D. D., preached a very powerful and eloquent sermon based on Luke xiv. 28-30. After showing how the apostles were called "fishers," "sowers," "reapers," "laborers of the vineyard," "builders," taking up the lines, building the temple to the young candidates, laying stress upon: 1. The building they were to build. 2. The cost they are to count.

The Rev. F. W. Weiskotten now announced the names of the candidates for ordination as follows: H. G. B. Artman, Ernest Cassidy, C. K. Drummelger, G. F. C. Fluck, G. C. Hasskard, W. H. Miller, J. Sander J. Guaker. These men came forward and the following order was proceeded with, conducted by Rev. W. S. Mann, D. D., president.

Prayer of self dedication. Demand of the candidates of their faith and self consecration. (Each answering, "Yes, with my whole heart, the Lord helping me, the power and grace of His Holy Spirit.")

The confirmation thereof by the officers. The consecration and ordination by the laying on of hands, in the words, "We now commit unto thee, by the imposition of our hands, the holy office of the Lord and of the Sacraments of the Triune God. We ordain and consecrate thee to a ministry of the church, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost." "Amen! Amen!"

The Lord's Prayer. Presentation of the certificates of ordination. President Mann then delivered the thanks of the body and was replied to on the part of the congregation by Rev. Dr. Greenwald.
