

Lancaster Intelligencer. SATURDAY EVENING, APRIL 10, 1880. PATTERSON'S COLUMN.

THE NEWSPAPERS SPEAKING OUT.

The Fifth Installment of Their Opinions.

Judge Patterson and the Editor of the Lancaster Intelligencer.

York Daily, and the case of Steinman and Hensel, as reported by Judge Patterson, of Lancaster, for editorial criticism upon an admitted miscarriage of justice in the latter's court, has attracted universal attention.

The arbitrary action of the judge in detaining by the entire press of the state, and so far as it had opportunity to speak, by the press of the country, "The Philadelphia Times" discusses it as a "judicial crime."

The case was brought to the attention of the Philadelphia Times, from the "Lancaster Ledger" and the "North Star," and the latter also appears to take the same view.

Patterson is well known as not supporting any member of the Lancaster Intelligencer, who is at once interested and respectable.

Mr. Gowen and Judge Black long since declared that the judge "had done his duty" and that he could not "do more."

The case was brought to the attention of the Philadelphia Times, from the "Lancaster Ledger" and the "North Star," and the latter also appears to take the same view.

After weeks of hesitation Patterson has dismissed the proceeding for contempt, and dismisses the attorneys for their part in the affair.

It has been reserved for a higher judge in Lancaster county to do what the position and being the judiciary of Pennsylvania into further contempt of a vindictive justice towards two young members of the bar.

The people of Pennsylvania intend that the press of this state shall be free to discuss every question for the public information in which the people have an interest to be informed.

The supreme court of Pennsylvania will be asked in May next to decide whether the decision of Judge Patterson disbarbing the editors of the Lancaster Intelligencer from practicing in the courts of their county, was founded upon principles of right and justice.

Profit, $1,200. To sum it up, in a long career of bed-ridden sickness, costing $300 per year, total $1,200—of this expense was stopped by three bottles of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil.

A bottle of Manchester, Ontario Co., N. Y., Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, I have used for several years, and have obtained immediate relief from the most distressing neuralgia, sciatica, rheumatism, and other pains.

A Great Discovery by a Great Man. This, primarily, is Dr. Warner's Safe Restorative. The great merit of this medicine is its power to purify the blood, and to restore the system to its normal condition.

Dr. Warner's Safe Restorative is a powerful medicine, and is well adapted for the treatment of all diseases of the blood, and of the system generally.
