

SHIVELY-SHAFFER.

A Brilliant Wedding Last Night. Never did Trinity Lutheran church contain within its venerable walls a more joyous or attractive assemblage than that gathered there last evening.

Shortly after 8 o'clock the bridal party arrived, in coaches, and, as they entered, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played upon the grand organ by Mr. B. Z. Shreiner. The bridal procession was in the following order:

Ushers—S. W. Altick, J. L. Steinmetz, J. B. Rupley, Wm. J. Fordney, Harry Bowman, Dr. Oliver Roland.

Bridesmaids and groomsmen—Miss Mazo Cameron and Mr. J. K. Metzger; Miss Lillie Altick and Edw. J. Watts, etc., Carlisle; Miss Mattie Shaeffer (sister of the bride), and John F. Stewart, esq., Carlisle.

The ceremony ended, the faith of the high contracting parties being mutually pledged, and the blessing of the clergyman being given them, they left the altar, and the organ again pealed forth in merry tones.

The bride and many invited guests were taken in coaches to the residence of the bride's mother, West Orange street, where they were formally received, and where an elegant collation was spread.

The bride was made the recipient of many valuable presents, including diamond ear-rings, a great variety of silver, glass and china ware, bronzes statuettes, hand-some furniture, lace curtains and many other fabrics, pictures and works of art.

The reception was kept up until half-past 11 o'clock, and about half-past twelve the happy couple, accompanied by a few friends, left for Philadelphia. They will visit the seashore and make a somewhat extended wedding tour, and returning, settle in Carlisle.

MT. JOY NEWS.

Interesting Items from Our Regular Correspondent. W. Scott Walton died yesterday shortly after noon, at the residence of his mother, on East Main street, from a complication of ailments, which caused long and painful suffering.

At a meeting of the board of school directors last night the following teachers were elected to teach in the public schools of the borough the ensuing term of eight months, commencing the latter part of next August: Principal, Douglass Patterson; assistant in the high school, Miss Mary E. Buckwater; secondary, Miss Regina Myers; first primary, Miss Bella Leader; second primary, Miss Louisa Kuhns; third primary, Miss Carrie Driscoll; fourth primary, Miss Fannie Marsh.

The cut worm is doing much havoc among the tobacco plants that were set out. Some of the farmers are checking the destruction by using Paris green in the same way as it is applied to potato bugs.

Robert McFadden is erecting an ice house near the Pennsylvania freight station. It will be his store ice as he receives it by rail.

This morning the prospects are good for rain, and the tobacco farmers are astir. Those who think they have finished planting can find plenty to do at replanting.

Declared a Lunatic. Yesterday, an application of David Hartman, testimony was taken before Maj. A. C. Reimold, commissioner, and a jury composed of Geo. W. Eaby, C. F. Stoner, David Warfel, Samuel E. Ball, C. M. Gibbs and Augustus Reinhold, jr., to test the lunacy of Samuel L. Hartman, of this city.

Plate Glass Broken. Last evening while the Republicans were engaged in sending of their fire works, one of the sky rockets took a wrong direction and shot horizontally through the square until it struck the large plate glass window in front of Nimlow's cigar store, through which it crashed with thundering sound, entailing considerable loss, but doing no bodily injury.

The first annual picnic of Bethany mission Sunday school will be held in Millersville park on Thursday, June 24. As this is a young mission and composed mostly of poor children, many of whom cannot afford to pay for a day's pleasure, it commends itself to the liberal assistance of the charitable.

THE FESTIVAL SEASON.

St. Joseph's fair and festival closed last night in a blaze of glory. The attendance was large and the net profits over $2,000. This handsome sum relieves St. Joseph's church entirely from debt, and leaves a balance in the treasury.

The result of the voting for the several articles disposed of by ballot resulted as follows, each vote representing ten cents:

Table with 2 columns: Item and Amount. Includes Leonard Schmid (2,186), Ansel Kirchner (299), Henry Darenkemp (543), John Dillich (1076), Rosy Fritsch (953), Mary Bender (250), Miss Wolpert (984), Matilda Seigle (19).

At the Old Stone Church. The festival at St. Mary's old stone church on West Vine street, continues in progress and is being liberally patronized. This evening another "package auction" will be held and to-morrow evening the entertainment of the parochial school recently given in Fulton opera house will be repeated and constitute a very attractive feature of the festival.

The Union Bethel Festival. Last evening a strawberry and ice cream festival was opened in the lecture room of the Union Bethel church, on the corner of Prince and Orange streets. The room has been trimmed with evergreens, flags and flowers. In the front of the room is a high wooden pedestal on which is a beautiful large eagle. At each door in the rear of the church are two stands at which candies, nuts, &c., are sold.

Several articles are to be chanced off, including a barrel of flour and a fine chair. The person selling the largest number of tickets will have his or her picture painted by a well-known artist at the expense of the church. Over 1,000 tickets have been sold already by persons who are contesting for this prize.

This evening a night-blooming cereus, belonging to George Flick, which will bloom to-night, will be on exhibition at the festival.

Mr. Jacob Dutenhofer, an employee of the Pennsylvania railroad as brakeman, while engaged in coupling cars yesterday had his left hand caught and two fingers badly smashed.

The Republican nominations fell flat here. The Grant men are disgusted and the Blaine men disappointed. There was a feeble rally parade last evening, and C. C. Kaufman, esq., secretary of the Young Men's Republican club, made a "carbuncle" speech to a crowd in front of the opera house, in which he claimed the nomination to be a victory over the bosses and a black eye for Cameron in Pennsylvania.

The Columbia Rifles celebrated their first anniversary in Company H armory last evening. The building was packed to its utmost capacity. The drilling of the company was good, and the approbation of the audience was expressed by frequent applause.

LARCENY AND ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

Ernest Henrici Beaten by Two Young Men. Yesterday afternoon John Drachbar and Briece Painter, two young men who have made their marks in police circles, got drunk and went to the house of Ernest Henrici, baker, on Middle street.

He was immediately sent to the wagon of Mr. Henrici, which was standing in the yard, loaded with bread. They took a lot of the bread from the wagon and were about carrying it off when Mr. Henrici put in an appearance and told them to stop. They waited until Henrici came up to them when one of them knocked him down, after which both gave him a severe beating.

He was committed in default of bail for a hearing, but later in the evening he furnished the necessary amount and was released. Painter was captured on Middle street, and being unable to give bail was sent to jail. The men will be heard on Friday. Both Painter and Drachbar are members of the crowd of young men known as the "Star" club.

A Steer on the Rampage.

Frederick Banker, butcher, at 36 North Fryer street, last evening drew a steer to the slaughter block, but the wild animal broke and the infuriated animal got loose, and rushing into the stable yard smashed to pieces a sleigh and made a lad who was assisting Mr. Banker flee for his life.

Finally Martin Metzroth, a trusty rifle, came to the rescue with his unerring shot and the steer was dispatched at long range.

Sent Out.

Ellen Stewart, colored, had a hearing before Alderman Donnelly, of the Seventh ward, on a drunken and disorderly conduct charge, and was sent to jail for 10 days.

Hollinger's Cakes.

Ever since Wm. H. Hollinger, of Litzitz, has been attending the softener market, this city, where his stand is at No. 34 and 38, his cakes have been gaining favor with the host of people of good taste who through that bazaar. Mr. H. has a fine bakery, ice cream garden and confectionery in Litzitz, but the popularity of his delicious cakes has created for them a wonderful demand in the Lancaster market, and as an illustration of this it may be cited that of crullers alone he has sold on the last eight market days an aggregate of 9,759. His "lady cake" is famous, and a tasteful and well-assorted basket sent to the INTELLIGENCER office yesterday satisfied us that his sponge, ice cream cake, buns, chocolate, roll, jelly, doughnuts, tea, dinner, cream cake, streusel cake, and other varieties, are not a whit behind.

Attractions at Astrict's.

The Messrs. Astrict, of the Lancaster Bazaar, No. 13 East King street, have been adding to their very fine and prettily arranged, the lace department being especially complete and handsome. To be appreciated it must be seen.

From the Rockport, Ind., Banner. There is no medicine in the world which has gained such a name as Dr. J. C. Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It is the best of its kind, and its use is truly wonderful curative power. Mr. F. R. Rodenberger, of Grandview, called at our office last week and related the following circumstances: I suffered with Rheumatism for over six years; consulted many physicians and tried hundreds of remedies, but without avail. Having seen Dr. J. C. Ayer's Sarsaparilla in your paper, and heard of some most astonishing cures, I sent to Rockport for a bottle of the Oil, and used it according to directions. The relief I felt was almost "electric." I got better once, and now there is not a trace of Rheumatism left in my body.

THIRD EDITION.

WEATHER INDICATIONS. WASHINGTON, June 9.—For the Middle Atlantic states, stationary or rising, followed by falling barometer, cooler northeast, veering to slightly warmer east or south winds, partly cloudy weather, and local rains.

GARFIELD SPEAKS. What He Said When Officially Informed of His Nomination. CHICAGO, June 9.—Near midnight the committee appointed by Senator Hoar to wait on Generals Garfield and Arthur, and notify them of their nomination, found them in the club room of the Grand Pacific hotel, and Senator Hoar, as chairman, made an appropriate speech.

General Garfield replied: "Mr. Chairman and gentlemen—I assure you that the information you have officially given to me brings the sense of very grave responsibility, and especially lay so in view of the fact that I was a member of your body; a fact that could not have existed with propriety had I had the slightest expectation that my name would be connected with the nomination for the office. I have felt with you great solicitude concerning the situation of our party during the struggle, but believing that you are correct in assuring me that substantial unity has been reached in the conclusion, it gives me gratification far greater than any personal pleasure your announcement can bring. I accept the trust committed to my hands. As to the work of our party, and as the character of the campaign to be entered upon, I will take an early occasion to reply more fully than I can properly do to-night. I thank you for the assurance of confidence and esteem you have presented to me, and hope we shall see our future as promising as are the indications to-night."

Senator Hoar in the same manner presented the nomination to Gen. Arthur, who accepted it in a brief and informal way.

How Grant Took It. CHICAGO, June 9.—The Times of this morning prints the following: "GALENA, Ill., June 8.—Gen. Grant was at Gen. Rawling's office as usual this afternoon receiving dispatches. When the news of Gen. Garfield's nomination was received he said it was all right, he was satisfied, and soon after he left for home."

New Orleans Press Opinion. NEW ORLEANS, La., May 9.—The Times says: "Gen. Garfield is a very fair representative of the better element of the Republican party, superior to most of his competitors at Chicago in mental force, and equal to them in other essential attributes. He was somewhat startled by the Credit Mobilier scandal, but it did not stick sufficiently to impede this advancement."

The Pequot says the nomination of Gen. Garfield relieves the country from the apprehensions of dangers involved in a third term, and refers to the De Goyer and Credit Mobilier scandals, and says: "But Garfield is, all those reasons to the contrary, a strong candidate and a party favorite, and will heal its dissensions and poll the full Republican vote. He will not be easily defeated. That the Democrats are under the necessity of either yielding victory or nominating a man who will carry every Democratic state in the union, the whole South, New York and Indiana."

A Motto That Means Nothing. CHICAGO, June 9.—Senator Wagner's party left here this morning for New York. Their car is decorated with flags and the motto "New York solid for Gen. J. A. Garfield of Ohio."

York Completes the Ticket. YORK, Pa., June 9.—The Democratic county convention did not get through until midnight last night. E. D. Ziegler was nominated for district attorney on the third ballot. Adam F. Griesty was elected chairman of the Democratic county committee, receiving 87 votes to 33 for Geo. E. Sherwood, who had voted for the riot damage bill. [The other nominees of the convention will be found in our news columns.—Eds.]

HENDRICKS PRESIDENT OF THE INDIANA STATE CONVENTION. INDIANAPOLIS, June 9.—The Democratic state convention met this morning and Thos. A. Hendricks was elected permanent chairman.
