BASE BALL.
The Club to be Organized.
The base ball season will shortly open in this city and it promises to be a lively one. At least two good clubs will be organized, and there will probably be more when the fever fairly takes hold of the boys. The Ironsides are first in the field, and the nine will consist of almost the same men who played so many good games last year, coming off with an excellent record. The club will have new uniforms and present a fine appearance in the field. There are plenty of good players in town now and a club will be organized, which will be composed of a number of men employed at the Penn Iron Works, including Kenny, Myers, Slay and others. When these works were running several years ago they had the best club in the city, and there is no reason why a good team should not again be formed.

To make baseball a success in Lancaster here at present. The old common at the Penn iron works has been filled up with dirt, stones, &c., and as it never was a good ground it would be impossible to play upon it in its present rough condition. The Ironsides ground is the best in town, but it is small, and as it is in an out-of-the-way place, it is with difficulty that the many lovers of the game can be drawn there. At the college there is a good ground, but it is also small, and is used almost exclusively by the students. If the clubs which will contend for the championship of this city, during the coming season, would lease an unoccupied field near the city (and if possible on the line of the street railway) they would certainly be able to raise sufficient funds from our citizens to pay for it.

Driving Accident.
A spirited young horse belonging to Mr. Easley of Rockland street, this city, while driven on the Marietta pike yesterday, took fright at a velocipede, turned short into the summer road, upset and broke the buggy, tore the harness and injured, though not seriously, Mr. E., who was driving.

Suspended Operations.
No. 1 cotton mill, of this city, has suspended operations for the remainder of this week in order to make some necessary repairs.

An Excellent Work.
Having known the artist upon which the "View of Lancaster" is being prepared, and being personally acquainted with the artist who is to complete the work on stone, I can unhesitatingly recommend the work to lovers of art, and especially those who desire a view of our beautiful city. The work will give the city in two large general views, besides several smaller ones, including the churches, factories, county buildings, street scenes, business blocks, residences, &c. I hope our citizens will lend Mr. Corbin all the assistance possible for the prosecution of the work. The engraving will be subject to my inspection and approval when completed.

MOUNT JOY.
Happening in the Borough.
On Monday evening John Pyle, Jr., started for Ida, Iowa, where he will engage in farming. Mr. Pyle has the well-wishes of the community.

The plumbers' business here is booming, and in a short time most of our residences and business places will be lighted up by gas.
The borough is refunding its water loan by issuing $100 and $500.5 per cent. bonds, instead of 6 per cents, now outstanding. The amount to be refunded is $25,000. This will be a saving in interest of $550, and is a sensible move.

A surprise party to L. D. Gallagher and wife, by some of their many friends, was one of the events of last week.
Town Talk—street lamps—condemning the Lancaster and Middletown turnpike, west of town—had condition of Main street—waterman wanted at the Main street crossing—money matters easier than any time since the panic—G. A. R. Post—diphtheria, &c.

Monday afternoon as two boys named Garman, residing near Horst's mill, were driving away from H. S. Stauffer's hardware store, Mount Joy, one of the shafts of their wagon broke frightening the horse and causing him to run away. When crossing the railway at Barbara street the horse fell, and was caught by a bystander. The wagon was turned over on its side and one of the boys thrown on the ground and slightly injured. The horse also sustained slight injuries.

At last there are some prospects for an abatement in the custom of surprise parties. The "old folks" who have quite extensively indulged in the practice will wind up with a grand ball in Exchange hall at an early day.

The lime stacks which were fired shortly before the present blow, will produce an inferior quality of lime. In some stacks the draught has been so strong that much of the material remains unburned.

At 2:45 p. m. on Sunday, the corner-stone for the Evangelical church will be laid with appropriate services.

B. S. Dillinger lately bought a clock that was manufactured in 1758. It is in good running order.

Jacob Rissor is erecting a fine residence near Newtown, Rapho township.

John Kopf and family started to-day for Lisbon, Lynn county, where he will work at farming.

On Tuesday morning a runaway horse attached to a spring wagon dashed through East Main street on a 2:40 gait, and succeeded in making a few collisions and a flurry of excitement. John Stauffer, of near Marietta, had driven to Stauffer's mill, directly east of Mount Joy, and was transacting business, when a blast in a stone quarry near by started the horse on the rampage. At John Fenstermacher's blacksmith shop a wagon was struck; several squares farther west a bear wagon standing in front of Breckenman, Longenecker & Co.'s store, was struck, causing both wagons to overturn. The horse was caught in front of the residence of Levi Hoffman, and strange to say, there was but slight damage sustained by either of the vehicles.

Smith, Richard & Co. have rented the building lately known as the Landis coach works, and this morning commenced the business of renovating feathers.

An Old Democrat.
On Friday last Adam Dietrich, of Rohrerstown, celebrated his 90th birthday. For 69 years he has been a Democratic voter and subscriber to the INTELLIGENCER, and has voted for every Democratic candidate for president from Madison to Tilden, and being in good health, will no doubt live to vote for every Democratic candidate and see the Democratic party again firmly established as the ruling power.

Death in the Jail.
John Schmidt, who was committed to the county prison by Alderman Spurrier, a few days ago, for being drunk and disorderly, died in that institution about noon to-day of congestion of the brain. The man had severe bruises on his body when arrested, and he is believed to have been beaten by some one. An inquest will be held on the body.

Drunk and Disorderly.
Harriet Draper, colored, got drunk last evening, and after being arrested she was held for a hearing by Alderman Donnelly of the Seventh ward.

Singular Accident.
This morning about 10 o'clock a party of boys were playing ball near the point at which the Pennsylvania railroad crosses the Harrisburg pike in the northwestern part of this city. When the Hanover accommodation train came along the base-ball with which the boys were playing, rolled under the wheel of one of the cars, and almost threw it off the track. The yarn and rubber of which which the ball was composed is so yielding that even the weight of the car, which ran over it, did nothing more than burst the cover and slightly flatten the ball. The concussion of the car was so great that the conductor stopped the train, and Officer Brady, of the railroad police force, who was on the train arrested seven of the boys and took them before Alderman McCoomy for a violation of the railroad act. They were held for a hearing to take place to-morrow morning.

Organization of Street Committee.
Last night the street committee met and organized, all the members being present except Mr. Sales.
D. McMullen, esq., was chosen president, and S. W. Raab, clerk.

The old rules were readopted and a vote of thanks, for faithful service, was tendered to J. K. Barr, the retiring clerk.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, APRIL 14, 1880.
WEATHER INDICATIONS.
WASHINGTON, April 14.—For the Middle Atlantic states clear or partly cloudy weather, southwesterly winds, becoming variable or shifting to easterly, stationary or lower temperature, rising barometer.
OTERO HANGED.
Execution of the Boy Who Shot at the King of Spain.
MADRID, April 14.—Otero, the young man who attempted the life of King Alfonso, was executed at 9 o'clock this morning. Soon after 8 o'clock the governor of the prisoner and authorities aroused him, and led him, bare-headed and clad in the same clothing which he wore at the time of the commission of the crime, to the hall where condemned prisoners hear sentence read in the presence of the judge. Otero was pale but composed, and signed the copy of his sentence with a firm hand. The judge then delivered him into custody of the brothers of the Ancient Order of Pazy-Caridad who led him to the chapel dimly lighted, and at 9 o'clock the execution took place. He expressed repentance, but refused the ministrations of priests. He was nineteen years old.
EGYPT'S DESIGNS.
Getting Ready to Occupy the Red Sea Coast.
LONDON, April 14.—The Standard's Alexandria correspondent says: "It is believed in well-informed quarters here that Egypt has decided to occupy the Red Sea coast to Cape Guardafui, the eastern-most point of Africa, at the entrance of the Arabian gulf. This is confirmed by the announcement of the official newspaper, the Moutour Egyptien, that Ali Riza Pasha has been appointed governor of the Red Sea coast."
