Services at St. Mary's.

The services incident to the forty hours devotion were continued at St. Mary's church yesterday. Besides the celebration of the mass at 5. 6:30 and 9 in the morning as noticed in yesterday's paper, Rev. Father Loughlin preached an able sermon to a large congregation last evening, the theme of his discourse being the Euchar. ist. He was assisted in the conduct of the benediction service by a number of visiting clergy. This evening the services will conclude with a sermon by Very Rev. Dr. Hunt, the benediction by Right Rev. James F. Shanahan, bishop of the diocese, and a procession.
