause of her illness, it is pretty certain that the child was born and concealed elsewhere than in her room at their house.

A charter was granted to the "Lancaster Scientific Club," an application of Prof. J. P. McCaskey, Dr. J. W. Crumbaugh, Rev. C. Elvin Houpt, J. D. Poynt and B. Frank Sawyer. The object of this club will be to promote and encourage the study of science in this city and county by the organization of scientific clubs and classes and by aiding similar clubs already organized.

Charles Wilmer, the colored man, who was charged with attempted rape, and who was committed to jail for want of bail on Tuesday, was released this morning. He gave the required amount of bail before the court. Samuel Hopkins, of Bart township, and William Johnson, of Drumore, both of whom are colored, becoming his sureties.

Case Continued. The case of the com' th vs. A. Reisman, tobacco packer, charged, on oath of James Collins, with malicious mischief, which was to have been heard this afternoon before Alderman Spurrier, was continued indefinitely at the request of the prosecution, one of whose witnesses was absent.

A DEAD BABY.

The Tragic Revelation of a Box of Clothes. A Sickening Spectacle—Christian Street the Scene of Much Excitement. It has been ten years since John Denning left Ireland and brought to this country his two daughters then girls of 19 or 14 years of age; six years ago he and his second wife, their step-mother, returned to the old country where Mrs. D. died and whence the husband and father returned to Lancaster just before Christmas, 1879. He is now working before Quarryville. One of his daughters is Mrs. John A. Weimer, residing at 43 South Christian street, and the other is Miss Christina Denning, who has been employed recently as domestic in several highly respectable families in Lancaster. She has always borne a good character and when about six weeks ago or less she fell sick at her place of employment and remained sick for a week, the occurrence gave rise to no scandal.

A short time afterwards, a few days before Valentine day, she left her last place and one evening brought her clothes to her sister's in a coach and desired to pack them there in such a way that they would be easily accessible or removable if desired. Her sister procured for her a large sized dry goods box at the New York store and they were packed therein.

In a week or two afterwards and about a month ago she called at the house of John M. Modinger, marble cutter, No. 39 South Christian street, and said her brother-in-law would not allow her to keep her clothes at his house and threatened to tear them up and she begged Mrs. Modinger to allow her to store them on her garret. Mrs. M. consented and Miss Denning had them brought over and a carpenter cut the box down to get it on Mrs. Modinger's garret where it remained until yesterday.

Meanwhile Christina, or "Phenie" as she is called, secured employment with another highly respectable family, where she is yet working. On Sunday she visited Mrs. Modinger and disturbed the contents of the box, on pretext of taking some clothes from it. Since then Mrs. M. has noticed a very offensive odor from the box, becoming stronger daily, until yesterday she and Mrs. Weitzel made an inspection of the contents and satisfied themselves that they included the decomposing remains of a newly born babe. Mr. Weitzel made further examination, took the box into the yard and found the dead child in a small wooden box, surrounded with a woman's wrapper and aprons.

The coroner was notified to-day, and summoning a jury composed of E. McMillen, Brinton J. Carter, J. Kahler Snyder, Clayton F. Myers, T. F. McElligott and H. H. Hensel, and attended by Dr. Wm. Compton, made an inspection of the box and contents in Mrs. Modinger's yard.

After taking out a large quantity of clothing, skirts, dresses and very much soiled underwear, a small wooden stench box was found, and after enduring a horrible stench the investigators discovered in it, wrapped in white cloths, the body of a female infant, fully developed, supposed to have been born four or five weeks ago and very much decomposed. Dr. Compton tested the lungs and concluded from his examination that the child had never breathed; though the advanced stage of decomposition materially interfered with full and satisfactory tests.

The jury heard Mrs. Modinger, Mrs. Weimer, Mrs. Weitzel and Mr. Weitzel to the foregoing effect and adjourned to meet at the court house to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock when the supposed mother of the child will be called to testify.

Further Particulars. Upon further inquiry we find that Miss Denning usually goes by the name of "Josephine" and was known as "Phenie" among the families with whom she lived. She is about 22 years of age.

At the suggestion of the district attorney Officer Titus made complaint against her before Alderman Wiley for concealment of the death of a bastard child; a warrant was issued and she will be arrested for a hearing.

The body of the infant was sent to the almshouse for burial. When informed of the discovery of the body the girl seemed quite astonished, and makes no explanation of the circumstances of the case, pending a legal investigation.

The family with whom she now resides and where she has lived for several weeks had no idea whatever of this episode in her experience; and the family whose service she quit after her week of illness state that through circumstances afterwards developed pointed to the cause of her illness, it is pretty certain that the child was born and concealed elsewhere than in her room at their house.

A charter was granted to the "Lancaster Scientific Club," an application of Prof. J. P. McCaskey, Dr. J. W. Crumbaugh, Rev. C. Elvin Houpt, J. D. Poynt and B. Frank Sawyer. The object of this club will be to promote and encourage the study of science in this city and county by the organization of scientific clubs and classes and by aiding similar clubs already organized.

Charles Wilmer, the colored man, who was charged with attempted rape, and who was committed to jail for want of bail on Tuesday, was released this morning. He gave the required amount of bail before the court. Samuel Hopkins, of Bart township, and William Johnson, of Drumore, both of whom are colored, becoming his sureties.

Case Continued. The case of the com' th vs. A. Reisman, tobacco packer, charged, on oath of James Collins, with malicious mischief, which was to have been heard this afternoon before Alderman Spurrier, was continued indefinitely at the request of the prosecution, one of whose witnesses was absent.

Getting Sester. Addison Miller, the young man who was so terribly hurt by being struck by a locomotive while riding a bulky cotter at Mount Joy, was somewhat better this morning. His consciousness has returned, and his physicians have now some hopes of saving his life.

Doctors vs. Quacks. The suits against C. A. Greene, John Campbell and Mrs. Harriet Sweeney, for violating the statute, prohibiting persons from practicing medicine unless they have graduated and been granted a diploma by some reputable college of medicine; or in lieu of such diploma had been practicing medicine successfully eight years before the passage of the act of Assembly, and been regularly licensed by the prothonotary of the court of common pleas, was heard before Alderman Spurrier this afternoon, the hearing attracting to the alderman's office quite a number of interested spectators.

Dr. R. M. Bolenius was the first witness. He testified that he was a member of the Lancaster medical society. At the meeting in February a committee was appointed to notify the district attorney of the violation of the act of Assembly. The committee, consisting of Drs. Bolenius, Welchans and Blackwood, investigated the matter and found that Dr. Campbell, Mrs. Sweeney and Dr. Greene were treating patients.

Witness had no knowledge whether any of the accused had or had not legal diplomas. On cross examination witness said he had never seen any of the accused treat patients; had seen Dr. Campbell sell worm medicine on market; don't know how long Dr. Campbell has been treating disease or practicing medicine in this state; never met Dr. Greene; was once in Greene's office; went there to see if he had a diploma; saw a certificate hanging on the wall.

Dr. Greene wanted to know if the witness, as one of the committee was the prosecutor, but the question was objected to, and Alderman Spurrier said that Constable Eichholtz was the prosecutor.

Geo. W. Eaby, deputy clerk of court, testified that none of the accused had taken out a license to practice medicine in this county.

Dr. Geo. R. Welchans corroborated Dr. Bolenius as to the action of the medical society. All that he knew of the accused in connection with their practice of medicine was that he had seen Dr. Greene's advertisements, and Mrs. Sweeney's sign, and Dr. Campbell's worm medicine; had seen him sell it on the street; don't know anything about the merit of Dr. Campbell's medicines.

Dr. Henry Carpenter testified that he had prescribed for a boy for epilepsy; he had taken medicine prescribed by Dr. Campbell; it was a powerful drug of a narcotic character; it produced violent congestion of the brain and the boy fell into one fit after another, and lay at the point of death; knew nothing personally of Dr. Greene but knew Mrs. Sweeney to be an errant charlatan and quack; he knew positively that persons had been prescribed for by her, but he declined to tell their names; he could not do so without violating professional confidence; never saw Mrs. Sweeney prescribe for a patient; has information from respectable people.

[At the hour at which we go to press the hearing is still in progress.—Rep.] Sacred Songs. Philip Phillips, the great singing evangelist and pillar will give a service of sacred song in the First M. E. church, North Duke street, this evening. Mr. Phillips is a native of Australia, and is the son of a poor man in the United States, but in the country. He has received with approbation wherever he has appeared, and is a native of the continent to-night, 3 cents; children, 2 cents.

Lecture by Dr. Greene. The interest created not only in medical circles, but throughout the city, by the recent action of the Lancaster medical society in instituting legal proceedings against several well-known practitioners on the charge of a violation of the statute governing the practice of medicine and surgery, is enhanced by the announcement, elsewhere printed, of a lecture to be delivered by one of the accused physicians, on Thursday evening next, 21st inst., at Dr. C. A. Greene, who recently hung out his "shingle" in this city, proposes on this occasion to expound his views on the subject of medicine, the success of which in the treatment of so-called hopeless cases of all forms of disease, and says he will prove him self to have been a more successful and aggressive opponent of quackery and empiricism than ever before. His special invitation to the members of the medical society has the snap of defiance in it, and will be met by a large turnout of citizens to see and hear this latest phase of the contest between the regulars and the alleged "empirics."

Amusements. Lawrence Barrett.—When the charts was opened this morning for the sale of seats for the musical drama of "Richard III." at the house on next Wednesday evening, with the distinguished actor Lawrence Barrett in the title role, there was a rush for good places, and in less than an hour over one hundred seats were secured. Since the very favorable impression created by Mr. Barrett in his impersonation of the cardinal duke in Bulwer's drama of "Richard III." he has appeared in this city two years ago, and has been a very general desire among his admirers, and those who have never had the privilege of seeing him, that he should return, and the announcement of his coming is hailed with pleasure. "Hamlet" is among his greatest roles, his reproduction of the character of the melancholy Dane being pronounced by critics a masterpiece of histrionic art.

To-morrow Evening's Comedy.—The Reading Times and Dispatch speak of "An Aisy'n Night," which will be played here to-morrow night: "The sparkle, vivacity, gayety and humor of 'An Arabian Night' were admirably portrayed last evening at the Academy of Music by Mr. Cassin, and the charming audience was in a continuous ferment of laughter and ecstasy of delight from the opening to the closing scene. There is a dramatic glow about the several leading characters, and the performance by the ladies and gentlemen of the troupe that will be an ever-pleasing recollection."

Lecture by Mr. Parsons.—On Saturday evening Hon. William Parsons, the eloquent orator, will deliver his celebrated lecture on "Michael Angelo," at Fulton opera house. Mr. Parsons enjoys an extended reputation as a graceful and pleasing speaker, and this lecture is said to be among the best of his platform efforts, being both instructive and entertaining, teeming with facts presented with grace of diction and eloquence, and for the proper adaptation to the ear while conveying the most interesting information concerning the wonderful career of the grandest figure in art history, ancient or modern.

Saved from the Poorhouse. For years David Allingsworth suffered with Rheumatism, and notwithstanding the best medical attendance, could not find relief. He came to the Seota County Poorhouse, and had to be carried into and out of bed, on account of his helpless condition. After the failure of all the remedies which had been applied, the Directors of the Poorhouse resolved to use the celebrated German Remedy, St. Jacob's Oil, and this was a fortunate resolution; for, with the trial of one bottle, the patient was already much better, and when four bottles had been used upon him he could again walk about without the use of crutches.

The facts, as above stated, will be verified by the Editor of the Portsmouth, Ohio, Correspondent. It is terrible to have a wife or husband with a bad back. All this may be avoided by using SODONIT.
