TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 1, 1880.

Booms and Bureaus.

Judge Edmunds, who has seemed to us to be the most likely of all the candidates to receive the Republican presidential nomination...

But we do not thus suspect him. He is the most straightforward and independent of the Republican statesmen...

The exhibition of division and of personal ambition which is so strikingly made by the Republican politician...

Mr. Emerson's health is good and his mind is unimpaired, except that he cannot well remember names and faces...

Princess Leopold and Princess Louise and suites left Toronto for Niagara Falls to-day. Thence they go to Chicago and Milwaukee...

The Lawrence Barrett is writing a life of Fortescue, which will form one of a series of actors' biographies to be shortly published...

Admiral Porter is said not to have a military air, looking no more like an old salt than any business man...

Among our candidates Mr. Tilden is particularly objectionable in his department as a presidential candidate...

There are certain other candidates who have started bureaus, through which they propose to instruct the people as to their duty...

He conducts himself like an emperor. "The state, it is me." It is with this air that the chairman of the national Republican committee refuses to permit the committee to instruct him as to how he shall discharge his duty as chairman...

But really if Mr. Donald Cameron was not a senator and a man of established consequence, it would be very easy to write him down a fool in undertaking to claim to himself the unrestricted exercise of the power of the national committee...

PERSONAL. JOHN BROUGHAM, the actor, is lying at the point of death.

General and Mrs. GRANT arrived in Dubuque, Iowa, yesterday.

Seventy years ago yesterday HONORABLE SEYMOUR was born in town of Pompey, Onondaga county, New York.

MR. EMERSON'S health is good and his mind is unimpaired, except that he cannot well remember names and faces.

MISS ELIZABETH STUART PHELPS is an invalid, a slender, graceful woman, with a sympathetic face and a gentle voice.

Princess Leopold and Princess Louise and suites left Toronto for Niagara Falls to-day. Thence they go to Chicago and Milwaukee...

MINOR TOPICS.

BASS FISHING is lawful from to-day.

THERE is a difference of opinion as to whether Miss Duda Fletcher's recent illness was caused by disappointed love or sewer gas.

PRETTY women should keep together on one side of the pavement so that the men who stare at them will not be made cross-eyed.

THE fact that Moncure D. Conway is coming to this country to establish his son in a law office at Cincinnati speaks volumes for that father's observation and judgment.

SENATOR CAMERON is said to be in a "state of mind" over the proposal to oust him from the chairmanship of the National Republican committee...

COL. McCLELLAN'S view of the situation at Chicago: "Blaine has the largest army with the worst generals that ever entered a political battle."

THE distressing news is flashed over the wires from Chicago that the vice presidential fever has broken out in the New York delegation.

PERSONAL. JOHN BROUGHAM, the actor, is lying at the point of death.

polous; the man who believes in his country first, his party next and himself after them. In a word, that courteous, cautious, conservative and conscientious Democrat, Hon. Samuel J. Randall. Under his banner, he presided, and that he would withdraw with all who might see fit to follow him. He then took his departure from the church, followed closely by a few of his friends.

CAMERON AT BAY.

EXCITEMENT AT CHICAGO.

Great Fight Against the Evil Influence of the "Irish" and "Catholic" Delegation.

In Chicago, yesterday, the New Jersey and Vermont delegations declared against the unit rule, and eighteen New York delegates signed a protest against Grant.

The matter in which Mr. Cameron presided over the deliberations of the committee, says the correspondent of the New York Herald, has convinced most of the members that he is utterly unfit for the responsible duty of calling the convention to order and presiding until the complicated questions which are likely to arise may be disposed of.

THE Imperialists are the field. They say that their opponents concede 315 votes for Grant without enforcing the unit rule.

THE Miller's international exhibition in Cincinnati opened yesterday with a large attendance.

THE steamer Golden Eagle was burned near Alton, Ill., before daylight yesterday morning.

THE internal revenue bureau was advised yesterday of the arrest in Northern Georgia of "the noted illicit distiller" Berong, his three sons and ten others engaged in the same illegal business.

YESTERDAY was observed as Decoration day in New York, Albany, Hartford, etc., Baltimore and San Francisco.

General R. L. Gibson was renominated for representative in Congress by the Democrats of the Second district of Louisiana, yesterday.

LANCASTER, May 25, 1812.

The Phalanx, the Lancaster Yagers and the Pequea Rangers, are all quartered in a very convenient house close to Elkton.

THE undersigned having been appointed a committee for the purpose, hereby in the name and on behalf of the corps with pleasure tender their service to the government as part of the quota of militia to be detached from this county...

BRUTAL PRIZE FIGHT.

Two Allegheny County pugilists in the Ring. One of the most brutal and desperate prize fights was fought near McKeesport at daylight yesterday.

Lancaster Capitalists in Delaware.

The Sussex, Del. Journal notes that Mr. Thomas Baumgardner, of Lancaster, has been re-elected a director of the Breakwater and Frankford railway, which is now in good condition.

Mr. Baumgardner has also been re-elected a director of the Junction and Breakwater road and of the Worcester road. Both these lines are in good condition.

THE annual convention of the Psi Upsilon was held in Ann Arbor, Mich., last week. From the report of the proceedings, published in the Detroit Free Press, we see that Mr. David B. Wilson, of this city, a graduate of Trinity college, was the delegate of Beta Beta chapter and participated in the proceedings and responded to one of the toasts proposed at the grand banquet given at the Russell house.

Abstract from the muster roll of the Lancaster Phalanx.

Table listing names and ranks of the Lancaster Phalanx members, including Officers-Commissioned, Non-Commissioned, Musicians, Drummer, Fifer, Privates, etc.

Items of Interest in the Borough.

Last April two years ago, Mrs. Elizabeth Jowson, a negro, aged then about 48, of Springville, concluded to enlarge her business, which is that of a bone and iron dealer.

MOUNT JOY.

Yesterday Henry Dorley our efficient market-master became fifty years old, and the event was duly celebrated by a gathering of friends at his residence, No. 466 Rockland street.

St. Joseph's Fair.

There was again a good attendance at the fair for the benefit of St. Joseph's church at Rothweiler's hall last evening.

Case Dismissed.

The case against Ed. Wilson, colored, of Middle street, who was charged with keeping a vicious dog, which has bitten several persons, was dismissed by Alderman Donnelly, of the Seventh ward last evening.

Fire at Elizabethtown.

The old fire station and hotel at Elizabethtown, which was occupied by Edward Sweeney, a farmer, was destroyed by fire on Saturday.

Fishing Party.

John B. Roth, E. J. Zalm and John Kepner left Lancaster this morning at an early hour for Mud Island, in the Susquehanna, opposite Washington borough, where they intend fishing for bass.

Drunk and Disorderly.

This morning Alderman McCoomy committed Reuben Hutton to twenty days imprisonment in the Lancaster county jail for drunken and disorderly conduct on the night of the Republican primary election.

STATE ITEMS.

The International exhibition company, of Philadelphia, will celebrate the 5th of July (the 4th falling on Sunday) in grand style.

A Dreadful Death.

An employee of the Lucy furnace Allentown, named George Shade, was crossing the railroad track in the yard of the furnace shortly after four o'clock, and was caught between two cars which were passing each other at one of the frogs of the switch.

The Tale of a Democrat.

Five colored delegates, instructed to vote for Grant, arrived in Washington last week and were immediately nabbed by the Sherman men, who made proposals which induced them to change their opinions about the advisability of nominating the ex-president.

Booming for Randall.

Cast off without delay the trammels of Tildenism, abandon the senility of Seymour and place in the front rank of the renovated Democracy the man who is hale and vigorous; the man who is earnest and honest; the man who is shrewd, yet scrupulous; the man who believes in his country first, his party next and himself after them.

Regular and Fatal Accident in Salisbury Township.
