RIGHTS OF LAWYERS AND EDITORS.

THE NEWSPAPERS SPEAKING OUT

The Eighth Installment of their Opinions

Early and Often

Pittsburgh Post, Dem. Judge Patterson of Lancaster, refuses to permit the editors of the INTELLIGENCER to practice before him, but if they do not practice on him early and often it will be because they don't want to. Newspaper people have long memories. Dangerous All Around. Oll City Derrick, Ind.

The action of Judge Patterson is reprehensible and dangerous to the librties of the press and our free institution. By a Large Majority.

Bloomsburg Columbian, Dem. The unanimous verdict of the press is that Judge Patterson, of Lancaster county, in his action in dismissing from the bar Messrs. Steinman and Hensel, for certain publication made as editors of the INTEL-LIGENCER, has made a ridiculous muss of it. The supreme court will undoubtedly sustain the decision of the press.

Good Law for a Monarchy. Clearfield Republican, Dem. One of the vilest attacks ever made or "the freedom of the press" in this country. Such edicts might pass current where Bismarck rules, but they are awfully out of order on this continent. If the editors libeled, let them be taken into court, but do not behead them without a trial. Wrong Shipped Every Way.

York Pennsylvanian, Dem. If Messrs. Steinman and Hensel were guilty of libel as journalists, the court has gone about the wrong way of punishing them, and if they were not guilty of contempt as members of his court, it is difficult to imagine what they were guilty of. Overshot the Mark.

Lacaster Cor. Manheim Sentinel, Rep. In our opinion Judge Patterson has decidedly gone beyond the authority invested in him, and that Messrs. Steinman and Hensel did nothing more than they had a right to, in their capacity as journalists, in their strictures which have led to this usurpation of power by the judge. Terms of Severest Censure.

Marietta Times, Rep. The matter is spoken of by all the leading papers, in the state, as lawyers are connected in some capacity with almost every one, and nearly all of them speak of the decision in terms of the severest cen-

A Conundrum. Wrightsville Star, Ind.

This action of the judge is certainly singular to say the least. Why he should attempt to deal differently with Messrs.

For sale by all Druggists and Dealers generally. Steinman and Hensel, because they happen ally. to be attorneys in his court, from the action that would have been taken in the case of any other editors who might have made unpalatable remarks about his action, is hard to understand. It is not probable that the supreme court, to which the matter will be taken, will sustain the judge in his position of plaintiff, judge and their newspaper, is a glaring act of judicial tyranny, which the entire press of the country should prompt the press of the country should present the prese country should resent. The editors of the paper did their duty to the public fearlessly, and if Judge Patterson was misrepre-sented by them he had the same means of who were not members of the bar. When K-W the press of the country fails to speak out | K-W against palpable wrongs in the administration of justice, the courts will be powerless to protect the rights of citizens.

Contrary to the Spirit of American Law.

Doylestown Democrat, Dem.

The decision is as tyrannical as it is unjust, and contrary to the spirit of American law. The offense of the two attorneys was not committed by them as officers of the court, but in their capacity as citizens and editors, in a sphere beyond the reach of the judge on the bench. If this be the law of the land then the official conduct of a judge is above criticism by any one who is an attorney. He may be the editor of a newspaper, but his paper must be silent in the face of the greatest judicial corruption. The case will be carried to the supreme court, where, no doubt, the tyrannical decision of the judge will be reversed.

No Common Sense in His.

Judge Patterson did not recite many points of law or precedents to sustain the position he assumed, but relied more upon the arbitrary power of the court, which he so fearlessly wields for his own benefit.

MEDICAL. Brandy as a Medicine. The following article was voluntarily sent to Mr. H. E. Slaymaker, Agent for Reigart's Old

Wine Store, by a prominent practising physi-cian of this county, who has extensively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice. It is commended to the attention of those af-Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

BRANDY AS A MEDICINE. This now much abused Alcoholic Stimulant was never intended as a beverage, but to be used as a medicine of great potency in the cure of some of the destructive diseases which sweep away their annual thousands of victims. With a purely philanthropic motive we present to the favorable notice of invalids—especially those afflicted with that miserable disease. Description a prooffly removals which is case Dyspepsia, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than Brandy.

The aged, with feeble appetite and more or less debility, will find this simple medicine, when used properly, A Sovereign Remedy or all their ills and aches. Be it, however strictly understood that we prescribe and use but one article, and that is,

REIGART'S OLD BRANDY, Sold by our enterprising young friend, H. E. SLAYMAKER. This Brandy has stood the test for years, and has never failed, as far as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preference over all other Brandies, no matter with how many jaw-breaking French titles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impotent dyspepsia specifics would suffice to buy all the Brandy to cure any such case or cases. In proof of the curative powers of Reigart's Old Brandy, In cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon num bers of witnesses—one case in particular we cite:

A hard-working farmer had been afflicted with an exhaustive Dyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour cructations constantly—uo appetite—in fact, he was obliged to restrict his diet to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used McGrann's Root Beer. He is a Methodist, and then, as now, preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed earnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try Reigart's Old Brandy, In his case, he looked up with astonishment, but after hearing of its wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He used the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was taken he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything which he chose to eat. He still keeps it and uses a little occasionally; and since he has this medicine he has been of yery little pecuniary benefit to the doctor.—A PRACTISING PHYSICIAN.

R. Caulkins, M. D., of Rochester, N. Y., writes that he would prescribe the remedy to all afflicted with serious Kidney and Liver Diseases. Rev. J. E. Rankin, D. D., of Washington, D.
