

in front of Mr. Cairnes's house, a short time before the outrage was perpetrated. He passed on without speaking to him, though he was not more than five or six feet from him.

John M. Rutter was at the Octoraro church on the evening in question; passed the parsonage; it was lighted up; could have distinguished the features of a man if he had been at the house.

For the defense, Samuel Hopkins, colored, was called, and testified that defendant lives with his mother in a house on his (witness's) property, in Bart township. Witness was at Wilmer's house on the night of the 12th of February and was in his company from 6 o'clock in the evening until after 9 o'clock at night.

The grand jury made the following return: True Bills—Charles Wilmer, attempt to commit rape, burglary and robbery; Wm. Jones, assault and battery; L. D. Morgan, carrying concealed deadly weapons; Ludwig Sivald, larceny as bailee (two indictments); Joseph H. Sides, seduction and fornication and larceny; M. O. Scaenzel, seduction and fornication and larceny; Gustav Bunzl, assault and battery; Joseph Jones, assault and battery; William Mohr, keeping a bawdy house.

During the session of the court W. F. Beyer, esq., solicitor to the prison inspectors presented the following paper from the prison inspectors, which the court directed to be presented to the grand inquest:

That a large quantity of worthless tobacco has accumulated at the Lancaster county prison from previous years—some of it purchased eight or ten years ago—and that they are unable to use it in the manufacture of cigars; that when the grand jury visited the prison yesterday, this tobacco was stored in a room along with other things in good condition and could not be properly examined by the grand inquest; and that no member of the board of inspectors was present to call attention thereto; that the board of directors have advertised the same for sale at 1 o'clock, p. m., to-day and have this morning caused the good tobacco to be separated from that for sale and the latter to be exposed to public view.

They, therefore, pray the grand inquest to be present at said sale to see exactly what is sold and the manner in which the sale is conducted. They further pray that if the grand inquest cannot be present they will appoint a committee of their members for the same purpose.

Soon after the above was presented to the grand inquest, they returned to the solicitor the following preamble and resolution:

WHEREAS, The board of prison inspectors of the county of Lancaster have advertised a public sale of tobacco, to take place at the prison this day; and WHEREAS, We, the grand inquest of said county for the April sessions, 1880, consider the said sale injudicious and fraught with suspicion; therefore, Resolved, By this body, that we enter our protest against the said sale, and request that the same be postponed indefinitely.

The School Superintendents. The school superintendents held three sessions yesterday, at which a large number of educational topics were discussed. In the afternoon Governor Hoyt and Lieutenant Governor Stone, by invitation, made brief addresses. The governor assured the convention that he would do all in his power to prevent a recurrence of the inability of the state to meet its obligations to the schools of the state, as had been the case of the past year. There was a good deal of sharp criticism by some of the superintendents at the way the school fund was managed. It was contended that the school warrants were not honored and that there ought to be an explanation. A committee of fifteen was authorized to be appointed to ask the state treasurer's presence this morning.

Death of Mrs. Margaret Hinney and Martin W. Nissley. Mrs. Margaret Hinney, widow of Samuel Hinney, died at Mount Joy last night at nine o'clock. She leaves a family of three daughters and one son, all of whom are married, one of the daughters being the wife of John H. Sellers, clerk of orphans court of the county.

Martin W. Nissley, aged 56 years, of East Donegal township, died yesterday of consumption. He leaves a wife three daughters and one son.

Presentation. Yesterday afternoon the tobacco packers at Funder's warehouse, on the Marietta pike, presented their foreman, Mr. S. H. Wallach, with a handsome gold headed cane. The presentation speech was made by Mr. M. M. Fraim, to which Mr. Wallach replied, thanking the hands for the kind gift, after which they all sat down to a fine set-out.

Large Sale of Seats. The chart for the sale of reserved seats for Emma Abbott was opened this morning at the box office of the opera house at half past seven, and before nine o'clock over 200 seats were sold. The number of seats taken at noon was about 300. At noon over 250 seats had been sold for Carnross's minstrels.

Sudden Illness. This afternoon Samuel L. Fowler, residing on West James street, was taken very sick while standing in the doorway of the law office of J. W. F. Swift, esq., on South Queen street. He was carried into the office and Dr. Carpenter was sent for. After a short time Mr. Fowler had improved somewhat, and was removed in a carriage to his home.

Tired of the West. Three weeks ago a man named Smith, with eleven children, left his home in the lower end of this county and went to Arkansas. Last night they returned to this city and they left for their old home this morning.

Sale of Horses. Samuel Hess & Son, auctioneers, sold at public sale on Monday, at the Franklin house, this city, for Jacob Sener and others 14 head of horses, at an average of $132.50 per head.

Two Six-Horse Teams Making Good Time. Yesterday a son of Henry P. Breneman and a son of Samuel Wolgamuth were each driving a six-horse team along the pike about two miles north of Mount Joy. Wolgamuth's team was behind, when the horses frightened and started to run, passing the team of Breneman. The horses of the latter then became frightened and began running. Both teams then did their level best and passed along the road at a high rate of speed for some distance. Finally the team of Wolgamuth was stopped, and the horses of Breneman, coming up, passed around him. They were also stopped in a short time. Neither of the drivers was hurt, but the horses were bruised, and the wagons, one of which was upset twice, were badly broken.

An Old Stage Which Should be Removed. This morning Daniel Mayer, tobacco dealer, was driving on South Queen street, near the end of which there is an old stage lying, which was wrecked on Saturday night. When Mr. Mayer came opposite to the old stage he met a man named Hirsch, who is a blacksmith in New Danville, and who was also driving. The horse of Mr. Hirsch frightened at the old vehicle, and jumping aside, ran the wagon to which he was hitched against the buggy of Mr. Mayer, upsetting it. Mr. Mayer was thrown out, and besides having his wrist sprained he was badly bruised about the body. The buggy was broken in several places.

Tobacco. Mr. Joy Star. Michael S. Wittle, of Rapho township, has sown a patch of about one thousand square feet in tobacco seed; two hundred and sixty-two feet of it is up and covered with nice young plants. The first seed was sown on the 26th of March and the last on the 15th of this month. He has a tobacco plant that was set out on the 2d of April, and is growing nicely, the leaves of which measure five inches long and three inches wide. It also tried tobacco seed that was ten years old and it came up nice.

Discharged. The small boys, who were arrested and taken before Alderman Barr, yesterday, on a charge of taking a box of medicine from a car at the freight depot of the Pennsylvania railroad, were discharged, as there was no evidence to implicate them in the affair.

Rolling Mill Started. The Susquehanna rolling mill at Columbia, which has been idle for some time past, was started this morning. The other mill at the same place will also resume operations shortly.

Amusements. Mill Nobles To-morrow. That versatile comedian and character actor, Mr. Milton Nobles, will play his ever-popular "Phenix" here to-morrow evening. Mr. Nobles has always been a favorite with Lancaster theatre-goers, and his name and fame are the magnet that will likely attract a large and delighted audience to the opera house to-morrow. His company is a strong one, selected with a view of fully bringing out the intense interest of the play.

Carnross's Minstrels. Through seats have already been sold to the Carnross's minstrel troupe for to-morrow evening. Among the members of the company are Hughey Dougherty, Matt Wheeler, Jimmy John, Griffin and Rice, Murphy and Morton, John L. Carnross and others.

Jubilee Singers To-night. The original troupe of genuine Jubilee Singers, by all odds the best organization of the kind in the world, will appear at Fulton opera house to-night, in one of their unique and delightful entertainments. After an absence from this country of several years, during which period they appeared before the most distinguished audiences in the European capitals, they return to the United States with a reputation illumined by the just and continued chain of brilliant successes. Their singing captivates those who hear it, and the quaint music and marvelous melody of the plantation cannot be heard to better advantage than in the concert of this really remarkable company of negro vocalists. They are under Mr. Misher's management, and those familiar with their reputation will require no persuasion to induce them to be present at the opera house to-night.

Mr. J. KISTNER, Mahanoy City, Pa., suffered with a pain in the back. He used a bottle of Dr. Jacob's Oil and was cured, as he thankfully acknowledges in a letter. Save SOZODONT, that wears the wreath. a19-1wd&w

THIRD EDITION. THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 22, 1880. WEATHER INDICATIONS. WASHINGTON, April 22.—For the Middle Atlantic states and New England, stationary and falling barometer, increasing westerly winds, warmer clear, followed by cloudy weather, and possibly light rain. POETIC STATESMANSHIP. Delegate Downey Invokes His Muse in the House of Representatives, and is Confronted by a Rival with the Very Precise Rules of that Body.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—A rather singular scene occurred in the House this morning. In the Record there appears a speech in blank verse entitled "The Immortal," which is copyrighted by Mr. Downey (Wyoming), and which purports to be in support of his bill providing for the painting of biblical pictures on the wall of the capitol. Mr. Garfield (Ohio) called attention to this fact and moved that the speech be referred to the committee on rules to inquire whether it is competent for a member to copyright his speech, pointing out at the same time the dangers which might attend such a practice. Mr. Downey replied that he had the opinion of the librarian of Congress upon the competency of his copyrighting to Mr. Garfield's objection. Mr. Conger (Mich.), however, did oppose it in a rather amusing speech, in which he intimated that Mr. Garfield was envious of the rising young poet. The yeas and nays were ordered on Mr. Garfield's motion, and during the roll call the members separated into groups, the singular speech being the sole topic of conversation.

Garfield's motion was agreed to. The House then went into committee of the whole on the naval appropriation bill. The subject considered in the Senate. In the Senate Mr. Morrill submitted a resolution instructing the printing committee to take such measures as shall exclude Delegate Downey's copyrighted argument from the Record, but after argument it was withdrawn. A Gift from Thomas Jefferson's Heirs. After the expiration of the morning hours the Senate resumed consideration of army bill. The reading of the bill was interrupted by the receipt of a message from R. B. Hayes informing the Senate and House of Representatives that the heirs of Thomas Jefferson desired to present to the United States the desk upon which the Declaration of Independence was signed. W. A. Wheeler also laid before the Senate the joint resolution passed by the House accepting the gift in the name of the nation and thanking the donors.

Mr. Dawes said he could not suppose that the Senate would object to a momentary interruption of its regular business by so interesting a subject. He spoke in favor of the resolution. Nomination Sent to the Senate. R. B. Hayes sent the following nomination to the Senate to-day: Joseph K. McCommon, of Pennsylvania, to be assistant attorney general of the United States.

P. Barr, of the Pittsburgh Post, Jimmy Atwell and Tim O'Leary, and has now just one week yet to do the job in view to the state convention, and not one of them yet shows a sign of early death.
