As far as understood the text is found to be true. In our early days as a church we were receivers, but in later time we have been givers in large measures, and we know full well the blessedness of bestowing gifts. We have abounded in grace and knowledge, and now we may be doubly blessed in giving. We are in a position now to give, and wherever understood and tried the text is found and acknowledged to be true. In view of the past and the present, we ought to be hopeful for the future. Faithful teaching and working in the church in the beginning begat strength for our church and pastoral fidelity and earnest instruction will give its strength and success in days to come. In the world all seek their own. Self is as Dives clothed in purple and fine linen; the church is as Lazarus at the rich man's gate. In the Divine kingdom self is denied. Loving hands and hearts have assisted us whereunto we have already attained, and may their gifts lead us to be beneficent as Christians. Let the precepts and injunc-tions of the Divine Word be ever before us, and carried into practice in our lives. Let this Word be expounded, explained and insisted upon, until full light shall dawn upon those who hear, and lead them to give as Him their High Example. He was rich, but for our sake became poor, Where that spirit falls upon our people, the full glory of God shall arise upon us, and give us success in all our work here, and eternal life with those to whom we give and for whom we labor in the world to

The communion was then administered after the singing of a hymn, and the congregation dismissed with the benediction by the president.

Dr. Lochman addressed the synod stating that he had been licensed by its body fifty-six years ago. There are now but three ministers living who were members of the synod when he first became connected with it. Dr. Lochman was granted a dismissal by the synod thirteen years ago, and is now licensed at York, Pa., a member of a sister synod. Dr. Schaeffer read his report as president of the synod. The election of the synodical officers was announced as the next in order, and the president appointed Revs. W. K. Frick, D. M. Stettler and J. A. Wiedersheim a committee to conduct the election.

The interest of the bequest of $30,000 by the late Asa Packer will come into use during the year. $1,500 is asked annually from the synod. An effort will be made to remove the debt of the college and increase its endowment.

Rev. S. Repass, D. D., professor of the-ology in the State seminary at Salem, Va., and corresponding delegate from the synod of S. W. Virginia, presented his credentials and addressed the synod. Dr. Repass was ordained by the synod eleven years ago, at at that time made corresponding delegate to the synod he now represents, and which he afterwards joined.

Rev. Prof. J. D. Dreher, president of Roanoke college, Va., was amounced as present and introduced to the synod. On motion opportunity will be given on tomorrow for Prof. Dreher to address the synod with reference to his work at Roan-Schindel and the German secretary, Rev. F. W. Weiskotten had been re-elected. A new ballot was entered upon for president.

Rev. F. J. F. Schantz, appointed at last meeting of the synod delegate to Pittsburgh synod, reported that he could not attend, but that he had sent to the synod when in session a letter and a copy of the minutes of the last annual session of the synod of Pennsylvania.

The time for adjournment of the morning session having arrived, Rev. Isenschmidt offered a German prayer, and the synod was dismissed by the president.

THE RETURN JUDGES.

A HOT TIME OF IT.

Disgraceful Disorder-Hall Packed with

Whisky and Muscle Brought to Eberly's Re-lief. By the time fixed for the meeting of the Republican return judges this morning, Grant hall was packed with such a rough son fast drawing to a close. The rather crowd and the heat was so intense that meagre attendance is attributable to a va-Chairman Eshleman concluded to adjourn riety of causes, prominent among which to Fulton hall. Meantime Bill Beard and may be named the prevailing excitement Butch Miller had had a fight at the Exchange and Miller, having been knocked publican primaries, and the sultry condidown, got a gang of Seventh ward roughs, Star club bummers and other villainous looking fellows, and trooped to Fulton hall with them, to aid the Eberly side of fined critical taste and its admiration of the contest.

By this time about the only thing in dispute was the district attorneyship. It was generally conceded that Davis was several hundred ahead, but Sensenig's count made Eberly 22 ahead and he had the outside claquers in the hall to put it through. by her. The support was quite good, and Police guarded the door to keep out the crowd and it was with great difficulty that even the judges could gain admission through Mr. Yecker's office.

Finally the main entrance was opened cupying the seats in the parquet and the the present season. crowd filling the circle and partly filling the gallery.

The board was called to order by Chairman of the County Committee Eshleman, who suggested that tellers be appointed to take the vote on the selection of a chairman. Alf. Edwards, of the city, and Geo. C. Kennedy, were chosen.

For chairman John H. Fry was nomina ted by the Eberly men, and Samuel A. Groff by the Davis men.

The districts were calleded and the clerks announced they did not agree in their tally. [The INTELLIGENCER made the tally, Groff 35, Fry 33; Kennedy made it Fry 35, Groff 34, and Edwards, Groff 35, Fry 32.1

Amid intense confusion a second ballot was ordered. Amos Gast of the Ninth ward who had voted for Groff before, now voted for Fry and the Elizabeth township man voted for Fry; this elected Fry by 35 to 34, but it also proved that Groff was elected on the first ballot.

While all this was going on Butch Mil ler's gang of some twenty roughs, seated on the south side of the hall, with Adam Snyder and Jake Price in the parquette near them, were raising intense disorder and shouting for Tom Davis to leave the

Tom Cochran was in the hall apparently in sympathy with the Davis side, while the Johnson men co-operated with Eberly's friends, Lew Hartman directing the Seventh ward gang in his behalf. The true inwardness of the fight became apparent. That portion of the Bull Ring which had traded with McMellen had to stand by him. The Johnson wing of the Hog nonneed as present on the floor of syn- Ring discusted at McMellen's treachery to knife him. Messrs. Edwards and Kennedy were reelected as tally clerks, and T. S. Dickey on May 24 and 25, good to May 27. Fare, and J. W. Denlinger as additional clerks.

Every few minutes the drunken rowdies would raise a row and call for somebody to be "put out" as they did "not trust" him. A more blundering, awkward and incompetent chairman than Fry never held a gavel.

For the committee of investigation and on contested districts, consisting of seven return judges, the following nominations were made in the interest of Mr. Eberly: A. B. Reidenbach; Smith, of Conoy; Swope, 4th ward, and Hiram White.

In the interest of Mr. Davis the following nominations were made: Jos. H Huber, city; Percy Schock, Marietta; Amos Gast, city ; J. C. Redsecker,

The vote stood 36 for the Davis men to to 32 for Eberly's and Reidenbach was beaten, the Davis men getting the majority on the committee of seven. During the call of the districts, a little countryman from the Union Square district, who was not an election officer, but had been deputed to bring in the returns, was discerned by the gang and a be done, but the gang did not wait to hear his decision. Thirty of them rolled over the parquette circle railing into the body of the hall. The police made a rush to stop them. The little man was hustled toward Water street. Tom Davis, who knew the gang were really after him, retreated through a row of seats and climbed up the parquet circle on the side where his friends were. The whole audience was on its feet. Wild disorder reigned the chairman's incompetence only increasing it. Confusion worse confounded seemed imminent. Fifty roughs were struggling toward the front of the stage and nobody knew what might ensue. The police were resolute and firm. They kept back the gang and restored order before a down. The disorder continuing, a Davis man moved to adjourn. Milt Wike wanted the returns handed in first. The gang shouted for this too. Fry was about to put the Eberly man's motion, but, finally, put the motion to adjourn, and it was carried, to the great disgust of Adam Snyder and Jake Price, who pronounced their chairman "a d-d wooden head," and said that if Eberly was counted out now it was his own fault.

In addition to a full stock of the celebrated Rogers Bro, sgoods, we have the exclusive sal in this city of the electro-plated ware of the Gorham Manufacturing Company. These are the best finished and most durable in the market, and in recommending them to the trade this company (whose representations are always reliable) claim for them the fellowing merits: The base of the Gorham electro-plate is of nickel silver. The silver-plated wares made upon this base combine all the excellence of the solid silver goods except the intrinsic value of the silver itself. One of the remarkable features of the process of electro-plating is perfect accuracy and delicacy with which the finest line of the engraving or chasing traced on the surface of the nickel base is reproduced on the surface of the silver coating. Thus all the excellence of workmanship which has earned for the company its reputation as makers of sterling silver goods is made tributary to the production of unsurpassed electro-plate. The quantity of pure silver deposited on the finely finished base exceeds that upon the best of foreign plate. This ware would be excellent and take a fine polish without a coating of silver, yet upon it is laid a stiver surface which will if not abused last more than a generation. The object is to produce plated ware which shall have all the beauty of the solid wares. This high grade of ware is undistinguishable from work in Sterling silver. Its pattern, ornaments and workmanship ar made equal to those for which the Company's Sterling Silverware has been so highly com mended. To these conditions is added the undefinable air or style which distinguishes th than this one of the guilty woman of genuine in everything from the work of imitators and which naturally transfers itself from Shakspeare's bloody tragedy as presented the Sterling to the plated ware." The price of these goods is only a trifle higher than some o the inferior productions.
