NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Carry the News to Grantellus Mr. Ryder, a member of the Academy of Natural Sciences, Philadelphia, has discovered in Fairmount park a little myriapod-like scolopendrella, which is regarded as a creature of great importance scientifically. The extraordinary—one might say bizarre -combination of characters presented by the animal makes it what has been known since Agassiz's time as a synthetic type-that is, a form which combines characteristics of several orders or widely separated groups. BRANDY AS A MEDICINE. A Sovereign Remedy or all their ills and aches. Be it, however strictly understood that we prescribe and use but one article, and that is; REIGART'S OLD BRANDY.

Sold by our enterprising young friend, H.'E. SLAYMAKER. This Brandy has stood the test for years, and has never failed, as far as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preference over all other Brandies, no matter with how many jaw-breaking French titles they are branded. One-fourth of the titles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impotent dyspepsia specifics would suffice to buy all the Brandy to cure any such case or es. In proof of the curative powers of Reigart's Old Brandy,

In cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon num -one case in particular we A hard-working tarmer had been afflicted with an exhaustive Dyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour eructations con-stantly—no appetite—in fact, he was obliged to restrict his diet to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used McGrann's Root Beer. He is a Methodist, and then, as now, preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed carnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try

He at last consented to follow our advice. He used the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was taken he was a sound man with a stomach capable of digesting anything which he chose to eat. He still keeps it and uses a lit tle occasionally; and since he has this medi-cine he has been of very little pecuniary bene-fit to the doctor.—A PRACTISING PHYSICIAN.

TAR-HEEL ROMANCE.

Cincinnati Enquirer Special from Lumberton The readers of the Enquirer will doubtess remember the tragic occurrence at this place last spring, resulting in the death of Edward Hartman, a Baltimore drummer, at the hands of Miss Amelia Linkhaw, who charged him with having ruined her. Miss Linkhaw, who was tried and acquitted, gave birth to a child a few weeks after the hooting of her seducer.

The romance of the young mother's life was not to end here, but the most interesting chapter of it was reserved for to-day.

During her imprisonment Miss Linkhaw received letters of sympathy from some of the best people all over the country and was called upon by ladies from many sec-Among her correspondents was Charles Little, an officer of the custom house at Sullivan's Island, near Charleston, and wrote to her regularly every week or two. On the night the trial was expected to close Little started from the sland in a small skiff to be present and learn, at the earliest moment, the fate of the woman in whom he had become so deeply interested. The night was stormy and in attempting to reach Charleston in the frail craft it was driven against a snag in the river and capsized and the ardent lover came near being drowned. By almost superhuman efforts the determined again started on his errand, reaching Florence, S. C., in time to learn that Miss Linkhaw had been acquitted From that time up to the present the overs kept up a regular correspondence, which resulted in their marriage to-day. Early this morning Miss Linkhaw, accompanied by her sister and child, left here by the early train for Florence, S. C., a little town near the North Carolina line, where they were joined by Little and the marriage ceremony was quietly per-formed at the residence of a Methodist minister. The bridal party, accompanied by the child of bride, left for the home of the husband in the interior of South Carolina. Messrs, Weeks & Potter: Gentlemen.—I feel it a duty to inform you, and through you all who are interested to know the fact, that a most disagreeable and obstinate case of salt Rheum or Eczema, which has been under my personal observation from its first appearance to the present time,—about ten (10) years,—covering the greater portion of the patient's body and limbs with its peculiar irritating and itching seab, and to which all the known methods of treating such disease has been applied without benefit, has completely disappeared, leaving a clean and healthy skin, under a few days of profuse application of Cuticura.

I can and do heartily advise all similarly affileted to try the remedy which has been so effected. 17 Congress Street, Boston, Feb. 28, 1878.

Gentlemen :- I have had Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, with running sores on the side of my neck, for ten years. Doctors did me no good I have been spending for eight years and it did no good. Everything I ate distressed me. I got reduced from 179 to 132 pounds. At last I tried the RESOLVENT and it helped me right off, and on the bottle I gained five and one-half pounds. It is doing the business, and I am going for it strong.

Yours truly.
